ters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins. 5 Afterwards he measured a thousand; and it was a river which I could not pass; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river which could not be passed. 6 ¶ And he said to me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river. 7 Now, when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other. 8 Then said he to me, These waters flow out towards the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed. 9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great abundance of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed: and every thing shall live whither the river cometh. 10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand by it from Engedi even to En-eglain; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, like the fish of the great sea, exceedingly many. 11 But the miry places thereof and the marshes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. 12 And by the river on the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for food, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be exhausted: it shall bring forth early fruit according to its months, because their waters they flowed from the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for food, and the leaf thereof for medicine. 13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord JEHOVAH; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. 14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning which I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance. 15 And this shall be the border of the land towards the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; 16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazar-hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran. 17 And the border from the sea shall be Hazar-eanan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side. 18 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border to the east sea. And this is the east side. 19 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the waters of Ibsrite in Kadesh, the torrent to the great sea. And this is the south side southward. 20 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

21 So shall ye divide this land, to you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you, and to the strangers who sojourn among you, who shall beget children among you: and they shall be to you as though born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in whatever tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord JEHOVAH.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

1, 23 The portions of the twelve tribes, 8 of the sanctuary, 15 of the city and suburbs, 21 and of the prince. 30 The dimensions and gates of the city.

NOW these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the place of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazar-enan, the border of Damascus northward, to the place of Hamath; (for these are his sides east and west;) a portion for Dan.

2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Asher.

3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, a portion for Reuben.

7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, a portion for Judah.

8 ¶ And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

9 The oblation which ye shall offer to JEHOVAH shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

10 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; towards the north five and twenty thousand in length, and towards the west ten thousand in breadth, and towards the east ten thousand in breadth, and towards the south five and twenty thousand in length; and the sanctuary of JEHOVAH shall be in the midst thereof.

11 ¶ It shall be for the priests who are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; who have kept my charge, who went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

12 And this oblation of the land which is offered shall be to them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

13 And over against the border of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

14 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the first-fruits of the land: for it is holy to JEHOVAH.

15 ¶ And the five thousand, which are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs, and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

16 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

17 And the suburbs of the city shall be towards the north two hundred and fifty, and towards the south two hundred and fifty, and towards the east two hundred and fifty, and towards the west two hundred and fifty.

18 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food to those who serve the city.

19 And those who serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand; ye shall offer the holy oblation square, with the possession of the city.

21 ¶ And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation towards the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand towards the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

22 And from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

23 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion.

24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar a portion.

26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun a portion.

27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad a portion.

28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Istrate in Kadesh, and to the torrent towards the great sea.

29 ¶ This is the land which ye shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord JEHOVAH.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known to me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore, shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know certainly that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

9 But, if ye will not make known to me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man on the earth who can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, who hath asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a difficult thing which the king requireth and there is no other who can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with prudence and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who had gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies for the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions might not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons; he removeth kings, and setteth up kings; he giveth wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who know understanding:

22 He revealeth the deep and hidden things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known to me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known to us the king's matter.

24 Therefore, Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus to him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew to the king the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus to him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation.

26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath asked, the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the sooth-sayers, cannot shew to the king;

28 But, there is a God in heaven who revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head on thy bed, are these;

29 Thou—O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind on thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he who revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me by any wisdom which I have more than any living, but so that the interpretation should be made known to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 Thou, O king, wast looking, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was great, stood before thee; and the appearance thereof was terrible.

32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 33 His legs of iron, his feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

34 Thou didst see fill that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image on his feet which were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 Thou, O king, art a king of kings; for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and authority, and glory.

38 And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thy hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong like iron: because iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou didst see the feet and toes, partly of potters' clay, and partly of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou didst see the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron, and partly of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly weak.

43 And whereas thou didst see iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.

45 Forasmuch as thou didst see that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass thereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours to him.

47 The king answered to Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

48 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

CHAPTER III.

1 Nebuchadnezzar dedicated a golden image in Dura. 3 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego are accused for not worshipping the image. 19 They, being threatened, make a good confession. 19 God delivereth them out of the furnace. 26 Nebuchadnezzar seeing the miracle blesseth God.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits; he set it up in the valley of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the lawyers, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the lawyers, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image which Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4 Then a herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages, 5 That at the time when ye hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, bagpipe, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image which Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up. 6 And whosoever falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 7 Therefore, at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. 8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews. 9 They spoke and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever. 10 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man who shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image: 11 And whosoever falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. 13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king. 14 Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said to them, Is it your purpose, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? 15 Now if ye be ready at the time when ye hear the sound of the horn, flute, harp, lyre, psaltery, and bagpipe, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that will deliver you from my hands? 16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter: 17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us from thy hand, O king. 18 But if not, be it known to thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. 19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace ²² seven times more than it was ²¹ usually heated.

²¹ Then these men were bound in their ²⁰ wide drawers, their ¹⁹ under drawers, and their ¹⁸ mantles, and their ¹⁷ other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

²³ And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound in the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spoke, and said to his ²³ counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said to the king, ²² Certainly, O king.

²⁵ He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, ²⁴ walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt: and the ²³ appearance of the fourth is like ²² the Son of God.

²⁶ ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spoke, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come ²⁵ hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth ²⁴ from the midst of the fire.

²⁸ Then Nebuchadnezzar spoke, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants who ²⁷ trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

²⁹ ¶ Therefore, ¶ I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, who speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be ²⁸ cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a ²⁷ manure-heap: because there is no other god who can deliver ²⁶ thus.

³⁰ Then the king ²⁹ promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

¶ I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace:

I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the astrologers, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me the interpretation thereof.

But at last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

Thus were the visions of my head in my bed; ¶ I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached to heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and on it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed from it.

I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven;

He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches.

Nevertheless, leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a letter of iron and brass, among the tender grass of the field; and let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts among the grass of the earth.

Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him.

This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: so that the living may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

Thus dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

¶ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spoke, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belshazzar answered, and said, My lord, 'the dream be to those who hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 'The tree which thou didst see, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

21 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and on it was food for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and on whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

22 'It is thou, O king, who art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth to heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

23 'And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a fetter of iron and brass, among the tender grass of the field; and let him be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

24 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which hath come upon my lord the king:

25 'That they will drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass like oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure to thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

27 Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the afflicted; that it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

29 And at the end of twelve months he walked upon the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The king spoke, and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 'While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee:

32 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass like oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, that thou mayest know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And 'at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes to heaven, and mine understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured him 'that liveth for ever, whose dominion is "an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And 'all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and 'no one can stay his hand, or say to him, 'What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned to me: 'and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and splendour returned to me; and my counsellors and my nobles petitioned me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me.

37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, 'all whose works are sure, and his ways judgment: 'and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

CHAPTER V.

1 Belshazzar's impious feast. 3 A handwriting, unknown to the magicians, troubleth the king. 10 At the commendation of the queen, Daniel is brought. 17 He, reproving the king of pride and idolatry, reads and interpreteth the writing. 30 The monarchy is translated to the Medes.

BELSHAZZAR the king 'made a great feast to a thousand of his nobles, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels 'which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his nobles, his wives, and his concubines, might drink 'therefrom.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels 'which had been taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his nobles, his wives, and his concubines, drank 'from them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ 'In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the 'palm of the hand which wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the 'joints of his loins became weak, and his knees smote one against another.

7 'The king cried aloud to bring in 'the enchanters, the 'astrologers, and the sooth-sayers. And the king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, Who ever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with 'purple, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: 'but they could not read the writing, and make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly

8 Now, O king, establish the prohibition, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians; which faltreth not.

9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing, even the prohibition.

10 ¶ Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber towards Jerusalem, he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did formerly.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

12 ¶ Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree; Haat thou not signed a prohibition, that every man who shall ask a petition from any God or man within thirty days, except from thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is certain, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the prohibition which thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no prohibition nor decree which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

17 ¶ And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own seal-ring, and with the seal-ring of his nobles; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

18 ¶ Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither did he allow his concubines to come before him: and his sleep was fled from him.

19 ¶ Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice to Daniel: and the king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 ¶ Then said Daniel to the king, O king, live for ever.

22 ¶ My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: because before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 ¶ Then was the king exceedingly glad concerning him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den.

So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they reached the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then king Darius wrote to all people, nations, and languages, who dwell on all the earth; Peace be multiplied to you.

26 ¶ I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and steadfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even to the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 ¶ And this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Daniel's vision of four beasts. 4 of God's kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

IN the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head on his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

2 Daniel spoke and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven rushed upon each other on the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, different one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings; I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand on the feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 ¶ And behold another beast, a second, like a bear, and [it] raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus to it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this, I beheld, and lo, another, like a leopard, which had on the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with its feet: and it was different from all the beasts which were before it; and it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another little horn, before which there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 ¶ I beheld till the thrones were placed, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool.

his throne was like flames of fire, and his wheels like burning fire.

10 A fiery stream flowed and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment sat, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As to the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And there was given to him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom, that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise from the earth.

18 But the saints of the Most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and trampled the residue with his feet;

20 And concerning the ten horns which were on his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even concerning that horn which had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was bolder than his companions.

21 I had seen, and the same horn had made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High; and the time came when the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said; The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings who shall arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be different from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And he shall speak great words against the Most High, and shall oppress the saints of the Most High, and expect to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion to consume and to destroy it to the end.

27 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my countenance changed on me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Daniel's vision of the ram and he-goat. 13 The two thousand three hundred days of sacrifice. 15 Gabriel comforteth Daniel, and interpreteth the vision.

IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, me Daniel, after that which appeared to me at first.

2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver from his power; but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran to him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close to the ram; and he was enraged against him, and smote the ram, and broke his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him: and there was none that could deliver the ram from his power.

8 Therefore, the he-goat became very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it, came up four conspicuous ones towards the four winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which became exceedingly great, towards the south, and towards the east, and towards the beautiful land.

10 And it became great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and trampled on them.

11 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And a host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and he cast down the truth to the ground; and he practised, and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said to ¶ that certain saint who spoke, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression ¶ that maketh desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

14 And he said to me, Until two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then behold, there stood before me one ¶ like the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Utai, who called, and said, ¶ Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

17 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell on my face: but he said to me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

18 ¶ Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face towards the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

19 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

20 ¶ The ram which thou hast seen having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

21 ¶ And the hairy goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn which is between his eyes is the first king.

22 ¶ Now that being broken, whereas four arose in its stead, four kingdoms shall arise out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors shall have fulfilled their sins, a king of shameless countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall arise.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his cunning also he shall cause craft to prosper by his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and through security shall destroy many: he shall also arise against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

26 ¶ And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

27 ¶ And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I arose, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Daniel, considering the time of the captivity, 3 maketh confession of sins, 16 and prayeth for the restoration of Jerusalem. 20 Gabriel informeth him of the seventy weeks.

IN the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the race of the Medes, who had been made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

19 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be to thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken to me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come to thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Greece shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is recorded in the writing of truth: and there is no one who aideth me in these things, except Michael your prince.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the King of Greece. 5 Leagues and conflicts between the Kings of the south and of the north. 30 The invasion and tyranny of the Romans.

ALSO I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there will yet arise three kings in Persia; and the fourth will be far richer than they all: and according to his strength through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece.

3 And a mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

4 And when he shall arise, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided towards the four winds of heaven; but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And after some years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make peace: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall she stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and those who brought her, and the who begot her, and he who strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his stead, who shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 Thus the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons shall make war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he again make war, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be enraged, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall set forth a great multitude;

but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall again set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the oppressors of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fail.

15 And the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the fortified cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither this chosen people neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he who cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the beautiful land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and supplant ones with him: thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face to the isles, and shall take many: but a leader for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face towards the fortress of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his stead an extractor of tribute in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

21 And in his stead shall stand up a despised person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter the quiet and fertile places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall contrive his devices against the fortresses, even for a time.

25 And he shall rouse up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall prepare war for battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall contrive devices against him.

26 Even those who eat his food shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall again come towards the south; but it shall not be like the former, or like the latter.

30 ¶ For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be faint-hearted, and return, and be angry against the holy covenant; thus shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with those who forsake the holy covenant.

31 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries; but the people who do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

33 And those who understand among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fail by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, some days.

34 Now when they shall fail, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

35 And some of those of understanding shall fail, to purify them, and to cleanse, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak wonderful things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that which is decreed shall be done.

37 Neither shall he regard the souls of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

38 But in his stead shall he honour the god of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the fortresses with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a tempest, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the beautiful land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasure of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Ethiopians shall be in his company.

44 But reports from the east and from the north shall trouble him; therefore he shall go forth with great fury to ruin, and utterly to destroy many.

45 And he shall plant the pavilions of his palace between the seas on the beautiful holy mountain: yet he shall come to his end, and no one shall help him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles.
2 Daniel is informed of the times.

AND at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth up for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one who shall be found written in the book.

2 And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting abhorrence.

3 And those who are wise, shall shine like the brightness of the firmament; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 ¶ Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood two others, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was over the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was over the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who liveth for ever, that it should be for a time, times, and a half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

8 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are shut up and sealed till the time of the end.

10 Many shall be cleansed, and made white, and purified; but the wicked will do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

11 And from the time when the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12 Happy is he who waiteth, and attaineth to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

13 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

CHAPTER I.

1 Hosea, to shew God's judgment for spiritual lewdness, taketh Gomer, 4 and hath by her Jezreel, 6 Lo-ruhamah, 8 and Lo-ammi. 10 The restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of JEHOVAH which came to Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of JEHOVAH by Hosea. NOW JEHOVAH said to Hosea, Go, take to thyself a wife of lewdness and children of lewdness; for the land hath committed great lewdness, by departing from JEHOVAH.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; who conceived, and bore him a son.

4 And JEHOVAH said to him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I willavenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And God said to him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah; for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by JEHOVAH their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said to them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one chief, and they shall come up from the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER II.

1 The idolatry of the people. 6 God's judgments against them. 14 His promises of reconciliation with them.

SAY ye to your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

2 Contend with your mother, contend; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her lewdness from her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day when she was born, and make her like a desert, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy on her children; for they are the children of lewdness.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go back to my first husband; for then was it better to my than now.

8 For she did not consider that I gave her corn, and new wine, and fresh oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they wrought for Baal.

9 Therefore, will I take back my corn in the time thereof, and my new wine in the season thereof, and will take away my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I expose her shameful deed in the sight of her lovers, and no one shall deliver her from my hand.

11 I will also cause all her joy to cease, her feast days, her new-moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines and her fig-trees, whereof she hath said, These are my gifts which my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land, and will make them to lie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee to myself for ever; yea, I will betroth thee to myself in righteousness, and in judgment, and in kindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee to myself in faithfulness: and thou shalt know JEHOVAH.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith JEHOVAH, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

5 ¶ For their mother hath played the harlot: she who conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

who remove the landmark: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken by judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be to Ephraim like a moth, and to the house of Judah like rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 I will go back to my place, till they suffer for their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER VI.

1 An exhortation to repentance. A complaint of their ungodliness and iniquity.

COME, and let us return to JEHOVAH: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his presence.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know JEHOVAH: his going forth is prepared like the morning; and he will come to us like the shower, like the latter and former rain to the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shall I do to thee? O Judah, what shall I do to thee? for your goodness is like a morning cloud, and like the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are like the light which goeth forth.

6 For I desired mercy rather than sacrifice: and the knowledge of God more than burnt-offerings.

7 But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gilead is a city of those who work iniquity, and hath footsteps of blood.

9 And as troops of robbers lie in wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way to Shechem: for they commit crimes.

10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the lewdness of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set a harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER VII.

1 A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against them for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was revealed, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood: and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts, that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them around; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, like an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth to rouse it up after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorn.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They have all heated themselves like an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth to me:

8 Ephraim, he hath mixed himself with the nations; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are sprinkled upon him, yet he knoweth not. 10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: for they do not return to JEHOVAH their God, nor seek him for all this. 11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without understanding: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net over them; I will bring them down like the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard. 13 Wo to them! for they have wandered from me: destruction to them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried to me with their heart, when they howled on their beds; they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me. 15 Though I have chastened and then strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me. 16 They return not to the Most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the insolence of their tongue: this shall be their reproach in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER VIII.

1, 12 Destruction is threatened for their impiety, and idleness.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come like an eagle against the house of JEHOVAH, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry to me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off that which is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I approved it not: of their silver and their gold have they made themselves idols, that they might be cut off.

5 Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast them off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be before they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: for the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if by chance it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel which is not desired.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired flouers.

10 But though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow for the burden of the king and princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be to him for sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were esteemed like a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but Jehovah accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth palaces; and Judah hath multiplied fortified cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the castles thereof.

CHAPTER IX.

The distress and captivity of Israel for their sins and idolatry.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, like other people: for thou hast gone fewdly from thy God, thou hast loved a reward on every corn-floor.

2 The flour and the wine-vat shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in Jehovah's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine-offerings to Jehovah, neither shall they be pleasing to him: their sacrifices shall be to them as the bread of mourners; all who eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of Jehovah.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of Jehovah?

6 For lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant things purchased for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their habitations.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of their iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and destruction in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: He will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Israel like grapes in the desert; I saw your fathers like the first ripe fig on the fig-tree at its first time: but they went to Baal-peor, and separated themselves to that shame; and their abominations were according to their love.

11 As to Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.
12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, not a man shall be left: yea, wo to them when I depart from them!
13 I saw Ephraim like Tyre, planted in a fertile place; but Ephraim shall bring forth his children for the murderer.
14 Give them, O Jehovah: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them from my house. I will love them no more: all their princes are revolvers.
16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved whom they bring forth.
17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken to him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER X.

Israel is reproved and threatened for their emptiness and idolatry.

ISRAEL is a spreading vine, he bringeth forth fruit to himself: according to the abundance of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is deceitful; now shall they be punished: he shall break down their altars, he will spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not Jehovah; what then can a king do for us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up like the poppy in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the idol-priests thereof shall tremble over it, for the glory thereof, because it hath departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried to Assyria, for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off like the foam on the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the bottle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 According to my desire I will chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them; and they shall bind them for their two iniquities.

11 And Ephraim is like a heifer that is trained, and loveth to tread out the grain; but I passed over on their fair neck: I will yoke Ephraim; Judah shall plough, and Jacob shall harrow his clods.

12 Sow for yourselves in righteousness, reap according to mercy; break up your follow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness on you.

13 Ye have ploughed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces with her children.

15 So shall Beth-el do to you because of your great wickedness: in the morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER XI.

1 The ingratitude of Israel to God for his benefits. 5 His judgment. 8 God's mercy toward them.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son from Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed to Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to walk, taking them by their arms; but they considered not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them like those who take off the yoke on their jaws, and I gently fed them.

5 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the Most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I abandon thee, Israel? how shall I make thee like Admah? how shall I set thee like Zeboiim? my heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not again destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not come in wrath.

10 They shall walk after Jehovah: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall hasten from the west.

11 They shall hasten like a bird from Egypt, and like a dove from the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith Jehovah.

12 Ephraim encompasseth me around with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

to his ways; and according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 He took his brother by the heel at the birth, and by his strength he strove with God:

4 Yea, he strove with the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication to him: he found him in Beth-el, and there he spoke with us;

5 Even Jehovah God of hosts; Jehovah is his memorial.

6 Therefore, turn thou to thy God: keep kindness and justice, and wait for thy God continually.

7 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to suppose.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found myself substance: for all my labours they shall find no iniquity in me which is sin.

9 And I Jehovah thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feasts.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 Now Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet Jehovah brought Israel from Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him most bitterly: therefore will he leave his blood on him, and his reproach shall his Lord return to him.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Ephraim's glory, by reason of idolatry, vaniseth. 5 God's anger for their unkindness. 9 A promise of God's mercy. 15 A judgment for rebellion.

WHEN Ephraim spoke trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended through Baal, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have made themselves molten images of their silver, and idols according to their skill, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men who sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be like the morning cloud, and like the early dew which passeth away, like the chaff which is driven with the whirlwind from the threshing-floor, and like the smoke from the chimney.

4 Yet I am Jehovah thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt acknowledge no God but me: for there is no saviour besides me.

5 I acknowledged thee in the desert, in the thirsty land.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be to them as a lion: a leopard by the way, will I watch them.

8 I will meet them like a bear when reaved of her whelps, and will rend the caut of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: †the wild beast shall tear them.

9 ¶ O Israel, †thou hast destroyed thyself; †but in me †is thy help.

10 ¶ †Where is thy king? †where is †he who may save thee in all †thy cities? †or thy judges of whom †thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

11 †I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took †him away in my wrath.

12 †The iniquity of Ephraim is †treasured up; his sin is †hoarded up.

13 †The sorrows of a †travailing woman shall come upon him: he is †an unwise son; †else he would not †stay †long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 †I will ransom them from †the power of the †grave; I will redeem them from death; †O death, I will be thy plagues, O grave, I will be thy destruction: †repentance shall be hidden from mine eyes.

15 ¶ Though †he be fruitful among his wind of JEHOVAH shall come up from the †desert, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall †plunder the treasure of all †pleasant vessels.

hath rebelled against her God: †they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

¶ JOEL.

CHAPTER I.

1 Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them, 8 and to mourn. 14 He prescribeth a fast for complaint.

THE word of JEHOVAH which came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. †Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 †Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 †That which the †palmer-worm hath left hath the †locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the †canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm hath left hath the †caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the †sweet wine; †for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For †a nation †hath come up upon my land, strong, and without number, †whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the †jaw-teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath †laid my vine waste, and tharbed my fig-tree: he hath made it †quite bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ †Lament like a †bride girded with sackcloth for †the husband of her youth.

9 †The †meal-offering and the drink-offering is cut off from the house of JEHOVAH;
the priests, JEHOVAH'S ministers, mourn.

Table with 2 columns: Before CHRIST cir. 800. and Before CHRIST cir. 600. containing various biblical references.

10 The field is wasted, †the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: †the new wine is †dried up, the †fresh oil languisheth.

11 †Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 †The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered:
because †joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 †Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar:
come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for †the †meal-offering and the drink-offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ †Appoint ye a fast, call †a †solemn assembly, gather the elders and †all the inhabitants of the land into the house of JEHOVAH your God, and cry to JEHOVAH.

15 †Alas for the day! for †the day of Jxhovah is †near, and †like destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the †food cut off before our eyes, yea, †joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The †seeds are dried up under their clouds, the †store-houses are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How †the beasts groan. the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O JEHOVAH, to thee will I cry: for a fire hath devoured the pastures of the waste region, and a flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also to thee: for the streams of water are dried up, and a fire hath devoured the pastures of the waste region.

CHAPTER II.

1 He sheweth to Zion the terribleſſeſſe of God's judgment. 12 He exhorteth to repentance, 15 prescribeth a fast, 18 promiseth a blessing thereon. 21 He comforteth Zion with present, 23 and future blessings.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of JEHOVAH cometh, for it is near;

2 A day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, like the morning spread upon the mountains: a great and strong people; there hath never been the like, neither shall there be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is like the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate waste; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses; and like horsemen so shall they run.

5 Like the rattling of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battlearray.

6 Before them the people shall tremble: all faces shall gather blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall on the dart, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run through the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And JEHOVAH shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong who executeth his word: for the day of JEHOVAH is great and very terrible; and who can endure it?

12 Yet now, saith JEHOVAH, Turn ye to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And rend your heart rather than your garments, and turn to JEHOVAH your God: for he is compassionate and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 Who knoweth but he will turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even as a meal-offering and a drink-offering for JEHOVAH your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, appoint a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, purify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and the sucklings: let the bridegroom go forth from his chamber, and the bride from her nuptial-bed.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of JEHOVAH, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O JEHOVAH, and give not thine inheritance to reproach, to be a by-word among the heathen: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 Then will JEHOVAH be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

19 Yea, JEHOVAH will answer and say to his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and new wine, and fresh oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive it into a dry land, and desolate, with its front towards the eastern sea, and its rear towards the western sea; and its ill odour shall come up, and its stench shall come up, because it hath done great things.

21 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for JEHOVAH will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the waste region do spring, for the tree beareth its fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in JEHOVAH your God: for he hath given you the former rain in just measure, and he will cause to come down for you the showers, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the threshing-floors shall be full of grain, and the vats shall overflow with new wine and fresh oil.

25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of JEHOVAH your God, because he hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am JEHOVAH your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 And it shall come to pass afterwards, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.

30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of JEHOVAH come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that 'whoever shall call on the name of JEHOVAH shall be delivered: for 'on mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as JEHOVAH hath said, and 'among 'the remnant whom JEHOVAH shall call.

CHAPTER III.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of his people. 9 God will be known in his judgment. 18 His blessing upon the church.

FOR behold, 'in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the 'captives of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 'I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into 'the valley of Jehoshaphat, and 'will 'contend with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and 'divided my land.

3 And they have 'cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 'And now what have ye to do with me, 'O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the 'regions of Philistia? 'will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompense on your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly 'pleasant things.

6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold to the 'Greeks, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, 'I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompense on your own head;

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters 'by the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the 'Sabeans, to a 'nation 'far off: for JEHOVAH hath spoken it.

9 ¶ 'Proclaim ye this among the 'heathen; 'Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:

and your 'pruning-hooks into spears: 'let the weak say, I am strong.

11 'Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: 'there bring down 'thy mighty ones, O JEHOVAH.

12 Let the heathen be awakened, 'and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to 'judge all the heathen 'around.

13 'Put ye in the sickle, for 'the harvest is ripe: come, 'go down; for the 'press is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in 'the valley of 'judgment: for 'the day of JEHOVAH is near in the valley of 'judgment.

15 The 'sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 JEHOVAH also shall 'shout from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and 'the heavens and the earth shall shake: 'but JEHOVAH will be the 'refuge of his people, and 'a fortress to the children of Israel.

17 So 'shall ye know that I am JEHOVAH your God dwelling in Zion 'my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be 'holly, and there shall no 'strangers pass through her any more.

18 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, 'that the mountains shall 'drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, 'and all the 'streams of Judah shall flow with waters, and 'a fountain shall come forth 'from the house of the LORD, and shall water 'the valley of Shittim.

19 'Egypt shall be a desolation, and 'Edom shall be a desolate 'waste, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

¶ AMOS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Amos sheweth God's judgment upon Syria, 6 upon the Philistines, 9 upon Tyre, 11 upon Edom, 13 upon Ammon.

THE words of Amos, 'who was among the herdmen of 'Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel 'in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of 'Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the 'earthquake.

2 And he said, JEHOVAH will 'shout from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of 'Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of 'Damascus, 'and for four, I will not turn away 'the punishment thereof; 'because they have threshed Gilead with threshing 'sledges of iron:

4 'But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the 'bars of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from 'the valley of Aven, and him who holdeth the sceptre from 'the house of Eden: and 'the people of Syria shall go into captivity 'to Kir, saith JEHOVAH.

6 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of 'Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away 'the punishment thereof: because they 'carried away 'captives the whole captivity, 'to deliver them up to Edom:

7 'But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant 'from Ashdod, and him who holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will 'turn my hand against Ekron: and 'the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord JEHOVAH.

9 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of 'Tyre, and for four, I will not turn away 'the punishment thereof: 'because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

12 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

13 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they have ripped up the women with child, of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border:

14 But I will kindle a fire on the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, amidst shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

15 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith JEHOVAH.

CHAPTER II.

1 God's wrath against Moab, 4 upon Judah, 6 and upon Israel. 9 God complaineth of their unthankfulness.

THUS saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof, because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth: and Moab shall die amidst tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith JEHOVAH.

4 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they have despised the law of JEHOVAH, and have not kept his ordinances, and their idols caused them to err, after which their fathers have walked:

5 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

6 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof: because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 Who pant for the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the right of the afflicted: and a man and his father will go in to the same maid, to dishonour my holy name;

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of those fined in the house of their gods.

9 ¶ Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

desert, that ye might possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith JEHOVAH.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not.

13 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed which is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not exert his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shall he stand who handleth the bow; and he who is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he who rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he who is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith JEHOVAH.

CHAPTER III.

1 The necessity of God's judgment against Israel. 2 The publication of it, with the causes thereof.

HEAR this word which JEHOVAH hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You only have I acknowledged of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, unless they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry from his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall into a snare on the earth, where no gin is set for him? will one take up a snare from the earth, even when it hath taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people [not be afraid? shall there be calamity in the city, and JEHOVAH hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord JEHOVAH will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret counsel to his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord JEHOVAH hath spoken, who the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter-house with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall be destroyed, saith JEHOVAH.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He reproveth Israel for oppression, & for idolatry, & for their incorrigibility.

HEAR this word, ye sheifers of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord JEHOVAH hath sworn by his holiness, that lo, the days shall come upon you, when he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fish-hooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every one at that which is before her; and I ye shall cast them into the castle, saith JEHOVAH.

4 Come to Beth-el and transgress: at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes every three years:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free-will-offerings: for this pleaseth you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord JEHOVAH.

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned to me, saith JEHOVAH.

7 And also I have withholden the showers from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain on one city, and caused it not to rain on another city: one piece was rained on, and the piece on which it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered to one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned to me, saith JEHOVAH.

9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig-trees and your olive-trees increased, the locust devoured them: yet have ye not returned to me, saith JEHOVAH.

10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the ill odour of your camps to come up to your nostrils: yet have ye not returned to me, saith JEHOVAH.

11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were like a fire-brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned to me, saith JEHOVAH.

12 Therefore, thus will I do to thee, O Israel: and because I will do this to thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For lo, he who formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth to man what his thought is, he maketh the morning darkness, and walketh on the high places of the earth, JEHOVAH, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER V.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God rejecteth their hypocritical service.

HEAR ye this word which I utter against you, a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more arise: she is cast down on her land; there is no one to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord JEHOVAH; The city which sent out a thousand shall leave a hundred, and that which sent forth a hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith JEHOVAH to the house of Israel, Seek me, and ye shall live:

5 But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not over to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nothing.

6 Seek JEHOVAH, and ye shall live: lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness on the earth,

8 Seek him who maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into morning, and maketh the day dark with night: who calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out on the face of the earth: JEHOVAH is his name:

9 Who bringeth destruction suddenly upon the strong, and bringeth desolation upon the fortress.

10 They hate him who rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him who speaketh uprightly.

11 Therefore, because ye trample on the poor, and ye take from him gifts of grain: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore, the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it shall be an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so JEHOVAH, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have said.

15 Hate evil, and love good, and establish justice in the gate: it may be that JEHOVAH the God of hosts will be compassionate to the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore, JEHOVAH, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all the streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful in lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith JEHOVAH.

18 Wo to you who desire the day of JEHOVAH: to what end is it for you? the day of JEHOVAH shall be darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leared his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of JEHOVAH be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ I hate, I despise your feast-days, and I will not have no delight in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt-offerings and your meal-offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the thank-offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy psalteries.

24 But let justice run down like waters, and righteousness like a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered to me sacrifices and offerings in the desert forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made for yourselves.

27 Therefore, will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith JEHOVAH, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER VI.

The wantonness of Israel, 7 shall be plagued with desolation, 12 and their incontinency.

WO to those who rest in Zion, and feel secure in the mountain of Samaria, who are the nobles of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come!

2 Pass ye to Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines: are they better than these kingdoms? or is their border greater than your border?

3 Ye who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of oppression to come near:

4 Who lie on beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs from the flock, and the calves from the midst of the stall;

5 Who chant to the sound of the psaltery, and invent to themselves instruments of music, like David;

6 Who drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the destruction of Joseph.

7 ¶ Therefore, now shall they go captive with the first who go captive, and the shouting of those who stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 The Lord JEHOVAH hath sworn by himself, saith JEHOVAH the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, even he who burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say to him who is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any one with thee? and he shall say, Not one. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we cannot make mention of the name of JEHOVAH.

11 For behold, JEHOVAH commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the small house with cracks.

12 ¶ Will horses run on a rock? will one plough there with oxen? for ye have turned justice into poppy, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood:

13 Ye who rejoice in a useless thing, who say, Have we not taken to ourselves dominion by our own strength?

14 But behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith JEHOVAH the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath to the river of the desert.

CHAPTER VII.

The judgments of the locusts, 3 and of the fire, are declared by the prayer of Amos. 7 By the wall of a plumb-line is signified the rejection of Israel. 10 Amaziah complaineth of Amos. 14 Amos sheweth his calling, 16 and Amaziah's judgment.

THUS hath the Lord JEHOVAH shewed to me; and behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord JEHOVAH, forgive, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 JEHOVAH repented of this: It shall not be, said JEHOVAH.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord JEHOVAH shewed to me; and behold, the Lord JEHOVAH called to contend in judgment by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up the land.

5 Then said I, O Lord JEHOVAH, cease, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 JEHOVAH repented of this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord JEHOVAH.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me: and behold, the Lord stood on a wall made by the plumb-line, and in his hand was a plumb-line.

8 And JEHOVAH said to me, Amos, what seest thou? and I said, A plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not spare them any more:

9 ¶ For the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos hath said, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive from their own land.

12 ¶ And Amaziah said to Amos, O thou seer, go thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is the king's house.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit:

15 And JEHOVAH took me as I followed the flock, and JEHOVAH said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel.

¶ OBADIAH.

1 The destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, 10 and for their wrong unto Jacob. 17 The salvation and victory of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord JEHOVAH concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from JEHOVAH, for an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen; thou art greatly despised.

3 ¶ The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the refuges of the rock, whose habitation is high; who saith in his heart, Who can bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself like the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith JEHOVAH.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave gleanings?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought out!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men who were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; those who ate thy bread have laid a snare under thee: there is no understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith JEHOVAH, even destroy the wise men from Edom, and understanding from the mount of Esau?

9 For thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, so that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 ¶ For thy violence against thy brother Jacob, shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day when thou didst stand on the other side, in the day when the strangers carried away captives his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast like one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day of his calamity; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the cross-way to cut off his fugitives; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his who remained in the day of distress.

15 For the day of JEHOVAH is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done to thee; thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk on my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 ¶ But on mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and they shall kinde among them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for JEHOVAH hath spoken it.

19 And those of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and those of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilbead.

20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to rule the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be JEHOVAH'S.

¶ JONAH.

CHAPTER I. 1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, saith to Tarshish. 4 He is betrayed by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of JEHOVAH came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach against it; for their wickedness hath come up before me.

3 But Jonah arose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of JEHOVAH; and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of JEHOVAH. 4 ¶ But JEHOVAH sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship was about to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried each man to his god, and cast forth the wares which were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah had gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the ship-master came to him, and said to him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, perhaps God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said each one to his companion, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they to him, "Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?"

9 And he said to them, I am a Hebrew; and I reverence JEHOVAH, the God of heaven, who hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of JEHOVAH, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they to him, What shall we do to thee, that the sea may be calm for us? for the sea is rolled, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said to them, "Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so will the sea be calm for you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is on you.

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea is rolled, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried to JEHOVAH, and said, We beseech thee, O JEHOVAH, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O JEHOVAH, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him into the sea: and the sea ceased from its raging.

16 Then the men feared JEHOVAH exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice to JEHOVAH, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now JEHOVAH had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER II.

1 The prayer of Jonah. 10 He is delivered from the fish.

THEN Jonah prayed to JEHOVAH his God from the fish's belly,

2 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction to JEHOVAH, and he heard me: from the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For thou hadst cast me into the depth, in the midst of the seas; and the flood encompassed me: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 ¶ Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again towards thy holy temple.

5 The waters encompassed me, even to the life: the deep enclosed me around, the weeds were wrapped around my head.

6 I went down to the foundations of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from destruction, O JEHOVAH my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered JEHOVAH: and my prayer came in to thee, into thy holy temple.

8 They who regard vain idols, forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice to thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that which I have vowed. "Salvation is from JEHOVAH.

10 ¶ And JEHOVAH spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER III.

1 Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites. 5 Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth.

AND the word of JEHOVAH came to Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the preaching which I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of JEHOVAH. Now Nineveh was a very great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he preached, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For the word came to the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in the ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily to God: yea, and let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 ¶ Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil which he had said that he would do to them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Jonah, repining at God's mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed to JEHOVAH, and said, I pray thee, O JEHOVAH, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I anticipated it by fleeing to Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 ¶ Therefore now, O JEHOVAH, take I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said JEHOVAH, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 ¶ Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And JEHOVAH God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his trouble. So Jonah was exceedingly glad of the gourd.

to thee of wine and of strong drink; ¹⁰even he will be the prophet ¹¹for this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together ¹³like the sheep of Bozrah, ¹⁴like the flock in the midst of their ¹⁵pasture: they shall ¹⁶be in a tumult by reason of the multitude of men.

13 ¹⁷He who breaketh the way hath come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it; and their king shall pass before them, ¹⁸even JEHOVAH ¹⁹at the head of them.

CHAPTER III.

1 The cruelty of the princes. 5 The falsehood of the prophets. 8 The security of them both.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye ¹magistrates of the house of Israel: ²Is it not for you to ³regard justice?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from ⁴them, and their flesh from ⁵their bones;

3 Who also ⁶eat the flesh of my people, and ⁷strip their skin from ⁸them; and they break their bones, and ⁹break them in pieces, as for the pot, and ¹⁰like flesh within the caldron.

4 Then ¹¹shall they cry to JEHOVAH, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, ¹²because they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH ¹³concerning the prophets who make my people err, who ¹⁴hire with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and ¹⁵he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

6 ¹⁶Therefore, night ¹⁷shall be to you, ¹⁸when ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark to you, ¹⁹so that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down ²⁰upon the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners ²¹amazed; yea, they shall all cover their ²²lips; ²³for there is no answer ²⁴from God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of JEHOVAH, and of judgment, and of might, ²⁵to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and ²⁶magistrates of the house of Israel, who abhor ²⁷justice, and pervert all equity.

10 ²⁸They build up Zion with ²⁹blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 ³⁰The heads thereof judge for ³¹bribes, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean on JEHOVAH, and say, Is not JEHOVAH among us? no evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore, shall Zion for your sake be ³²ploughed ³³like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and ³⁴the mountain of the house ³⁵like the heights of a forest.

of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow to it.

2 And many nations shall ¹go, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of JEHOVAH, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for ²a law shall go forth ³from Zion, and the word of JEHOVAH from Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into ⁴plough-shares, and their spears into ⁵pruning-hooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 ⁶But they shall sit ⁷each man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of JEHOVAH of hosts hath spoken ⁸it.

5 For ⁹all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and ¹⁰we will walk in the name of JEHOVAH our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith JEHOVAH, ¹¹will I ¹²gather her who ¹³was lame, and I will gather her that ¹⁴was driven out, and her whom I have afflicted; ¹⁵And I will make her who ¹⁶was lame a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation; and JEHOVAH shall reign over them on mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

7 ¶ And thou, O tower of the flock, ¹⁷mountain of the daughter of Zion, to thee shall it come, even the ¹⁸former dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

8 Now, why dost thou cry ¹⁹aloud? ²⁰Is there no king in thee? ²¹hath thy counsellor perished? for ²²pangs have taken thee ²³like a woman in travail.

9 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth ²⁴from the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go ²⁵even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there JEHOVAH shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

10 ¶ For now many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eyes ²⁶look upon Zion.

11 But they know not ²⁷the thoughts of JEHOVAH, neither understand they his ²⁸design: for he shall gather them ²⁹like the sheaves into the ³⁰threshing-floor.

12 ¶ Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thy horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt ³¹beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their ³²spoil to JEHOVAH, and their substance to ³³the ³⁴LORD of the whole earth.

CHAPTER V.

1 The birth of Christ. 4 His kingdom. 8 His conquest.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall ¹smite the Judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

2 But thou, ²Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou ³art little among the ⁴thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth to me who is to be ⁵Ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

the chariots shall be with ¹flashing irons in the day of his preparation, and the ²lances shall ³quiver.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall ¹run to and fro in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like ²lightnings.

5 He shall recount his ¹chiefs: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the ²assault-covering shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be ¹dissolved.

7 And ¹uzzab shall be ²led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of ³doves, ⁴beating upon their breasts.

8 But Nineveh is ¹lof old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall ²look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: ¹for there is no end of the store and glory ²of all the ³pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the ¹heart melteth, and ²the knees smite together, ³for great pain is in all loins, and ⁴the faces of them all gather blackness.

11 Where is the ¹habitation of ²the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and ³no one made them afraid?

12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ³that which was torn.

13 ¹Behold, I am against thee, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of ²thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER III.

The miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WO to the ¹bloody city! it is all full of ²deceit and robbery; the ³plunder departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and ²the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the ³bounding chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both ¹the bright sword, and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is no end of ²their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the ¹fornications of the ²fair harlot, ³the mistress of sorceries, who selleth nations through her ⁴fornications, and families through her ⁵sorceries.

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold wickedness? for plundering and violence are before me: for there is strife and contention.

4 Therefore, the law is slackened, and judgment is not given according to truth: for the wicked doth encompass the righteous; therefore, perverted judgment is given.

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and observe, and be astonished: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you.

6 For lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that fierce and swift nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their authority and their dignity shall proceed from themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall leap proudly, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly like the eagle that hasteth to leavour.

9 They shall come for violence: they shall gather the multitude of their faces are forward, and they shall gather the captives like the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at kings, and princes shall be a scorn to them: they shall deride every fortress; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall transgress, and become guilty, imputing this his power to his god.

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O JEHOVAH my God, my Holy One? We shall not die. O JEHOVAH, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast appointed them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou on those who deal wickedly, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man who is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men like the fishes of the sea, and the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the hook, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice to their net, and burn incense to their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their food plentiful.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and will cease continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER II.

1 To Habakkuk, waiting for an answer, is shewed that he must wait by faith. 5 The judgment upon the Chaldean for unbelief, 9 for covetousness, 12 for cruelty, 15 for drunkenness, 18 and for idolatry.

I WILL stand upon my watch, and set myself on the bulwark, and will watch to see what he will say to me, and what I shall answer concerning my complaint.

2 And JEHOVAH answered me, and said, Write the vision, and engrave it on tables, that he may run who readeth it.

time, but at the end it will hasten, and not lie: if it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up, is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither resteth, who enlargeth his desire like hell, and is like death; and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth to himself all nations, and heapeth to himself all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Wo to him who heapeth up that which is not his! how long? and to him that leadeth himself with pledged goods!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly who shall bite thee, and awake that shall harass thee, and thou shalt be for a booty to them?

8 Because thou hast plundered many nations, all the remnant of the people shall plunder thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence against the land, the city, and all that dwell therein.

9 Wo to him who getteth together unjust gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast planned shame for thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out from the wall, and the beam shall from the timber shall answer it.

12 Wo to him who buildeth a town with blood, and establisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of JEHOVAH of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for mere vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of JEHOVAH, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Wo to him who giveth his neighbour drink, that pourest out thy strong drink, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled with shame instead of glory: drink thou also, and let thy forehead be uncovered: the cup of JEHOVAH's right hand shall be turned to thee, and shame shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence done to Lebanon shall cover thee, and the destruction of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence against the land, the city, and all that dwell therein.

18 What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Wo to him who saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, but there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But JEHOVAH is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

CHAPTER III.

1 Habakkuk in his prayer trembleth at God's majesty. 17 The confidence of his faith.

16 A day of the trumpet and war-shout against the fortified cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, so that they shall walk like the blind, because they have sinned against JEHOVAH: and their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like manure.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of JEHOVAH'S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will speedily end all those who dwell in the land.

CHAPTER II.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 The judgment of the Philistines, S of Moab and Ammon, 12 of Ethiopia and Assyria.

1 TRY yourselves, yea, try yourselves, O nation without shame;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass like the chaff, before the fierce anger of JEHOVAH come upon you, before the day of JEHOVAH'S anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye JEHOVAH, all ye meek of the land, who have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be that ye shall be hidden in the day of JEHOVAH'S anger.

4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noonday, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Wo to the inhabitants of the sea coasts, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of JEHOVAH is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be pastures, and shepherds' cisterns, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: ifor JEHOVAH their God will visit them, and bring back their captives.

8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and exulted against their border.

9 Therefore, as I live, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be like Sodom, and the children of Ammon like Gomorrah, even a possession for nettles, and salt-pits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and exulted against the people of JEHOVAH of hosts.

11 JEHOVAH will be terrible against them; for he will destroy all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the distant regions of the heathen.

12 Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a desert.

CHAPTER III.

1 A sharp reproof of Jerusalem for divers sins. 3 An exhortation to wait for the restoration of Israel, 14 and to rejoice for their salvation by God.

WO to her that is rebellious and polluted, to the oppressing city!

2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not admonition; she trusted not in JEHOVAH; she drew not near to her God.

3 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they reserve nothing for the morrow.

4 Her prophets are wanton and treacherous persons; her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have violated the law.

5 The just JEHOVAH is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, so that no one passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is no inhabitant.

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive admonition; so her dwelling should not be cut off, for all for which I had visited her: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

8 Therefore, wait ye for me, saith JEHOVAH, until the day when I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured by the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the people pure lips, that they may all call on the name of JEHOVAH, and serve him with one consent.

10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

11 In that day shall thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away from the midst of thee those who rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and meek people, and they shall trust in the name of JEHOVAH.

13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: therefore they shall feed and lie down, and no one shall make them afraid.

14 Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of JEHOVAH by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts, 'Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, will it be holy? And the priest answered and said, No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It will be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith JEHOVAH; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day even forward, from the time before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of JEHOVAH:

16 Since those days were, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the wine-vat to draw out fifty vessels from the press, there were but twenty.

¶ ZECHARIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. 7 The vision of the horses. 12 At the prayer of the angel comfortable promises are made to Jerusalem. 18 The vision of the four horns, and the four carpenters.

IN the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of JEHOVAH to Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 JEHOVAH hath been greatly displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore, say thou to them, Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; Turn ye to me, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, and I will turn to you, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

4 Be ye not like your fathers, to whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings; but they did not hear, nor hearken to me, saith JEHOVAH.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But, my words, and mine ordinances, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? and they returned and said, As JEHOVAH of hosts designed to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ On the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of JEHOVAH to Zechariah, the son of Barachiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees which were in the shady place; and behind him were there red horses, bay, and white.

9 Then said I, O my Lord, what are these? And the angel who talked with me said to me, I will shew thee what these are.

10 And the man who stood among the myrtle-trees spoke and said, These are those which JEHOVAH hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they spoke to the angel of JEHOVAH who stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of JEHOVAH spoke and said, O JEHOVAH of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast been angry these threescore and ten years?

13 And JEHOVAH answered the angel who talked with me with good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel who talked with me said to me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very greatly displeased with the heathen who are careless: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith JEHOVAH; I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and JEHOVAH

And also finish it; and thou shalt know that JEHOVAH of hosts hath sent me to you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? For they shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb-line in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of JEHOVAH, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 Then answered I, and said to him, What are these two olive-trees on the right side of the candlestick and on the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said to him, What are these two olive-branches which by means of the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two fainting ones, that stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAPTER V.

1 By the flying roll is showed the curse of thieves and swearers. 5 By a woman pressed in an ephah, the final condemnation of Babylon.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

2 And he said to me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he to me, This is the curse which goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one who stealeth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one who sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who sweareth falsely by my name; and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 Then the angel who talked with me went forth, and said to me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what this is which goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah which goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead on the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel who talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said to me, To build for it a house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon its own foundation.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

3 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot spotted and bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said to the angel who talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said to me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before JEHOVAH of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth to the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the spotted go forth to the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get ye hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he to me, and spoke to me, saying, Behold, these that go to the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 And the word of JEHOVAH came to me, saying,

10 Take of those of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, who have come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;

12 And speak to him, saying, Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of JEHOVAH:

13 Even he shall build the temple of JEHOVAH; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne: and he shall be a priest on his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be for Helem, and for Tobijah, and for Jedaiah, and for Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of JEHOVAH.

15 And those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of JEHOVAH; and ye shall know that JEHOVAH of hosts hath sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of JEHOVAH your God.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The captives inquire of fasting. 4 Zechariah reproveh their fasting. 8 Sin the cause of their captivity.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of JEHOVAH came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Kislev;

2 When they had sent to the house of God, Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before JEHOVAH,

3 And to speak to the priests who were in the house of JEHOVAH of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the thirtieth, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of JEHOVAH of hosts to me, saying,

5 Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast to me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 Should ye not hear the words which JEHOVAH hath proclaimed by the former prophets when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof around her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of JEHOVAH came to Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh JEHOVAH of hosts, saying, Execute true justice, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and turned away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts like a diamond, lest they should hear the law, and the words which JEHOVAH of hosts hath sent by his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from JEHOVAH of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith JEHOVAH of hosts:

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they had not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 The restoration of Jerusalem. 9 They are encouraged to the building by God's favour to them.

16 Good works are required of them. 18 Joy and enlargement are promised.

A GAIN the word of JEHOVAH of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith JEHOVAH; I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called, A city of truth; and the mountain of JEHOVAH of hosts, The holy mountain.

4 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand through mercage.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; If it be difficult in the sight of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be difficult in my sight? saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

7 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; Behold,

I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye who hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, who were in the day when the foundation of the house of JEHOVAH of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before those days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in because of the affliction: for I sent all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be to the residue of this people as in the former days, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall yield its fruit, and the ground shall yield its increase, and the heavens shall yield their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; I determined to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I determined in these days to do well to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things which ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; practise true justice and goodness in your gates:

17 And let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things which I hate, saith JEHOVAH.

18 ¶ And the word of JEHOVAH of hosts came to me, saying,

19 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and goodness.

20 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before JEHOVAH, and to seek JEHOVAH of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek JEHOVAH of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before JEHOVAH.

23 Thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all languages of the nations, shall even take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER IX.

1 God defendeth his church. 9 Zion is exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ, and his peaceable kingdom. 12 God's promiser of victory and defence.

THE burden of the word of JEHOVAH concerning the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be towards JEHOVAH.

2 And Hamath also shall border on it; Tyre and Sidon, though it be very wise.

3 And Tyre did build herself a fortress, and heaped up silver like the dust, and fine gold like the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power on the sea; and she shall be devoured by fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be in great anguish, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be disappointed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a foreigner shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he who remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be like a chief in Judah, and Ekron like a Jebusite.

8 And I will encamp around my house because of the army, because of him who passeth by, and because of him who returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh to thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding on an ass and on a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle-bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace to the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turn ye to the fortress, ye prisoners, cherishing hope: even to-day do I declare that I will render double to thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, armed Ephraim with the bow, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee like the sword of a mighty man.

14 For JEHOVAH shall be seen above them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord JEHOVAH will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 JEHOVAH of hosts will defend them; and they shall devour and subdue with sining-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as if through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and like the corners of the altar.

16 And JEHOVAH their God will save them in that day like the flock of his people: for they shall be like the stones of a crown, lifting themselves up over his land.

17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! scorn shall make the young men grow, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER X.

1 God is to be sought to, and not idols. As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

ASK ye of JEHOVAH rain in the time of the latter rain; so JEHOVAH will make lightnings, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way like a flock, they were troubled because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for JEHOVAH of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is destroyed.

4 Thus saith JEHOVAH my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and those who sell them say, Blessed be JEHOVAH; for I am rich; and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith JEHOVAH; but lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and from their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took to myself two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that which dieth, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat, every one the flesh of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and I know that it was the word of JEHOVAH.

12 And I said to them, If ye think good, give me my hire; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my hire thirty shekels of silver.

13 And JEHOVAH said to me, Cast it to the potter: a splendid price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty shekels of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of JEHOVAH.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 ¶ And JEHOVAH said to me, Take to thyself yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who shall not visit those that are cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which standeth firmly: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their hoofs in pieces.

17 ¶ Who to the worthless shepherd who leaveth the flock! the sword shall be on his arm, and on his right eye; his arm shall be quite dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly bedimmed.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself, 3 and a burdensome stone to her adversaries. 6 The victorious restoring of Judah. 9 The repentance of Jerusalem.

THE burden of the word of JEHOVAH concerning Israel, saith JEHOVAH, who stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling to all the people around, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

lem a burdensome stone for all people. all that burden themselves with it shall be crushed in pieces, though all the nations of the earth be gathered against it.

4 In that day, saith JEHOVAH, I will smite every horse with consternation, and his rider with madness; and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the chiefs of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in JEHOVAH of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the chiefs of Judah like a fire-pan among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people around, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 JEHOVAH also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall JEHOVAH defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he who is feeble among them at that day shall be like David; and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of JEHOVAH before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations who come against Jerusalem.

10 ¶ And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of prayer and of supplications; and they shall look to me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one who is in bitterness for his first-born.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 ¶ And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 The fountain of purgation for Jerusalem, 2 from idolatry, and false prophecy. 7 The death of Christ, and the trial of a third part.

IN that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother who begot him shall say to him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of JEHOVAH; and his father and his mother that begot him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a hairy garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say to him, What are these wounds in thy hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 Awake, O sword, against my Shepherd, and against the man who is my companion, saith JEHOVAH of hosts: smite the Shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith JEHOVAH, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will answer them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, JEHOVAH is my God.

CHAPTER XIV.

The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. 4 The coming of Christ, and the grace of his kingdom. 12 The plague of Jerusalem's enemies. 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord, 20 and their spoils shall be holy.

BEHOLD, the day of JEHOVAH cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women violated; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall JEHOVAH go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet shall stand in that day on the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall be divided in the midst thereof towards the east and towards the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove towards the north, and half of it towards the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal: yea, ye shall flee as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and JEHOVAH my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be bright and dusky:

7 But, it shall be one day which shall be known to JEHOVAH, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.

¶ MALACHI.

CHAPTER I.

1 Malachi complaineth of Israel's unkindness. 6 Of their irreligiosity, 12 and profaneness.

THE burden of the word of JEHOVAH to Israel thy Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith JEHOVAH. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith JEHOVAH: yet I loved Jacob,

3 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the jackals of the desert.

4 Whereas Edom saith, We are broken in pieces, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith JEHOVAH of hosts, They may build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The region of wickedness, and, The people against whom JEHOVAH is angry for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, JEHOVAH will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is my honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith JEHOVAH of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 [Ye offer polluted bread on mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? By your saying, The table of JEHOVAH is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now to thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be kind to us: this hath been thy your means: will he regard your persons? saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nothing? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nothing. I have no pleasure in you, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, neither will I accept an offering from your hand.

11 For, from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the Gentiles, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, by your saying, The table of JEHOVAH is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his food, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith JEHOVAH of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this from your hand? saith JEHOVAH.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, who hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth to the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the nations.

CHAPTER II.

1 He sharply reproveth the priests for neglecting their covenant, 11 and the people for idolatry, 14 for adultery, 17 and for infidelity.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and scatter ordure on your faces, even the ordure of your solemn feasts; and none shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was humbled before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of JEHOVAH of hosts.

8 But ye have departed from the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but I have been partial in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously each man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of JEHOVAH which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 JEHOVAH will cut off the man who doeth this, [the master and the scholar, from the tents of Jacob, and him who offereth an offering to JEHOVAH of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of JEHOVAH with tears, with weeping, and with shrieking, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will from your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because JEHOVAH hath testified between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek for a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For JEHOVAH, the God of Israel, saith, that he hateth putting away: for one covereth wrong with his garment, saith JEHOVAH of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously. 17 ¶ Ye have wearied JEHOVAH with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one who doeth evil is good in the sight of JEHOVAH, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER III.

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Of the rebellion, 8 sacrifice, 13 and infidelity of the people. 16 The promise of blessing to them that fear God.

BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

2 But who can endure the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap.

3 And he shall sit like a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and cleanse them like gold and silver, that they may offer to JEHOVAH an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant to JEHOVAH, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years.

5 And I will come near to you for judgment: and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those who defraud the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

7 ¶ Even from the days of your fathers ye have gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, saith JEHOVAH of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 ¶ Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and try me now with this, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, whether I will not open for you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, so that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before the time in the field, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words have been bold against me, saith JEHOVAH. Yet ye say, What have we spoken against thee?

14 ¶ Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before JEHOVAH of hosts?

15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, those who work wickedness are built up; yea, those who tempt God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then those who feared JEHOVAH spoke often one to another: and JEHOVAH hearkened, and heard it: and a book of remembrance was written before him for those who feared JEHOVAH, and that thought on his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his son who serveth him.

18 ¶ Then shall ye turn and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serveth God and him who serveth him not.

CHAPTER IV.

1 God's judgment on the wicked, 2 and his blessing on the good. 4 He exhorteth to the study of the law, 5 and telleth of Elijah's coming and office.

FOR behold, the day cometh, which shall burn like an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day which cometh shall burn them up, saith JEHOVAH of hosts, so that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But to you who fear my name, shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go out, and grow up like calves of the stall.

3 ¶ And ye shall tread down the wicked: for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day when I shall do this, saith JEHOVAH of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, with the ordinances and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of JEHOVAH:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

PREFACE TO THE NEW TESTAMENT.

In submitting to the public the present revised version of the New Testament, the editor would briefly state the plan on which he has proceeded. It has by no means been his aim to produce a work which should meet all the expectations of the biblical scholar. He has rather aimed only to make such changes as seemed most obviously necessary. By a close and careful comparison of the common version with the original, as well as by consulting some of the best translations and commentators, he has endeavoured to detect and rectify the most important errors, as well as to clear up what was obscure. He has removed words either obsolete or employed in obsolete significations, has lopped off redundancies, and endeavoured to render the style more neat, compact, perspicuous, and forcible. How far he has succeeded in this, must be left to the judgment of others.

But, while doing this, he has endeavoured to make no change in the essential structure of the English version. A simple, unadorned style he believes to be the only garb in which a correct taste will ever allow the sacred writers to appear. The writer has been accustomed to regard the common version with respect approaching to reverence, and he can truly say that the close scrutiny which the present work has compelled him to make, while it has disclosed more numerous and more glaring defects than he had before perceived or suspected, has also increased his sense and admiration of its numerous and extraordinary excellences. Not unfrequently, indeed, the language seems to him to possess a richness, depth, simplicity, and majesty, which place it beyond the reach of improvement. Still, in other instances, this is far from being the case. While some portions are perspicuously and elegantly translated, others betray a far inferior and clumsy hand. Indeed, nothing can more forcibly strike the attentive reader of the common version of the New Testament, than the great inequality in the style and merit of its execution. That this inequality should be in a measure removed, and a degree of uniformity introduced into the work; that it should bear in general the impress of a single mind, or at least indicate the uniform application of the same principles of translation, is obviously desirable. This has been to a considerable extent attempted in the present work. Yet to what extent uniformity should be carried, how far the same words and phrases when recurring should be rendered in the same manner, is a question whose right decision requires much judgment and taste on the part of the translator. In a series of productions like the various narratives and epistles of the New Testament, written by different persons, in widely different circumstances, in different countries, and at intervals of many years, the same words and phrases cannot be supposed to have retained uniformly the same signification. That the words rendered church, gospel, preach, and many others, would assume gradually new shades of meaning, will readily be believed by him who observes the striking and extensive outward changes brought about by Christianity, and who remembers with what quickness and pliancy language adapts itself to all the circumstances and wants of man. A translator, then, must be permitted to exercise in such matters a large discretion, controlled, indeed, by knowledge, judgment, and taste. On this point the author of the present revision will only say that he has endeavoured to preserve a due medium between the too little and the too much; not shrinking from any alterations which seemed in any respect substantial improvements, nor making any from the mere spirit of innovation. A few alterations which he would have made he has forborne from deference to the judgment of others, especially to the wishes of the proprietor of the work, while others, to which the author felt inclined, have been admitted for the same reason.

The author is not aware that the charge of sectarianism can justly be urged against the present revised version. If he knows his own heart, he has not the least disposition to tamper with the word of God for such unworthy purposes. The plan projected by the proprietor of the work, and the only one which the editor would have been willing to adopt, was to translate, as far as practicable, in a faithful manner, all the words of the original. Acting in conformity with this principle, he may not have succeeded in securing the entire approval of any single religious sect. Some may censure him for rendering ἐν τῷ ὕδατι; "from the water," instead of "out of the water." He can only reply that he gave to the preposition its natural meaning. Others again may regard the rendering of βαπτίζω by immerse as unwarrantable. To this he would say, that with the testimony of nearly all the best lexicographers and Pædobaptist commentators on his side, with the uniform usage of classic Greek in his favour, and having never seen an instance in which βαπτίζω could not be most naturally understood, either as having the meaning of immerse, or a meaning legitimately derived from this and based upon it, he had no other course than to follow his deliberate judgment, coinciding as it did with that of nearly the whole learned world. He would only add, that he has given to βαπτίζω the best rendering which, in his judgment, the word admits. He will feel greatly obliged to any one who shall suggest a better.

In conclusion, the editor would, with unsigned diffidence, submit his work to an intelligent and candid public, earnestly hoping and praying that it may promote the knowledge of biblical truth, and thus prove subservient to the great interests of piety.

¶ THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW.

CHAPTER I.

1 The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Spirit, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begot Isaac; and Isaac begot Jacob; and Jacob begot Judah and his brethren;

3 And Judah begot Pharez and Zarah by Tamar; and Pharez begot Hezron; and Hezron begot Ram;

4 And Ram begot Aminadab; and Aminadab begot Nahshon; and Nahshon begot Salmon;

5 And Salmon begot Boaz by Rahab; and Boaz begot Obed by Ruth; and Obed begot Jesse;

6 And Jesse begot David the king; and David the king begot Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah;

7 And Solomon begot Rehoboam; and Rehoboam begot Abia; and Abia begot Asa;

8 And Asa begot Jehoshaphat; and Jehoshaphat begot Joram; and Joram begot Uzziah;

9 And Uzziah begot Jotham; and Jotham begot Ahaz; and Ahaz begot Hezekiah;

10 And Hezekiah begot Manasseh; and Manasseh begot Amon; and Amon begot Josiah;

11 And Josiah begot Jechoniah and his brethren, at the time of the removal to Babylon;

12 And after the removal to Babylon, Jechoniah begot Salathiel; and Salathiel begot Zerubbabel;

13 And Zerubbabel begot Abiud; and Abiud begot Eliakim; and Eliakim begot Hazzor;

14 And Hazzor begot Zadok; and Zadok begot Achim; and Achim begot Eliud;

15 And Eliud begot Eleazar; and Eleazar begot Matthan; and Matthan begot Jacob;

16 And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the removal to Babylon, fourteen generations; and from the removal to Babylon until Christ, fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was thus. His mother Mary being espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child by the Holy Spirit.

19 And Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not wishing to expose her, was inclined to put her away secretly.

20 But while he thought upon this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, Joseph, son of David, fear not to take to thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

21 And she shall bear a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he will save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this took place, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel, which, interpreted, is, God with us.)

24 And Joseph, having risen from sleep, did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took to him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first-born son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER II.

1 The Magians from the east are directed to Christ by a star. 11 They do him homage and offer their presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. 16 Herod slayeth the children: 20 himself dieth. 23 Christ is brought back into Galilee to Nazareth.

NOW Jesus being born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, Magians from the east came to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is the new-born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to do him homage.

3 And Herod the king hearing it, was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ should be born.

5 And they said to him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art by no means the least among the leaders of Judah: for from thee shall come a Ruler, who will be a shepherd to my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, secretly calling the Magians, inquired of them exactly the time when the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and make strict inquiry concerning the child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I also may come and do him homage.

9 And having heard the king, they departed; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the child was.

10 And on seeing the star, they rejoiced with very great joy.

11 ¶ And going into the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and did him homage: and opening their treasures, they presented to him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed by another way into their own country.

13 And when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, take the child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and remain there until I bring thee word: for Herod is about to seek the child to destroy him.

14 And he arose, and took the child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called my Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, seeing that he was deceived by the Magians, was exceedingly angry, and sent forth, and slew all the male children in Bethlehem, and in all its borders, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had learned exactly from the Magians.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

18 A voice was heard in Ramah, mourning, and weeping, and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be consoled, because they are not.

19 ¶ But, when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead who sought the child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But hearing that Archelaus was reigning in Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: and being warned in a dream, he retired into the region of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAPTER III.

1 John preacheth: his office: life, and immersion. 7 He reprehendeth the Pharisees, 13 and immerseth Christ in Jordan.

IN those days came John the Baptist, proclaiming in the desert of Judea, 2 And saying, Repent; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying, "The voice of one crying in the desert, Prepare the way of the Lord! make straight his paths!

4 And this John had his clothing of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan,

6 And were immersed by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to be immersed by him, he said to them, "Generation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

8 Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of repentance:

10 And even now the axe lieth at the root of the trees: therefore every tree which beareth not good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

11 ¶ I indeed immerse you in water to repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he will immerse you in the Holy Spirit, and fire.

12 His fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor, and will gather his wheat into the garner, but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be immersed by him.

14 But John forbade him, saying, I have need to be immersed by thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said to him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, being immersed, went up immediately from the water: and lo, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and coming upon him:

17 And lo, a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ fasteth, and is tempted. 11 The angels minister to him. 13 He teacheth in Capernaum, 17 beginneth to preach, 18 calleth Peter, and Andrew, 21 James, and John, 23 and healeth all the diseased.

THEN Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil.

2 And having fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterwards hungry.

3 And the tempter came to him, and said, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth from the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him into the holy city, and placeth him on the pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith to him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down, for it is written, He will give his angels charge concerning thee: and they will bear thee on their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said to him, It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him into a very high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith to him, All this I will give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus to him, Get thee hence, Satan! for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and shalt serve him alone.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and be- hold, angels came and ministered to him.

12 ¶ Now, Jesus hearing that John was cast into prison, departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is on the sea-coast, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali;

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15 The land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, along the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, 16 The people that sat in darkness have seen a great light; and on those who sat in the region and shades of death, light hath arisen.

17 ¶ From that time Jesus began to proclaim, and to say, Repent; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

19 And he saith to them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they immediately left their nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw two other brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship, and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the glad tidings of his kingdom, and healing every disease and every infirmity among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Syria: and they brought to him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and torments, and demoniacs, and lunatics, and paralytics; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on a hill, 15 the candle: 17 that he came to fulfil the law. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into the mountain: and when he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Happy are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Happy they that mourn: for they shall be consoled.

5 Happy the meek: for they shall inherit the land.

6 Happy they that hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they shall be satisfied.

7 Happy the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Happy the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Happy the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Happy they who are persecuted on account of righteousness: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Happy are ye when men revile and persecute you, and say every evil thing against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and exult! for great is your reward in heaven: for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt lose its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and trampled on by men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city placed on a mountain cannot be hidden.

15 Nor do they light a lamp, and put it under the measure, but on the stand: and it giveth light to all who are in the house.

16 Thus let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily, I say to you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall by no means pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whoever therefore shall break one of the least of these commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven: but whoever shall do, and teach them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say to you, That unless your righteousness exceed that of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall by no means enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by those of old, Thou shalt not murder; and whoever shall murder, shall be exposed to the judgment:

22 But I say to you, That whoever is angry with his brother without a cause, shall be exposed to the judgment: and whoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be exposed to the council: and whoever shall say, Fool, shall be exposed to hell fire.

23 If then thou bringest thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee,

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go, first be reconciled with thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, while thou art in the way with him; lest the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily, I say to thee, Thou wilt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by those of old, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say to you, That whoever looketh on a woman with impure desire, hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye cause thee to sin, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is better for thee that one of thy members

30 And if thy right hand cause thee to sin, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is better for thee that one of thy members perish, than that thy whole body be cast into hell.

31 If hath been said, 'whoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a bill of divorcement:

32 But I say to you, That 'whoever shall put away his wife, except for fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whoever marrieth her that is divorced, committeth adultery.

33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that 'it hath been said by those of old, 'Thou shalt not swear falsely, but 'shalt perform to the Lord thine oaths:

34 But I say to you, 'Swear not at all: neither by heaven; for it is 'the throne of God:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: nor by Jerusalem; for it is 'the city of the great King:

36 Nor swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 'But let your language be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for what is more than these cometh of evil.

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, 'Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth.

39 But I say to you, 'Resist not the injurious: 'but whoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him also the other.

40 And if any one will sue thee, and take thy coat, let him also have thy cloak.

45 That ye may become sons of your Father who is in heaven: for 'he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust.

46 'For if ye love those who love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 'Be ye therefore perfect, even 'as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up, 21 of serving God and man: 25 exhorteth not to be careful for worldly things: 33 but to seek God's kingdom.

TAKE heed that ye do not your blms before men, to be seen by them: otherwise ye have no reward for your Father who is in heaven.

2 Therefore, 'when thou doest alms, 'do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the ypocrites do, in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be honoured by men. Verily, I say to you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth;

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father who seeth in secret, 'will himself reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be like the hypocrites: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Verily, I say to you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, 'enter thy closet, shut thy door, and pray to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father, who seeth in secret, will reward thee openly.

7 But in praying, 'use not idle repetitions, as the heathen do: 'for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not therefore like them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him.

9 Thus therefore pray ye: 'Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. 'Thy will be done in earth 'as it is in heaven.

11 Give us to-day our 'daily bread.

12 And 'forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 'And lead us not into trial, but 'deliver us from evil. 'For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 'For, if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But, 'if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ And 'when ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men to fast. Verily, I say to you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, 'anoint thy head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not to men to fast, but to thy Father, who is in secret: and thy Father, who seeth in secret, will reward thee openly.

19 ¶ 'Lay not up your treasures upon earth, where moth and rust consume, and where thieves break through and steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

shall be clothed. Is not the life more than food, and the body than clothing?

26 Look at the birds of heaven. They sow not, nor reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not ye much better than they?

27 Who of you by being anxious can add a span to his life?

28 And why are ye anxious about clothing? Observe the lilies of the field how they grow. They toil not, nor spin;

29 Yet I say to you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 And if God so clothes the grass of the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, Ye of little faith?

31 Be not then anxious, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, wherewith shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

34 Be not then anxious for the morrow: for the morrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own evil.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ ending his sermon in the mount, reproveheth rash judgment, 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to dogs, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate, 16 to beware of false prophets, 21 not to be hearers, but doers of the word: 24 like houses builded on a rock, 26 and not on the sand.

JUDGE not, that ye be not judged.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye will be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it will be measured to you.

3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but observest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me take out the mote from thine eye; and behold, the beam is in thine own eye?

5 Hypocrite, first remove the beam from thine own eye; and then thou wilt see clearly to remove the mote from the eye of thy brother.

6 Give not that which is sacred to the dogs, nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you:

8 For every one that asketh, receiveth; and that seeketh, findeth; and that knocketh, to him it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, of whom if his son ask bread, he will give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will give him a serpent?

11 If ye then being evil know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatever ye would that men do to you, so do ye also to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 Enter in by the strait gate; for wide is the gate, and broad the way, that leadeth to destruction, and there are many that enter by it.

14 How strait is the gate, and narrow the way, which leadeth to life, and there are few that find it!

15 Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but are inwardly ravenous wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

17 Thus every good tree beareth good fruit; but the bad tree beareth bad fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor a bad tree bear good fruit.

19 Every tree that beareth not good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire.

20 So then, by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 Not every one who saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in thy name? and in thy name cast out demons? and in thy name do many mighty works?

23 And then I will declare to them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye who work iniquity.

24 Therefore, whoever heareth these my words, and doeth them, I will liken him to a prudent man, who built his house upon the rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded on the rock.

26 And every one who heareth these my words, and doeth them not, shall be likened to a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and the fall of it was great.

28 And it came to pass when Jesus had ended these words, the people were astonished at his teaching.

29 For he taught them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER VIII.

2 Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother-in-law, 16 and many other diseases: 18 sheweth how he is to be followed: 23 driveth the demons out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

AS he came down from the mountain, a great multitudes followed him.

2 And behold, a leper came and fell down before him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst cleanse me.

3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be cleansed. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith to him, See thou tell no one; but go, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

5 And Jesus having entered Capernaum, there came to him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith to him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answering, said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but only speak the word, and my servant will be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 And Jesus hearing it, wondered, and said to those who followed, Verily I say to you, Not even in Israel have I found so great faith!

11 And I say to you, That many will come from the east and west, and will recline at table with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven:

12 But the sons of the kingdom will be cast forth into the outer darkness: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said to the centurion, Go, and as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee. And his servant was healed in that hour.

14 ¶ And Jesus coming into the house of Peter, saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered to them.

16 ¶ And evening coming, they brought to him many having demons: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick;

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, He himself took our infirmities, and bore our sicknesses.

18 ¶ And Jesus seeing great multitudes about him, directed to depart to the other side.

19 ¶ And a certain scribe came, and said to him, Teacher, I will follow thee wherever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of heaven dwelling-places; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 ¶ And another of his disciples said to him, Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said to him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their own dead.

23 ¶ And he entered the ship, and his disciples followed him.

24 ¶ And behold, a great tempest arose in the sea, so that the ship was covered by the waves; but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came up, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us! we perish!

26 And he saith to them, Why are ye fearful, Ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 And the men wondered, saying, What sort of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And as he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two demoniacs, coming from the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that none could pass by that way.

29 And behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus,

Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was at a distance from them an herd of many swine, feeding.

31 And the demons entreated him, saying, If thou cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said to them, Go. And they came out, and went into the swine: and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And those who fed them, fled, and going into the city, reported every thing, and what had befallen the demoniacs.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and on seeing him, they entreated him to depart from their borders.

CHAPTER IX.

2 Christ curing a paralytic, 9 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 10 calleth with publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 curath the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus' daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men, 32 healeth a dumb man having a demon, 36 and hath compassion on the multitude.

AND going into the ship, he passed over, and came into his own city.

2 ¶ And behold, they brought to him a paralytic, lying on a bed: and Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, Son, take courage; thy sins are forgiven thee.

3 And behold, some of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the paralytic,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go to thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 And the multitude seeing it, wondered, and glorified God, who had given such power to men.

9 ¶ And Jesus passing thence, saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the custom-house, and saith to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as he reclined at table in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and reclined with him and his disciples.

11 And the Pharisees seeing it, said to his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 And Jesus hearing it, said to them, Those who are well need not a physician, but those who are sick.

13 But go and learn what that meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice: for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast.

16 And no one putteth a piece of un-dressed cloth on an old garment: for the new will rend the old, and the water will be poured out, and the wine will be mingled with the water: and no man can give that which is not in him.

that which is added taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Nor do they put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles burst, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish; but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ As he was speaking thus to them, behold, a ruler came, and fell down before him, saying, My daughter is by this time dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she will live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, with his disciples.

20 ¶ And behold, a woman, having an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the fringe of his garment.

21 For she said within herself, If I only touch his garment, I shall be healed.

22 But Jesus turning and seeing her, said, Take courage, daughter: thy faith hath healed thee. And the woman was healed from that hour.)

23 And Jesus coming into the ruler's house, and seeing the pipers and the crowd making a noise,

24 Said to them, Retire: for the maiden is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed at him.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maiden arose.

26 And the report of it went forth into all that land.

27 ¶ And as Jesus was passing thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Son of David, have pity upon us!

28 And he having entered the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith to them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said to him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then he touched their eyes, saying, According to your faith, be it to you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus strictly charged them, saying, See that no one know it.

31 But they, going out, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As they went out, behold, there was brought to him a dumb man having a demon.

33 And the demon being cast out, the dumb man spoke: and the multitude wondered, saying, The like was never seen in Israel!

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out demons, by the prince of the demons.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the glad tidings of his kingdom, and healing every sickness, and every infirmity among the people.

36 ¶ And seeing the multitudes, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and abandoned, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he to his disciples, The harvest indeed is great, but the labourers are few.

38 Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest, to send forth labourers into his harvest!

CHAPTER X.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, giving them power to do miracles, 5 giveth them their charge, toucheth them, 16 comforteth them against persecutions: 40 and promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

AND calling to him his twelve disciples, he gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every sickness, and every infirmity.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; First, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus, surnamed Thaddeus;

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not among the Gentiles, and enter not a city of the Samaritans.

6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, proclaim, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons: freely ye receive, freely give.

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass for your purses;

10 Nor sack for your journey, nor two coats, nor shoes, nor staff. For the labourer is worthy of his support.

11 And whatever city or village ye enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there remain till ye go thence.

12 And as ye enter the house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, in departing from that house, or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily, I say to you, It will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah, in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be therefore prudent as the serpents, and guileless as the doves.

17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and will scourge you in their synagogues.

18 And ye will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations.

19 But when they deliver you up, be not anxious how or what ye shall speak, for it will be given you in that hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father that speaketh in you.

21 And the brother will deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and children will arise against parents, and bring them to death.

22 And ye will be hated by all on account of my name: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee into another: for verily I say to you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above the teacher, nor the servant above his lord.

25 For the disciple to be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord: if they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more will they call his household!

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hidden, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, speak in the light; and what ye hear in the ear, proclaim on the house-tops.

28 And fear not those who will kill the body, but cannot kill the soul: but rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of these will not fall to the ground without your Father.

30 (But, even the hairs of your head are all numbered.)

31 Fear not therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whoever therefore shall acknowledge me before men, him will I also acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven.

33 But whoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth; I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I came to set a man at variance with his father, and the daughter with her mother, and the daughter-in-law with her mother-in-law.

36 And a man's foes will be those of his own household.

37 He who loveth father or mother more than me, is not worthy of me: and he who loveth son or daughter more than me, is not worthy of me.

38 And he who taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that gaineth his life will lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake, will gain it.

40 ¶ He that receiveth you, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him who sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet, will receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man, will receive a righteous man's reward.

42 And whoever shall give to drink to one of these little ones, a cup of cold water only, in the name of a disciple, verily, I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.

CHAPTER XI.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 13 The opinion of the people, both concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and unrepentance of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Father's wisdom in revealing the gospel to the simple, 28 he calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sins.

AND it came to pass when Jesus finished commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 But John hearing in the prison of the works of Christ, sent two of his disciples,

3 And said to him, Art thou he that cometh, or do we look for another?

Father; and no one knoweth the Son, but the Father; nor doth any one know the Father, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ Come to me, all ye who labour, and are burdened, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me: for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye will find rest to your souls.

30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the breach of the sabbath, 3 by scriptures, 9 by reason, 13 and by a miracle. 22 He healeth the man possessed that was blind and dumb. 31 Blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall never be forgiven. 36 Account shall be made of idle words. 38 He rebuketh the unfaithful, who seek after a sign: 49 and sheweth who is his brother, sister, and mother.

AT that time Jesus went on the Sabbath through the fields of grain, and his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck the ears of grain, and eat.

2 And the Pharisees seeing it, said to him, Behold, thy disciples do what it is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.

3 But he said to them, Have ye not read what David did when he was hungry, and those with him;

4 How he entered the house of God, and ate (the shew-bread, which it was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple violate the Sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say to you, that here is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I desire mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord of the Sabbath.

9 And departing thence, he went into their synagogue.

10 ¶ And behold, there was a man who had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said to them, What man will there be among you, who shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath, will not lay hold of it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep! So that it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.

13 Then he saith to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored sound, like the other.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out, and took counsel against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But Jesus knowing it, retired thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all,

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will declare judgment to the nations.

19 He will not strive, nor cry; nor will any one hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed he will not break, and smoking flax he will not quench, till he send forth his law to victory.

21 And in his name will nations trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought to him a demoniac, blind and dumb; and he healed him, so that the blind and dumb both spoke and saw.

23 And all the multitude were amazed, and said, Is this the son of David?

24 ¶ But the Pharisees hearing it, said, This man doth not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub prince of the demons.

25 And Jesus knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself, will not stand.

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how then will his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come to you.

29 ¶ Or, how can one enter the strong man's house, and spoil his goods, unless he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me, is against me; and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

31 ¶ Therefore I say to you, All sin and reviling will be forgiven to men: but the reviling against the Spirit will not be forgiven to men.

32 And whoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him: but whoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, either in this world, or in that to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad: for the tree is known by its fruit.

34 ¶ Generation of vipers! how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for from the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh.

35 The good man, from the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth good things: and the evil man, from its evil treasure, bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say to you, that for every idle word that men shall speak, they must give account in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou wilt be justified, and by thy words thou wilt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, Teacher, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh for a sign, and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah.

40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 ¶ The men of Nineveh will arise in the judgment with this generation, and condemn it: because they repented at the warning of Jonah; and lo, here is a greater than Jonah.

42 "The queen of the south will arise in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for she came from the extremities of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and lo, here is a greater than Solomon.

43 "When the unclean spirit is gone out of the man, it goeth through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then it saith, I will return to my house whence I came out; and coming, findeth it empty, swept, and furnished.

45 Then it goeth, and taketh with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they come in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Thus will it be also to this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he was yet speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 And one said to him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said to him who told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And stretching forth his hand towards his disciples, he said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50 For whoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAPTER XIII.

3 The parable of the sower and the seed: 18 the exposition of it. 24 The parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard-seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl; 47 of the dragnet cast into the sea: 53 and how Christ is contained by his own countrymen.

ON that day Jesus went forth from the house, and sat by the sea-side.

2 And great multitudes assembled to him, so that he went into the ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spoke much to them in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow;

4 And as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way-side, and the birds came and devoured them:

5 Some fell on the rocky ground, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no depth of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among the thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But others fell on the good ground, and yielded fruit, some an hundred-fold, some sixty-fold, some thirty-fold.

9 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said to him, Why speakest thou to them in parables?

11 He answered and said to them, Because it is given to you to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For whoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall abound: but whoever hath not, from him shall be taken even what he hath.

13 Therefore I speak to them in parables; because seeing, they see not; and hearing, they hear not, nor understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, 'Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should turn, and I should heal them.

16 But happy your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear!

17 For, verily, I say to you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see what ye see, and have not seen it; and to hear what ye hear, and have not heard it.

18 ¶ Hear ye then the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, the wicked one cometh, and snatcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is that which was sown by the way-side.

20 And that sown on the rocky ground, is he who heareth the word, and immediately receiveth it with joy;

21 Yet hath no root in himself, but endureth for a while: and when affliction or persecution ariseth on account of the word, he immediately falleth away.

22 And that sown among the thorns is he who heareth the word; and the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

23 But that sown on the good ground is he who heareth the word, and understandeth it; who also beareth fruit, and yieldeth, one an hundred-fold, another sixty, another thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went away.

26 But when the blade sprung up, and bore fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said to him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares?

28 He said to them, An enemy did this. The servants said to him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest in gathering the tares, ye root up the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and at the season of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable he put forth to them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, is the largest of herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of heaven come and lodge in its branches.

33 ¶ Another parable he spoke to them; The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 ¶ All this Jesus spoke to the multitude in parables; and without a parable he did not speak to them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, "I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."

36 Then Jesus left the multitude, and went into the house: and his disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the tares of the field."

37 He answered and said to them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The field is the world; the good seed are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so will it be at the end of this world.

41 The Son of man will send forth his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all that occasion sin, and those who do iniquity;

42 And will cast them into the furnace of fire: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 ¶ Then the righteous will shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field; which a man on finding, hideth, and from his joy goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking beautiful pearls:

46 Who, finding one very costly pearl, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, and threw the bad away.

49 Thus will it be at the end of the world: the angels will come forth, and separate the wicked from among the just,

50 And will cast them into the furnace of fire: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith to them, Do ye understand all these things? They say to him, Yea, Lord.

52 And he said to them, Therefore every scribe who is instructed for the kingdom of heaven, is like an householder, who bringeth forth from his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 ¶ And coming into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 'Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath he all this?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honour, except in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there, on account of their unbelief.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 3 Wherefore John the Baptist was beheaded. 13 Jesus departeth into a desert place: 15 where he feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 22 He walketh on the sea to his disciples: 34 and landing at Genesareth, healeth the sick by the touch of the fringe of his garment.

A T that time Herod the Tetrarch heard the report of Jesus,

2 And said to his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works are wrought by him.

3 ¶ For Herod had laid hold of John, bound him, and put him in prison, on account of Herodias, wife of his brother Philip.

4 For John said to him, 'It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And he wished to slay him, but feared the multitude, because they held him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Upon which he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask.

8 And she, being instigated by her mother, said, Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.

9 And the king was sorry: but for regard to his oath and his guests, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought on a platter, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it; and went and reported it to Jesus.

13 ¶ And Jesus hearing it, departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and the multitudes having heard of it, followed him by land from the cities.

14 And Jesus coming forth, saw a great multitude; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; dismiss the multitude, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said to them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say to him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 And he said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And directing the multitude to recline upon the grass, he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, 'be blessed them; and breaking, he gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they all ate, and were satisfied: and they took up what remained of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full.

21 And those who ate were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And immediately Jesus constrained his disciples to enter the ship, and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the multitudes.

23 'And having dismissed the multitudes, he went up into the mountain apart to pray: and evening coming, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed by the waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And at the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him 'walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit! and they cried out from fear.

27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, Take courage; it is I; fear not.

28 And Peter answering him, said, Lord, if it is thou, bid me come to thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And Peter descending from the ship, walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But seeing the wind violent, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me!

31 And immediately Jesus stretching forth his hand, caught him, and said to him, O thou of little faith, why didst thou doubt?

32 And as they entered the ship, the wind ceased.

33 And those in the ship came and fell down before him, saying, Truly, 'thou art the Son of God!

34 ¶ And passing over, they came into the land of Gennesaret.

35 And the men of that place getting knowledge of him, sent out into all the surrounding country, and brought to him all that were diseased;

36 And they besought him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment: and 'as many as touched were healed.

CHAPTER XV.

3 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees for transgressing God's commandments through their own traditions: 11 teacheth how that which goeth into the mouth doth not defile a man. 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 33 and with seven loaves and a few little fishes feedeth four thousand men, besides women and children.

THEN 'came to Jesus the scribes and Pharisees of Jerusalem, saying,

2 'Why do thy disciples transgress 'the tradition of the elders? for they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said to them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, 'Honour thy father and mother: and, 'He that curseth father or mother, let him suffer death.

5 But ye say, Whoever shall say to his father or his mother, 'It is a gift, whatever of mine might have aided thee;

6 He even must not honour his father or his mother. Thus have ye annulled the commandment of God by your tradition.

7 'Hypocrites! well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 'This people draw near to me with their mouth, and honour me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they worship me, 'teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said to them, Hear, and understand:

11 'Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth the man; but that which proceedeth from the mouth, this defileth the man.

12 Then his disciples came, and said to him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees took offence at hearing this saying?

13 But he answered and said, 'Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: 'they are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into the ditch.

15 ¶ But Peter answering said to him, Explain to us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, 'Are ye also still without understanding?

17 Do ye not yet understand, that 'whatever entereth the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast forth into the sink?

18 But 'the things which proceed out of the mouth come from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 'For from the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false testimonies, revilings:

20 These are what defile the man: but to eat with unwaashed hands defileth not the man.

21 ¶ And Jesus went thence, and retired into the region of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of Canaan coming forth from those borders, cried to him, saying, Pity me, Lord, thou son of David! My daughter is grievously vexed by a demon!

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came up and besought him, saying, Dismiss her; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answering, said, 'I am sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then she came and fell down before him, saying, Lord, help me!

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread and throw it to the 'dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it to thee as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 ¶ And Jesus departing thence, came 'to the sea of Galilee; and going up into the mountain, he sat down, there.

30 ¶ And great multitudes came to him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and laid them at the feet of Jesus; and he healed them:

31 So that the multitude wondered, as they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, the lame walking, and the blind seeing: and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ And Jesus calling to him his disciples, said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I am not willing to dismiss them fasting, lest they faint on the way.

33 And his disciples say to him, Whence have we in the desert so many loaves as to satisfy so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith to them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he directed the multitude to recline on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and giving thanks, broke them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they all ate, and were satisfied: and they took up what remained of the broken pieces, seven baskets full.

38 And those who ate were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And dismissing the multitude, he took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a sign. 6 Jesus warneth his disciples of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees. 13 The people's opinion of Christ, 16 and Peter's confession of him. 21 Jesus foreseeth his death, 23 reproving Peter for disavowing him from it: 24 and admonisheth those that will follow him, to bear the cross.

AND the Pharisees and Sadducees came up, and tempting, asked him to shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said to them, At evening, ye say, Fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, A storm to-day: for the sky is red and lowering. Hypocrites! ye can discern the face of the sky; and can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh for a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

5 ¶ Now his disciples having come to the other side, had forgotten to take bread with them.

6 And Jesus said to them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have brought no bread.

8 And Jesus perceiving it, said to them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, nor remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that it was not with respect to bread that I bade you beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then they understood that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 ¶ And Jesus coming into the region of Cesarea Philippi, asked his disciples, saying, Who do men say that I, the Son of man, am?

14 And they said, Some say, John the Baptist: others, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith to them, But who say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answering, said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answering, said to him, Happy art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood did not reveal it to thee, but my Father who is in heaven.

18 And I also say to thee, That thou art Peter, (Rock,) and on this rock I will build my church: and the gates of death shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give to thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven; and whatever thou shalt bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then he charged his disciples that they should tell no one that he was the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time Jesus began to shew to his disciples, that he must go to Jerusalem, and suffer much from the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and rise on the third day.

22 And Peter taking him aside began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be to thee.

23 But he turned, and said to Peter, Get behind me, Satan! thou art an offence to me: for thou favourest not the things of God, but those of men.

24 ¶ Then Jesus said to his disciples, If any one would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

25 For whoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whoever loseth his life for my sake, shall obtain it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he gain the whole world, and lose his life? or what ransom shall a man give for his life?

27 For the Son of man will come in the glory of his Father, with his angels; and then he will render to each according to his conduct.

28 Verily I say to you, There are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 The transfiguration of Christ. 14 He healeth the lame, 22 foretelleth his own passion, 24 and payeth tribute.

AND after six days, Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into a high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face shone as the sun, and his garments became white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with him.

4 And Peter answering, said to Jesus, the congregation: and if he also disregard the congregation, let him be to thee as the heathen and the publican.

18 Verily, I say to you, 'Whatever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven: and whatever ye shall loose on earth, shall be loosed in heaven.

19 'Again I say to you, That if two of you shall agree on earth, concerning any thing that they shall ask, 'it shall be done for them by my Father who is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are assembled in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then Peter came to him, and said, Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? 'till seven times?

22 Jesus saith to him, I say not to thee, Until seven times: 'but, Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore the kingdom of heaven is likened to a certain king who wished to make a reckoning with his servants.

24 And as he began to reckon, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.

25 But as he was not able to pay, his lord commanded him 'to be sold, and his wife and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and entreated him, saying, Sir, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 And the lord of that servant, moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But that servant going out, found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him an hundred pence: and he seized him by the throat, saying, Pay me what thou owest.

29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and threw him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 And his fellow-servants seeing what was done, were very sorry, and came and told their lord all that had happened.

32 Then his lord, calling him up, said to him, Thou wicked servant! I forgave thee all that debt, because thou didst entreat me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have pitied thy fellow-servant, as I pitied thee?

34 And his lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due to him.

35 'Thus also will my heavenly Father do to you, if from your hearts ye forgive not each his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER XIX.

2 Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorce: 10 sheweth when marriage is necessary: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth the young man how to attain eternal life, 20 and how to be perfect: 23 telleth his disciples how hard it is for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God, 27 and promiseth reward to those that forsake any thing to follow him.

AND it came to pass, 'that when Jesus finished these words, he departed from Galilee, and came into the borders of Judea, beyond the Jordan:

2 'And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, trying him, and saying to him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said to them, Have ye not read, 'that he who made them at the beginning, made them male and female,

5 And said, 'For this reason a man shall leave father and mother, and cleave to his wife: and 'the two shall be one flesh?

6 So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined, let not man separate.

7 They say to him, 'Why then did Moses command to give a bill of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith to them, Moses, because of your stubbornness of heart, suffered you to put away your wives: but at the beginning it was not so.

9 'And I say to you, Whoever shall put away his wife, except for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and he that marieth her who is put away, committeth adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say to him, 'If the case of the man with his wife is so, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said to them, 'All men cannot receive this saying, but only those to whom it is given.

12 For there are eunuchs, who were so born from their mother's womb: and there are eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men: and 'there are eunuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ Then there were brought to him little children, that he might put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Let alone the little children, and forbid them not to come to me: for 'of such is the kingdom of heaven

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And behold, one came and said to him, 'Good Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith to him, Which? Jesus said, 'Thou shalt not murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false testimony.

19 'Honour thy father and thy mother: and, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith to him, All these things I have observed from my youth: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said to him, If thou wilt be perfect, 'go and sell thy possessions, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

22 And the young man hearing his words, went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus to his disciples, Verily, I say to you, That 'a rich man will with difficulty enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say to you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.

25 And his disciples hearing it, were greatly astonished, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus looking upon them, said, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then Peter answering, said to him, Behold, we have left all, and followed thee; what then shall we have?

28 And Jesus said to them, Verily, I say to you, That ye who have followed me, at the renovation, when the Son of man shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 ¶ And every one who hath left houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, on account of my name, shall receive an hundred-fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 ¶ But many will be last who are first, and first who are last.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Christ, by the similitude of the labourers in the vineyard, sheweth that God is debtor to no man: 17 foretelleth his suffering: 20 by answering the mother of Zebedee's children, teacheth his disciples to be lovely: 30 and giveth two blind men their sight.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like an householder, who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard.

2 And having agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And going out about the third hour, he saw others standing idle in the market,

4 And said to them, Go ye also into my vineyard; and whatever is right, I will give you. And they went.

5 Again going out about the sixth and ninth hour, he did in like manner.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith to them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say to him, Because no one hath hired us. He saith to them, Go ye also into my vineyard; and whatever is right ye shall receive.

8 And at evening, the lord of the vineyard saith to his steward, Call the labourers, and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.

9 And those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, and received each a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should receive more; and they also received each a penny.

11 And on receiving it, they murmured against the householder,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do not wrong thee: didst thou not agree with me for a penny?

15 ¶ Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with my own? ¶ Is thine eye evil because I am good?

16 ¶ Thus the last will be first, and the first last: for many are called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart on the way, and said to them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death.

19 And will deliver him to the Gentiles to be derided, and scourged, and crucified: and on the third day he will arise.

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of the sons of Zebedee, with her sons, falling down before him, and asking a certain thing of him.

21 And he said to her, What wilt thou? She saith to him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Can ye drink the cup that I am to drink, and suffer the immersion with which I am immersed? They say to him, We can.

23 And he saith to them, Ye will drink indeed of my cup, and be immersed with my immersion: but, to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, except to those for whom it is prepared by my Father.

24 And the ten hearing it, were angry with the two brethren.

25 But Jesus calling them to him, said, Ye know that the rulers of the nations exercise dominion over them, and the great exercise authority over them.

26 ¶ It shall not be so among you: but whoever may wish to become great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And whoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 ¶ Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And behold, two blind men sitting by the way-side, hearing that Jesus was passing by, cried out, saying, Pity us, Lord, thou son of David!

31 And the multitude charged them to be silent: but they cried the more, saying, Pity us, Lord, thou son of David!

32 And Jesus stopped, and called them, and said, What will ye that I do to you?

33 They say to him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 And Jesus having compassion on them, touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem upon an ass, 12 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple, 17 curseth the fig-tree, 23 putteth to silence the priests and elders, 28 and rebuketh them by the similitude of the two sons, 35 and the husbandmen, who slew such as were sent to them.

AND as they drew near to Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, to the mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,

2 Saying to them, Go into the village over against you, and immediately ye will find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them to me.

3 And if any one say any thing to you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and immediately he will send them.

4 All this took place, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 Say to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh to thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass and the colt, and laid on them their garments, and set him thereon.

8 And the most of the multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut branches from the trees, and strewed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that preceded, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he who cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

10 And as he entered Jerusalem, all the city was shaken, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all who sold and bought in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold doves, 13 And said to them, It is written, My house shall be called a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of robbers.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And the chief priests and scribes, seeing the wonders that he wrought, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David! were angry,

16 And said to him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith to them, Yea: have ye never read, From the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into Bethany, and spent the night there.

18 And in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry.

19 And seeing to fig-tree on the way, he came to it, and found nothing on it, but leaves only, and said to it, Henceforth let no fruit grow on thee for ever! and immediately the fig-tree withered away.

20 And the disciples seeing it, wondered, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said to them, Verily, I say to you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye will not only do what has been done to the fig-tree, but even if ye say to this mountain, Be raised and thrown into the sea; it will be done.

22 And all things that ye ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ And coming into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou this? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said to them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I also will tell you by what authority I do this.

25 John's immersion, whence was it? from heaven, or from men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven; he will say to us, Why then did ye not believe him?

26 And if we say, From men; we fear the people: for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And answering Jesus, they said, We cannot tell. And he said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do this.

28 ¶ But what think ye? A man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to-day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterward repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said in like manner. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Which of the two did the will of his father? They say to him, The first. Jesus saith to them, Verily I say to you, That the publicans and the harlots go before you into the kingdom of God.

32 For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, seeing it, did not afterward repent and believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable; There was a certain householder, who planted a vineyard, and hedged it round, and dug a wine-press in it, and built a tower; and let it out to husbandmen, and went abroad:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, to receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again he sent other servants more than the first: and they did to them in like manner.

37 And afterward he sent to them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and possess his inheritance.

39 And they took him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When therefore the lord of the vineyard cometh, what will he do to those husbandmen?

41 They say to him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard to other husbandmen, who will render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith to them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and is wonderful in our eyes?

43 Therefore I say to you, The kingdom of God will be taken from you, and given to a nation bearing its fruits.

44 And he who falleth on this stone, will be dashed in pieces: and on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And the chief priests and Pharisees hearing his parables, knew that he spoke of them.

46 But seeking to seize him, they feared the multitude, because they held him as a prophet.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The parable of the marriage of the king's son. 9 The calling of the Gentiles. 12 The punishment of him that wanted the wedding garment. 15 Tribute ought to be paid to Cesar. 23 Christ confuteth the Sadducee for the resurrection: 34 answereth the lawyer, which is the first and great commandment: 41 and poseth the Pharisees about the Messiah.

AND Jesus answering, spoke to them again in parables, saying,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like a king, who made a marriage-feast for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call these who had been invited to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Say to those who are invited, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all is ready: come to the marriage.

5 But they, disregarding it, went off, one to his field, another to his traffick.

6 And the rest, seizing his servants, abused and slew them.

7 And the king, hearing it, was angry: and sending forth his soldiers, he destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then he saith to his servants, The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

9 Go therefore into the highways, and whomsoever ye find, invite to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and assembled all whom they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And the king coming in to survey the guests, saw there a man not clothed with a wedding-garment:

12 And he saith to him, Friend, how camest thou in here, not having a wedding-garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and cast him forth into the outer darkness: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 ¶ For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his words.

16 And they sent out to him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest for no one: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us then, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus knowing their malice, said, Why try ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute-money. And they brought to him a penny.

20 And he saith to them, Whose is this image, and inscription?

21 They say to him, Cesar's. Then he saith to them, Render therefore to Cesar, that which is Cesar's; and to God, that which is God's.

22 And hearing this, they wondered; and they left him and departed.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Teacher, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up offspring to his brother.

25 Now, there were with us seven brethren: and the first married and died; and having no offspring, left his wife to his brother.

26 In like manner also the second, and the third, to the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Now at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said to them, Ye err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For at the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But, concerning the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read what was spoken to you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And the multitude hearing, were astonished at his teaching.

34 ¶ And the Pharisees hearing that he had silenced the Sadducees, assembled together;

35 And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question, trying him, and saying,

36 Teacher, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jesus said to him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 ¶ On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ And the Pharisees being assembled, Jesus asked them,

42 Saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say to him, The son of David.

43 He saith to them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If then David calleth him Lord, how is he his son?

46 ¶ And no one was able to answer him a word, nor did any, from that day, venture to question him further.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Christ admonisheth the people to follow the good doctrine, not the evil examples, of the scribes and Pharisees. 5 His disciples must beware of their ambition. 13 He denounceth woes against their hypocrisy and blindness: 34 and prophesieth of the destruction of Jerusalem.

THEN Jesus spoke to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, "The scribes and the Pharisees sit in the seat of Moses:

3 All things then whatever they bid you observe, observe and do: but do not according to their deeds: for they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy and intolerable burdens, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not stir them with a finger.

5 But all their deeds they do to be seen by men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the fringes of their garments,

6 And love the first place at feasts, and the first seats in the synagogues,

7 And salutations in the markets, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi.

8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no one your father on the earth: for one is your Father, he who is in heaven.

10 Nor be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But the greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And whoever shall exalt himself, will be humbled; and whoever shall humble himself, will be exalted.

13 ¶ But wo to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, nor suffer those who are entering, to go in.

14 Wo to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour the houses of widows, and for a pretence make long prayers: therefore ye will receive the greater condemnation.

15 Wo to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he is gained, ye make him twofold more a son of hell than yourselves.

16 Wo to you, blind guides! who say, "Whoever sweareth by the temple, it is nothing; but whoever sweareth by the gold of the temple, is obligated.

17 Foolish and blind! for which is greater, the gold, or the temple that consecrateth the gold?

18 And whoever sweareth by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever sweareth by the gift that is on it, is obligated.

19 Foolish and blind! for which is greater, the gift, or the altar that consecrateth the gift?

20 He then who sweareth by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things upon it.

21 And he who sweareth by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him who inhabiteth it.

22 And he who sweareth by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him who sitteth upon it.

23 Wo to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithes of mint, and fennel, and cummin, and omit the more important parts of the law, justice, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, nor have left the other undone.

24 Blind guides! who strain out the gnat, and swallow the camel!

• Rom. 1. 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

25 Wo to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, while within they are full of rapine and injustice.

26 Blind Pharisee! cleanse first the inside of the cup and platter, that their outside may be also clean.

27 Wo to you, scribes and Pharisees hypocrites! for ye are like whitened sepulchres, which without indeed appear beautiful, but within are full of the bones of the dead, and of all uncleanness.

28 Thus ye also outwardly appear righteous to men, but within are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Wo to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and adorn the monuments of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 So that ye bear testimony for yourselves, that ye are sons of those who murdered the prophets.

32 Fill up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Serpents! race of vipers! how can ye escape the punishment of hell?

34 ¶ Therefore, behold, I ing, I am the Christ; and will lead astray many.

6 And ye will hear of wars, and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for this must take place, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there will be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in various places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then they will deliver you up to be afflicted, and will kill you: and ye will be hated by all nations on account of my name.

10 And then many will fall away; and they will betray one another, and hate one another.

11 And many false prophets will rise, and will lead many astray.

12 And because iniquity aboundeth, the love of many will grow cold.

13 But he who endureth to the end shall be saved.

14 And these glad tidings of the kingdom will be proclaimed in all the world, for a testimony to all nations; and then will the end come.

15 When, therefore, ye see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, (let him that readeth understand.)

16 Then let those in Judea flee to the mountains:

17 Let him who is on the house-top not come down to take the things from his house:

18 Nor let him who is in the field turn back to take his garments.

19 And wo to those with child, and to those giving suck in those days!

20 But pray that your flight be not in the winter, nor on the Sabbath:

21 For when will be great affliction, such as hath not been from the beginning of the world until now, nor ever shall be.

22 And unless those days should be shortened, there would no flesh be saved: but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.

23 Then if any one say to you, Lo, here is the Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For false Christs and false prophets will arise, and will shew great signs and wonders; so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

25 Behold, I have forewarned you.

26 If then they say to you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh forth from the east, and shineth to the west; thus also will be the coming of the Son of man.

28 For wherever the carcass is, there will assemble the eagles.

29 Immediately after the affliction of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken:

30 And then will appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then will all the tribes of the earth wail, and they will see the Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And he will send forth his angels with a loud sounding trumpet, and they will bring together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Take your comparison from the fig-tree; When now its branch becometh tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

33 Thus also ye, when ye see all this, know that he is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say to you, This generation will not pass, till all this is fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But of that day and hour knoweth no one, not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noah were, so also will be the coming of the Son of man.

38 For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and swept them all away; so also will be the coming of the Son of man.

40 Then will two be in the field; the one will be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women will be grinding at the mill; the one will be taken, and the other left.

42 Watch therefore, for ye know not at what hour your Lord cometh.

43 But this ye know, that if the master of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for at an hour when ye think not, the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is the faithful and prudent servant, whom his lord hath set over his household, to give them their food in its season?

46 Happy is that servant, whom his lord, when he cometh, shall find so doing.

47 Verily, I say to you, That he will appoint him over all his possessions.

48 But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to beat his fellow-servants, and eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And will cut him asunder, and appoint his portion with the hypocrites: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER XXV.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents.

31 Also the description of the last judgment.

THEN will the kingdom of heaven be likened to ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were prudent, and five were foolish.

3 Those who were foolish took their lamps, but took no oil with them:

4 But the prudent took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 And the bridegroom delaying, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there arose a cry, Lo, the bridegroom cometh! go forth to meet him!

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said to the prudent, Give us of your oil: for our lamps are going out.

9 But the prudent answered, saying, We fear lest there be not enough for us and you: go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and those who were ready, went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily, I say to you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ For as a man going abroad, called his own servants, and delivered to them his possessions;

15 And gave to one five talents, to another two, and to another one; to each according to his respective ability; and immediately went abroad.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went and traded with them, and made five other talents.

17 And likewise he that had received the two, he also gained two others.

18 But he that had received the one, went and dug in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And he that had received the five talents, coming up, brought five other talents, saying, Lord, thou deliverdest to me five talents: behold, I have gained five other talents besides them.

21 His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou wert faithful over a little, I will appoint thee over much: enter into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received the two talents came, and said, Lord, thou deliverdest to me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou wert faithful over a little, I will appoint thee over much: enter into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he that had received the one talent came, and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou didst not sow, and gathering whence thou didst not scatter:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, thou hast thine own.

26 His lord answering, said to him, Malignant and slothful servant, knewest thou that I reap where I did not sow, and gather whence I did not scatter?

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and then at my coming I should have received my own with interest.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it to him who hath the ten talents.

29 For to every one that hath will be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him who hath not, will be taken even what he hath.

30 And cast forth the unprofitable servant into the outer darkness: there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ And when the Son of man cometh in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him will be gathered all nations: and he will separate them one from another, as the shepherd separateth the sheep from the goats:

33 And he will set the sheep on his right hand, and the goats on the left.

34 Then will the King say to those on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For I was hungry, and ye gave me food: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came to me.

37 Then will the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came to thee?

39 And the King will answer and say to them, Verily, I say to you, Inasmuch as ye have done it to one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it to me.

40 Then will he say also to those on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels:

41 For I was hungry, and ye gave me no food: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

42 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

43 Then will they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to thee?

44 Then will he answer them, saying, Verily, I say to you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

45 And these will go away into eternal punishment: but the righteous into eternal life.

CHAPTER XXVI.

1 The rulers conspire against Christ. 6 The women anointeth his head. 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover: 26 instituteth his holy supper: 36 prayeth in the garden: 47 and being betrayed with a kiss, 57 is carried to Caiaphas, 69 and denied of Peter.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these words, he said to his disciples,

2 ¶ Ye know that after two days is the passover, and the Son of man is delivered up to be crucified.

3 ¶ Then the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by fraud, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ Now Jesus being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came to him a woman having an alabaster-box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head as he reclined at table.

8 But his disciples seeing it, complained, saying, Why this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 But Jesus perceiving it, said to them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.

12 For she, in pouring this ointment on my body, did it for my burial.

13 Verily, I say to you, Wherever these glad tidings are proclaimed in the whole world, there also what she hath done will be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests,

15 And said to them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him to you? And they weighed for him thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now, on the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say to him, The Teacher saith, My time is near: I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus directed them; and they prepared the passover.

20 ¶ And when evening came, he reclined at table with the twelve.

21 And as they were eating, he said, Verily I say to you, that one of you will betray me.

22 And being exceedingly sorrowful, they began each one of them to say to him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He who dipperth his hand with me in the dish, he will betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth indeed, as it is written of him: but two to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it were better for that man if he had not been born!

25 And Judas, who betrayed him, answering, said, Master, is it I? He said to him, Thou hast said it.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jesus took the loaf, and having blessed it, broke, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and giving thanks, gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood, that of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 And I say to you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in the kingdom of my Father.

¶ Gen. 2. 6, Rev. 19. 10.

30 ¶ And they sung an hymn, and went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus to them, Ye will all forsake me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.

32 But after I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said to him, Though all shall forsake thee, yet never will I forsake thee.

34 Jesus said to him, Verily, I say to thee, That on this night, before the cock crew, thou wilt thrice deny me.

35 Peter said to him, Though I must die with thee, I will never deny thee. So also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then Jesus cometh with them to a place called Gethsemane, and saith to the disciples, Sit here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And taking with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and full of anguish.

38 Then he saith to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death: remain here, and watch with me.

39 And going forward a little, he fell on his face, and prayed, saying, My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me: yet, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh to the disciples, and findeth them sleeping, and saith to Peter, What! could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into trial: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, My Father, if this cup may not pass from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them sleeping again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And leaving them, he went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then he cometh to his disciples, and saith to them, Sleep henceforth, and rest: behold, the hour is near, and the Son of man is delivered into the hands of sinners.

46 Arise! let us be going! lo, he is at hand who betrayeth me.

47 ¶ And while he was yet speaking, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 And he who betrayed him, had given them a sign, saying, The man whom I shall kiss, is he; seize upon him.

49 And immediately coming up to Jesus, he said, Hail, Master; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said to him, Friend, for what art thou come? Then coming up, they laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And behold, one of those who were with Jesus, stretched out his hand, and drawing his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus to him, Return thy sword to its place: for all who take the sword, will perish by the sword.

53 Or thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he will give me more than twelve legions of angels?

51 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

52 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye did not seize upon me:

53 But all this hath taken place, that the writings of the prophets may be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left him, and fled.

54 ¶ And those who had taken Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

55 But Peter followed him at a distance, to the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat among the servants to see the end.

56 And the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, were seeking false testimony against Jesus, through which to put him to death;

57 But found none: nay, though many false witnesses came, yet they found none. But at last came two false witnesses, 58 And said, This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

59 And the high priest arose, and said to him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these testify against thee?

60 But Jesus was silent. And the high priest answered and said to him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou art the Christ, the Son of God.

61 Jesus saith to him, Thou hast said it: nay, I say to you, Hereafter ye shall see the Son of man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming on the clouds of heaven.

62 Then the high priest rent his garments, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

63 What think ye? They answered and said, He is worthy of death.

64 Then they spit in his face, and struck him with their fists, and others with their open hands,

65 Saying, Prophecy to us, Christ, Who is it that smote thee?

66 ¶ But Peter sat without in the court: and a maid-servant came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus the Galilean.

67 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

68 And as he went out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said to those who were there, This man was with Jesus the Nazarene.

69 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

70 And after a little those who stood by came up, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech betrayeth thee.

71 Then he began to curse and to swear, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crowed.

72 And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, who had said to him, Before the cock crow, thou wilt thrice deny me. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Christ is delivered bound to Pilate. 3 Judas hangeth himself. 19 Pilate, admonished by his wife, 24 washeth his hands: 28 and loaveth Barabbas. 29 Christ is crowned with thorns, 34 crucified, 40 reviled, 50 dieh, and is buried: 68 his sepulchre is sealed, and watched.

WHEN the morning came, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ Then Judas, who had betrayed him, seeing that he was condemned, repented, and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in betraying innocent blood. And they said, What is it to us? see thou to that.

5 And he threw down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed; and he went away and hung himself.

6 And the chief priests taking the silver pieces, said, It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are the price of blood.

7 And having taken counsel, they bought with them the potter's field, as a burial-place for strangers.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, to this day.

9 Then was fulfilled what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him who was valued, whom the sons of Israel valued;

10 And they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord directed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said to him, Thou sayest it.

12 And while he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate to him, Hearest thou not how much they testify against thee?

14 And he answered him not even a word; so that the governor wondered greatly.

15 Now at the feast, the governor was accustomed to release to the people a prisoner, whom they chose.

16 And they had then a noted prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore, they being assembled, Pilate said to them, Whom do ye wish that I release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus, who is called Christ?

18 (For he knew that from envy they had delivered him up.)

19 ¶ And as he sat upon the tribunal, his wife sent to him, saying, Have nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered much to-day in a dream, on account of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude to ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 And the governor answering, said to them, Which of the two do ye wish that I release to you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith to them, What then shall I do with Jesus, who is called Christ?

They all say to him, Let him be crucified!

23 And the governor said, Why! what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified!

24 And Pilate seeing that he could prevail nothing, but that there rather arose a tumult, took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 And all the people answering, said, His blood be on us, and on our children!

26 ¶ Then he released Barabbas to them: and scourging Jesus, delivered him to be crucified.

27 ¶ Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the palace, and gathered round him the whole band.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe;

29 And braiding a crown of thorns, they put it on his head, and a reed in his right hand: and kneeling before him, they scoffed at him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and kept smiting him on the head.

31 And when they had made sport of him, they took off from him the robe, and put on him his own garments; and they led him away to be crucified.

32 And as they went forth, they found a Cyrenean, named Simon: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 ¶ And coming to a place called Golgotha, (that is to say, A place of a skull.)

34 They gave him vinegar to drink, mingled with gall: and having tasted it, he would not drink.

35 And having nailed him to the cross, they divided his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet; They divided my garments among them, and cast lots upon my raiment.

36 And sitting down, they watched him there:

37 And they placed over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 ¶ Then there were two robbers crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And those who passed by, reviled him, shaking their heads,

40 And saying, Thou who destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself! If thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross!

41 And in like manner also the chief priests, scoffing at him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save! If he is the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He trusted in God; let him deliver him now if he loveth him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 In the same way also the robbers who were crucified with him, upbraided him.

45 Now, from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 And some of those who stood there, hearing it, said, This man calleth for Elijah.

48 And immediately one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filling it with vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him.

50 ¶ And Jesus, crying again with a loud voice, yielded up his spirit.

51 And lo, the vail of the temple was rent in two from the top to the bottom: and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were rent;

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of sleeping saints arose, 53 And coming out of their graves after his resurrection, went into the holy city, and appeared to many.

54 And the centurion, and those who with him were watching Jesus, on seeing the earthquake, and what took place, feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God!

55 And many women were there beholding from a distance, who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him:

56 Among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 And evening coming, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who was himself also a disciple of Jesus:

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then Pilate directed the body to be delivered.

59 And Joseph taking the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn in the rock; and rolling up a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, he departed.

61 And Mary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ And on the morrow, the day after the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together to Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while yet living, After three days I arise.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be secured until the third day, lest his disciples, coming by night, steal him away, and say to the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last deception will be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said to them, Ye have a guard: go, make it as secure as ye can.

66 So they went and secured the sepulchre, scaling the stone, and placing a guard.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by an angel to the women. 9 He himself appeareth to them. 11 The high priests give the soldiers money to say that he was stolen out of his sepulchre. 16 Christ appeareth to his disciples, 19 and sendeth them to disciple and teach all nations.

AFTER the Sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene came with the other Mary, to see the sepulchre.

2 And behold, there had been a great and crying with a loud voice, came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saying, What is this? what new teaching is this? for with authority he commandeth even the unclean spirits, and they obey him.

28 And his fame spread immediately through all the surrounding region of Galilee.

29 And forthwith, coming out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 And the mother-in-law of Simon lay sick with a fever; and immediately they tell him of her.

31 And he came, and taking her by the hand, lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered to them.

32 And at evening, when the sun was set, they brought to him all the sick, and the demoniacs.

33 And the whole city was assembled at the door.

34 And he healed many who were sick of various diseases, and cast out many demons; and suffered not the demons to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, while it was yet dark, he arose and went out; and went away into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and those with him, followed after him.

37 And on finding him, they said to him, All are seeking thee.

38 And he saith to them, Let us go into the neighbouring towns, that I may proclaim the good news there also: since for this I am come forth.

39 And he proclaimed it in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out demons.

40 And a leper came to him, beseeching, and kneeling to him, and saying to him, If thou wilt, thou canst cleanse me.

41 And Jesus, having compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith to him, I will; be cleansed.

42 And as he spoke, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And strictly charging him, he immediately sent him away;

44 And saith to him, See thou say nothing to any one; but go, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

45 But he going out, began to publish it much, and to spread the report, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER II.

1 Christ healeth a paralytic, 14 calleth Matthew from the receipt of custom, 15 eateth with publicans and sinners, 18 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, 23 and for plucking the ears of corn on the Sabbath.

AND again he entered into Capernaum, after some days; and they heard that he was in the house.

2 And immediately many were assembled, so that there was no room for them, even about the door: and he spoke the word to them.

3 And they come to him, bringing a paralytic, carried by four.

4 And being unable to come near him, on account of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where he was: and breaking through, they let down the couch on which the paralytic lay.

5 And Jesus seeing their faith, saith to the paralytic, Son, thy sins are forgiven thee.

6 But some of the scribes were sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God alone?

8 And immediately, Jesus knowing in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, Why reason ye thus in your hearts?

9 Which is easier to say to the paralytic, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, take up thy couch, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the paralytic,)

11 I say to thee, Arise, take up thy couch, and go into thy house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up his couch, and went out before them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it thus!

13 And he went forth again to the sea; and all the multitude resorted to him, and he taught them.

14 And passing along, he saw Levi, son of Alphaeus, sitting at the custom-house, and saith to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, as Jesus reclined at table in his house, many publicans and sinners also reclined with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they followed him.

16 The scribes and Pharisees saw him eating with publicans and sinners, and said to his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 Jesus hearing it, saith to them, Those who are well need not a physician, but those who are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance.

18 And the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees, used to fast: and they come, and say to him, Why do the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees fast, and thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said to them, Can the sons of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days.

21 And no one seweth a piece of undressed cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that is supplied, taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no one putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine bursteth the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles perish: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 And it happened, that he went on the Sabbath through the fields of grain; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.

24 And the Pharisees said to him, Behold, why do they on the Sabbath that which is not lawful?

25 And he said to them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he and those with him?

26 How he went into the house of God, in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the shew-bread, which it is not lawful to eat, except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?

27 And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath:

28 So that the Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand, 10 and many other infirmities: 11 rebuketh the unclean spirits: 13 chooseth his twelve apostles: 22 repelleth the slander of his casting out demons by Beelzebub: 31 and sheweth who are his brother, sister, and mother.

AND again he entered the synagogue; and there was a man there who had his hand withered.

2 And they were watching him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith to the man who had the withered hand, Stand forth.

4 And he saith to them, Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? And they were silent.

5 And looking round on them with anger, grieving at the perverseness of their hearts, he saith to the man, Stretch out thy hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored sound as the other.

6 And the Pharisees going out, immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jesus retired with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea,

8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond the Jordan; and those about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, hearing what he did, came to him.

9 And he bade his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him, on account of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he healed many; so that whoever had diseases pressed upon him to touch him.

11 And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God!

12 And he strictly charged them not to make him known.

13 And he goeth up into the mountain, and calleth to him whom he would: and they came to him.

14 And he appointed twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to proclaim,

15 And to have power to heal diseases and cast out demons.

16 And Simon he surnamed Peter.

17 And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, (and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder.)

tholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite,

19 And Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. And they went into a house;

20 And again the multitude cometh together, so that they could not even eat bread.

21 And his kinsmen hearing of it, went out to lay hold of him: for they said, He is beside himself.

22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem, said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the demons he casteth out demons.

23 And calling them to him, he said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 No one can enter the strong man's house, and spoil his goods, unless he first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

28 Verily, I say to you, All sins will be forgiven to the sons of men, and the revilings which they may utter:

29 But he who revileth the Holy Spirit hath never forgiveness, but is liable to eternal punishment.

30 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

31 And his brethren and his mother came, and standing without, sent to him, calling him.

32 And the multitude were sitting around him; and they said to him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And looking round on those who sat about him, he said, Behold, my mother and my brethren!

35 For whoever shall do the will of God, he is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the seed growing secretly, 30 and of the mustard-seed. 35 Christ stillath the tempest on the sea.

AND he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered to him a great multitude, so that he entered the ship, and sat in the sea: and the whole multitude was by the sea, on the land.

2 And he taught them much by parables, and said to them in his teaching,

3 Harken; Behold, the sower went out to sow.

4 And it happened, as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the birds of heaven came and devoured it.

5 And some fell on the rocky ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun arose, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on the good ground, and yielded fruit that sprang up and increased, and it bore some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said to them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, those about him, with the twelve, asked him concerning the parable.

11 And he said to them, To you it is given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God: but to those without, all is done in parables:

12 That while seeing they may not perceive; and hearing they may not understand; lest they turn, and their sins be forgiven them.

13 And he said to them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all my parables?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown, and when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are in like manner those sown on the rocky ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, but endure only for a time: then, when affliction or persecution ariseth on account of the word, they immediately fall away.

18 And these are they that are sown among the thorns; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the desires of other things coming in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they that are sown on the good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bear fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And he said to them, Is the lamp brought to be put under the measure, or under the bed? and not to be placed on the stand?

22 For there is nothing hidden, which will not be manifested; nor is any thing kept secret, but that it should come to light.

23 ¶ If any one hath ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said to them, Take heed what ye hear: With what measure ye mete, it will be measured to you: and to you who hear, more will be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even what he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man cast seed into the ground;

27 And sleep and wake night and day, and the seed spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth beareth fruit of itself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit appeareth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh larger than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the birds of heaven can lodge under its shadow.

33 And with many such parables he spake to them the word, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable he did not speak to them: and he privately explained all to his disciples.

35 And on that day at evening, he saith to them, Let us pass to the other side.

36 And leaving the multitude, they took him as he was in the ship. And there were other ships with him.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves dashed into the ship, so that it was now becoming full.

38 And he was in the stern, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say to him, Teacher! carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Silence! Be still! And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said to them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ delivering the possessed of the legion of demons, 13 they enter into the swine. 25 He healeth the woman of the bloody issue, 35 and raiseth from death Jairus's daughter.

AND they came over the sea, into the country of the Gadarens.

2 And as he came out of the ship, immediately there met him from the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one could bind him, not even with chains:

4 Because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been rent asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: and none could tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But seeing Jesus from afar, he ran and fell down before him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, saying, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, not to torment me.

8 (For he said to him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them out of the country.

11 Now there was there near the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the demons besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And immediately Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits going out, went into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the sea, (they were about two thousand,) and were choked in the sea.

14 And those who fed the swine fled, and reported it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what had happened.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see the demoniac who had had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And those who saw it related to them what had happened to the demoniac, and concerning the swine.

17 And they began to entreat him to depart from their borders.

18 And as he went into the ship, he who had had the demon prayed him that he might remain with him.

19 But Jesus did not permit it, but saith to him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how much the Lord hath done for thee, and hath pitied thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him. And all wondered.

21 And Jesus having repassed in the ship to the other side, a great multitude gathered to him: and he was near the sea.

22 And behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, named Jairus; and seeing him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him much, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death. Come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she will live.

24 And Jesus went with him; and a great multitude followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, who had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered much by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was not at all benefited, but rather grew worse,

27 Hearing of Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment:

28 For she said, If I may but touch his garments, I shall be healed.

29 And forthwith the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And immediately Jesus, knowing in himself that power had gone forth from him, turned about in the crowd, and said, Who touched my garments?

31 And his disciples said to him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round to see her who had done this.

33 But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath healed thee; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he was still speaking, they come from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Teacher further?

36 As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith to the ruler of the synagogue, Fear not, only believe.

37 And he permitted no one to follow him, except Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth a tumult, and those who wept and wailed greatly.

39 And coming in, he saith to them, Why do ye make a tumult, and weep? the child is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laughed at him. But he, putting them all forth, taketh the father and the mother of the child, and those with him, and entereth in where the child was lying.

41 And he took the child by the hand, and said to her, Talitha-cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, (I say to thee) arise!

42 And immediately the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them strictly that no one should know it; and directed that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ is condemned of his countrymen. 7 He giveth the twelve power over unclean spirits. 14 Various opinions of Christ. 18 John Baptist is beheaded, 29 and buried. 30 The apostles return from preaching. 34 The miracle of five loaves and two fishes. 45 Christ walketh on the sea: 53 and healeth all that touch him.

AND he went out thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the Sabbath came, he began to teach in the synagogue; and many hearing him were astonished, saying, Whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given to him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joseph, and Judah, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.

4 But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honour, except in his own country, and among his own kindred, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick persons, and healed them.

6 And he wondered at their unbelief. And he went around the villages, teaching.

7 And he called to him the twelve, and began to send them forth two by two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only; no sack, no bread, no money in their purse;

9 But he shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said to them, In whatever place ye enter a house, there remain till ye depart from that place.

11 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, as ye go out thence, shake off the dust under your feet, for a testimony against them. Verily, I say to you, It will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and proclaimed that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick, and healed them.

14 And king Herod heard of him, (for his name had become known,) and he said, John the Baptist is risen from the dead, and therefore these mighty works are wrought by him.

15 Others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But Herod hearing it, said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and seized upon John, and bound him in prison, on account of Herodias, wife of his brother Philip: for he had married her.

18 For John had said to Herod, 'It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.'

19 Therefore Herodias had a grudge against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and guarded him: and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 But a convenient day came, when Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his lords, chief captains, and the first men of Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and his guests, the king said to the damsel, Ask of me whatever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he swore to her, 'Whatever thou shalt ask of me, I will give thee, to the half of my kingdom.'

24 And she went out, and said to her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And immediately she came in with haste to the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me, forthwith, on a platter, the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king, though exceedingly sorry, yet, from regard to his oath and his guests, would not refuse her.

27 And immediately the king sent one of his guards, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison;

28 And brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the damsel; and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And his disciples hearing of it, came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the apostles came together to Jesus, and reported to him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said to them, Come ye by yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat.

32 And they departed privately by ship into a desert place.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran thither by land from all the cities, and outwent them, and came together to him.

34 And Jesus, coming forth, saw a great multitude, and had compassion on them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them much.

35 And the day being now far spent, his disciples came to him, and said, This is a desert place, and it is now late:

36 Dismiss them, that they may go into the surrounding fields and villages, and buy themselves bread; for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith to them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he directed them to make all sit down by companies on the green grass.

40 And they sat down in squares, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And taking the five loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and gave thanks; and he broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and he divided among them all the two fishes.

42 And they all ate, and were satisfied.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And those who ate of the loaves, were about five thousand men.

45 And immediately he constrained his disciples to enter the ship, and to cross over before him to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the multitude.

46 And having sent them away, he departed into the mountain to pray.

47 And evening coming, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them harassed with rowing; for the wind was against them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh to them, walking on the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But they, seeing him walking on the sea, thought it was a spirit, and cried out.

50 (For they all saw him, and were terrified.) And immediately he spoke with them, and saith to them, Take courage: it is I; fear not.

51 And he went up to them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were beyond measure amazed in themselves, and wondered.

52 For they did not understand by means of the miracle of the loaves; for their heart was stupid.

53 And passing over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And as they came out of the ship, immediately they knew him,

55 And running round through that whole region, began to carry about on couches those who were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And wherever he entered into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and begged that they might but touch the fringe of his garment: and as many as touched him, were healed.

CHAPTER VII.

1 The Pharisees find fault with the disciples for eating with unwashed hands. 8 They break the commandment of God by the traditions of men. 14 Meat defileth not the man. 24 He healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter of an unclean spirit, 31 and one that was deaf, and stammered in his speech.

NOW the Pharisees and some of the scribes, coming from Jerusalem, gather around him.

2 And seeing some of his disciples eat bread with defiled (that is, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 (For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, eat not unless they wash their hands [carefully, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, they eat not till they have bathed themselves. And there are many other things which they have received to observe, as the immersing of cups, and [pots, and brazen vessels, and [couches.)

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why do not thy disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said to them, Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honour me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 But in vain do they worship me, teaching as their doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For, neglecting the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the immersing of pots and cups: and many other such things ye do.

9 And he said to them, Nobly do ye [set aside the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, (that is, a gift,) whatever of mine might benefit thee; he shall be free.

12 And ye no longer suffer him to do any thing for his father or his mother;

13 Making void the word of God by your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such things ye do.

14 ¶ And calling to himself all the multitude, he said to them, Hear me, all of you, and understand.

15 There is nothing from without a man, which going into him, can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are what defile the man.

16 ¶ If any one hath ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he entered into the house from the multitude, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith to them, Are ye also thus without understanding? Do ye not consider, that nothing which from without entereth into the man, can defile him:

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the sink, cleansing all his food?

20 And he said, That which cometh from the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, from the heart of men, proceed their evil thoughts; adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, malice, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, railing, pride, foolishness;

26 (The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation,) and she besought him that he would cast out the demon from her daughter.

27 But Jesus said to her, Let the children first be satisfied: for it is not good to take the children's bread, and cast it to the dogs.

28 And she answered and said to him, Yea, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said to her, For this saying, depart; the demon is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And coming to her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.

31 ¶ And again, departing from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the sea of Galilee, through the region of Decapolis.

32 And they bring to him one who was deaf, and spoke with difficulty; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And taking him aside from the multitude, he put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue:

34 And looking up to heaven, he groaned, and saith to him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And immediately his ears were opened, and the band of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plainly.

36 And he charged them to tell no one: but the more he charged them, the more they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously: 10 refuseth to give a sign to the Pharisees: 14 admonisheth his disciples to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod: 22 giveth a blind man his sight: 27 acknowledgeth that he is the Christ, who should suffer and rise again: 34 and exhorteth to patience in persecution for the profession of the gospel.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus, calling to him his disciples, saith to them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I dismiss them to their homes fasting, they will faint on the way: for some of them are come from a distance.

4 And his disciples answered him, Whence can one satisfy these men with bread here in the desert?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and taking the seven loaves, he gave thanks, and broke them, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they set them before the people.

7 And they had a few little fishes: and he blessed, and bade that these also be set before them.

8 And they ate, and were satisfied: and they took up what remained of the fragments, seven baskets.

9 And those who ate were about four thousand: and he dismissed them.

10 ¶ And immediately entering the ship with his disciples, he came into the region of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, trying him.

12 And groaning deeply in his spirit, he saith, Why doth this generation seek for a sign? Verily, I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to bring bread, nor had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And Jesus knowing it, saith to them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? do ye not yet consider, nor understand? have ye your heart yet stupid?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say to him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among the four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said to them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring to him a blind man, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the village; and having spit on his eyes, he put his hands upon him, and asked him if he saw any thing.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men, as trees, walking.

25 Then he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the village, nor tell it to any in the village.

27 ¶ And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the villages of Cesarea Philippi: and on the way he asked his disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: and others, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith to them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answering, saith to him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no one concerning him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer much, and be rejected by the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and after three days arise.

35 For whoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his life, for my sake and the gospel's, he shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, and lose his life?

37 Or what ransom can a man give for his life?

38 For whoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also will the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

CHAPTER IX.

2 Jesus is transfigured. 11 He instructeth his disciples concerning the coming of Elijah: 14 casteth a dumb and deaf spirit: 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility: 33 bidding them not to prohibit such as be not against them, nor to give offence to any of the faithful.

AND he said to them, Verily, I say to you, That there are some of those standing here who shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

¶ And after six days, Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into a high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them;

3 And his garments became shining, very white, like snow; such as no fuller on earth can whiten.

4 And there appeared to them Elijah, with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answering, saith to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

6 For he knew not what to say: for they were terrified.

7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them: and a voice came from the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, on looking round, they no longer saw any one but Jesus alone with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them to relate to no one what they had seen, till the Son of man had risen from the dead.

10 And they marked the words, questioning one with another what this rising from the dead was.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elijah must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elijah indeed cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer much, and be set at nought.

13 But I say to you, That Elijah hath come, and they have done to him whatever they pleased, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And immediately all the people, when they beheld him, were filled with awe, and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Teacher, I brought to thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit:

18 And wherever it taketh him, it dasheth him to the ground; and he foameth and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away; and I spoke to thy disciples that they should cast it out, and they could not.

19 He answering, saith, O faithless generation! how long shall I be with you? how long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me.

20 And they brought him to him: and when he saw him, immediately the spirit rent him; and he fell on the ground, and rolled, foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it that this hath happened to him? And he said, From childhood.

22 And often it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said to him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And immediately the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe: help my unbelief!

25 And Jesus, seeing that the multitude came running together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit crying and rending him violently, came out of him: and he became as dead; so that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he came into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why couldst not we cast him out?

29 And he said to them, This race can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he wished that no one should know it.

31 ¶ For he taught his disciples, and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they will slay him; and being slain, he will arise on the third day.

32 But they understood not what he said, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, About what were ye disputing among yourselves by the way?

34 But they were silent: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith to them, If any one desireth to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and placed it in the midst of them: and taking it in his arms, he said to them,

37 Whoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him who sent me.

38 ¶ And John answered him, saying, Teacher, we saw one casting out demons in thy name, who followeth not us; and we forbade him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no one who shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he who is not against us, is for us.

41 ¶ For whoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 ¶ Salt is good: but if the salt lose its saltiness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace with one another.

CHAPTER X.

2 Christ disputeth with the Pharisees touching divorcement: 13 bleaseth the children that are brought to him: 17 informeth a rich man how he may inherit life everlasting: 23 telleth his disciples of the danger of riches: 28 promiseth rewards to them that forsake any thing for the gospel: 32 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 35 hideth the two ambitious suitors to think rather of suffering with him: 46 and restoreth to Bartimeus his sight.

AND arising thence, he cometh into the borders of Judea, by the farther side of the Jordan: and again multitudes resort to him; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? trying him.

3 And he answered and said to them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses permitted to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said to them, On account of your stnbornness of heart, he wrote you this precept:

6 But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.

7 Therefore shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And the two shall be one flesh. So that they are no longer two, but one flesh.

9 What, therefore, God hath joined, let not man separate.

10 And in the house his disciples again asked him concerning the same thing.

11 And he saith to them, Whoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ And they brought young children to him, that he might touch them; and his disciples rebuked those who brought them.

14 But Jesus seeing it, was displeased, and said to them, Suffer the little children to come to me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall not enter into it.

16 And he took them in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ And as he went forth into the way, one ran up, and kneeling to him, asked him, Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good, but one, that is God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said to him, Teacher, all these I have observed from my youth.

21 And Jesus looking upon him, loved him, and said to him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at his words, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jesus looking round, saith to his disciples, How hardly will those who have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus again answering, saith to them, Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished above measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all is possible.

28 ¶ Peter began to say to him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answering, said, Verily, I say to you, There is no one who hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's;

30 But shall receive an hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come, eternal life.

31 But many first will be last, and last first.

32 ¶ And they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them; and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And again he took the twelve, and began to tell them the things which were to happen to him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests, and to the scribes; and they will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles;

34 And they will scoff at him, and scourge him, and spit upon him, and slay him: and on the third day he will arise.

35 ¶ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come to him, saying, Teacher, we wish that whatever we ask, thou shouldst do for us.

36 And he said to them, What do ye wish that I should do for you?

37 They said to him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said to them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink the cup which I drink? and suffer the immersion with which I am immersed?

39 And they said to him, We can. And Jesus said to them, Ye will indeed drink the cup which I drink; and be immersed with my immersion:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left, is not mine to give, except to those for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith to them, Ye know that those who are considered rulers among the nations, exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority over them.

43 But it will not be so among you: but whoever may wish to become great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whoever of you may wish to become first, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the way-side begging.

47 And hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, Son of David, pity me!

48 And many charged him to be silent; but he cried much more, Son of David, pity me!

49 And Jesus stopped, and bade him be called: and they call the blind man, saying to him, Take courage, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he threw away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answering, saith to him, What wilt thou that I do to thee? The blind man said to him, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said to him, Go, thy faith hath healed thee. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Christ rideth with triumph into Jerusalem: 12 curseth the fruitless leafy trees: 16 purgeth the temple: 20 exhorteth his disciples to steadfastness of faith, and to forgive their enemies: 27 and defendeth the lawfulness of his actions, by the testimony of John, who was a man sent of God.

AND when they come near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith to them, Go into the village over against you: and immediately on entering it, ye will find a colt tied, on which man never sat; loose and bring him.

3 And if any one say to you, Why do ye this? say, The Lord hath need of him; and immediately he will send him hither.

4 And they went, and found the colt tied by the door without, in the street; and they loose him.

5 And some of them standing there said to them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said to them as Jesus had bidden: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and threw their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut branches from the trees, and strewed them in the way.

9 And those who preceded, and those who followed, cried, saying, Hosanna! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord!

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and having looked round upon all things, the evening being now come, he went out to Bethany, with the twelve.

12 And on the morrow, as they came from Bethany, he was hungry.

13 And seeing a fig-tree at a distance, having leaves, he came, if perhaps he might find any thing on it: and on coming to it, he found nothing but leaves: for it was not the season of figs.

14 And Jesus answering, said to it, Henceforth let none eat fruit of thee for ever! And his disciples heard it.

15 And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold and bought in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold doves;

16 And suffered not that any one should carry a vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying to them, Is it not written, My house shall be called a house of prayer for all nations? but ye have made it a den of robbers.

18 And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

19 And when it became late, he went out of the city.

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree withered up from the roots.

21 And Peter calling to mind, saith to him, Master, see, the fig-tree which thou cursedst is withered!

22 And Jesus answering, saith to them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say to you, That whosoever shall say to this mountain, Be raised and cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that what he saith will take place; he shall have what-ever he saith.

24 Therefore I say to you, All things whatever ye ask in prayer, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any one: that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

28 And say to him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus answering, said to them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 John's immersion, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me.

31 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

32 But if we say, From men; they feared the people: for all held John to be truly a prophet.

33 And they answered and said to Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering, saith to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

CHAPTER XII.

1 In a parable of the vineyard let out to unthankful husbandmen, Christ foretelleth the reprobation of the Jews, and the calling of the Gentiles. 13 He avoideth the snare of the Pharisees and Herodians about paying tribute to Cæsar: 18 convinceth the error of the Sadducees, who denied the resurrection: 28 reproveth the scribe, who questioned of the first commandment: 35 reproveth the opinion that the scribes held of Christ: 38 bidding the people to beware of their ambition and hypocrisy: 41 and commendeth the poor widow for her two mites, above all.

AND he began to say to them in parables; A man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and dug a place for the wine-vat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went abroad.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they took him, beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent to them another servant: and they threw stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing others.

6 Having still therefore his one beloved son, he sent him also to them last, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.

8 And they took and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What then will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the husbandmen, and give the vineyard to others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is wonderful in our eyes?

12 And they sought to seize him, but feared the multitude; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and departed.

13 ¶ And they send to him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to ensnare him in his words.

14 And they come and say to him, Teacher, we know that thou art true, and carest for no one: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why do ye tempt me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith to them, Whose is this image and inscription? And they said to him, Cesar's.

17 And Jesus answering, said to them, Render to Cesar that which is Cesar's, and to God that which is God's. And they wondered at him.

18 ¶ Then come to him the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Teacher, Moses directed us, If a man's brother die, and leave a wife, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring to his brother.

20 Now, there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no offspring.

21 And the second took her, and died, nor left he any offspring: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no offspring: last of all the woman died also.

23 At the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife will she be of them? for the seven had her as a wife.

24 And Jesus answering, said to them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, nor the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels in heaven.

26 And respecting the dead, that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spoke to him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore greatly err.

28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like it, namely this. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: there is no other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said to him, Well, Teacher, thou hast said with truth that there is one God; and there is no other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbour as one's self, is more than all burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

34 And Jesus seeing that he answered understandingly, said to him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no one ventured to question him further.

35 ¶ And Jesus answered and said, while teaching in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of David?

36 For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David himself therefore calleth him Lord, and whence is he his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he said to them in his teaching, Beware of the scribes, who love to walk in robes, and love salutations in the markets,

39 And the first seats in the synagogues, and the first places at feasts:

40 Who devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 ¶ And Jesus, sitting opposite the treasury, beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many rich men cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And calling to him his disciples, he saith to them, Verily, I say to you, That this poor widow hath cast in more than all who have cast into the treasury.

44 For they all cast in of their abundance: but she of her deficiency cast in all that she had, her whole living.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: 9 the persecutions for the gospel: 10 that the gospel must be preached to all nations: 14 that great calamities shall happen to the Jews: 24 and the manner of his coming to judgment: 33 the hour whereof being known to none, every man is to watch and pray, that he be not found unprovided, when he cometh to each one particularly by death.

AND as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith to him, Teacher, see what stones, and what buildings!

2 And Jesus answering, said to him, Seest thou these great buildings? there will not be left one stone on another, that is not thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, asked him privately,

4 'Tell us, when will this be? and what is the sign when all this is about to be accomplished?

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, 'Take heed lest any one lead you astray:

6 For many will come in my name, saying, I am he; and will lead astray many.

7 And when ye hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be not troubled: for this must happen; but the end is not yet.

8 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines, and commotions: 'these are the beginnings of sorrows.

9 ¶ But take heed to yourselves: for they will deliver you up to councils; and ye will be beaten in the synagogues; and ye will be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them.

10 And the good tidings must first be published among all nations.

11 And when they bring you, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak, nor premeditate: but whatever is given you in that hour, that speak: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit.

12 And the brother will deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and children will arise against their parents, and bring them to death.

13 And ye will be hated by all on account of my name: but he who endureth to the end, he shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand!) then let those in Judea flee to the mountains:

15 And let him who is on the house-top not go down into the house, nor go in to take any thing from his house:

16 And let him who is in the field not turn back to take his garment.

17 But wo to those with child, and to those who give suck in those days!

18 And pray that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days will be affliction, such as hath not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, nor shall be.

20 And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved: but for the sake of the elect, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then, if any one say to you, Lo, here is the Christ; or lo, there; believe him not.

22 For false Christs, and false prophets will arise, and will shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if possible, even the elect.

23 But do ye take heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that affliction, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven will fall, and the powers that are in heaven will be shaken.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 Precious ointment is poured on his head by a woman. 10 Judas telleth his Master for money. 12 Christ himself foretelleth how he shall be betrayed by one of his disciples: 22 after the passover prepared, and eaten, instituteth his supper: 28 declareth beforehand the fight of all his disciples, and Peter's denial. 43 Judas betrayeth him with a kiss. 46 He is apprehended in the garden, 53 falsely accused, and impiously condemned by the Jews' council: 65 shamefully abused by them: 66 and thrice denied by Peter.

AFTER two days was the passover, and the feast of unleavened bread: and the chief priests, and the scribes, sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And he being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having an alabaster-box of ointment of pure nard, very precious; and she broke the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some angry within themselves, and saying, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred s Pence, and given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 But Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath done a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and when ye will, ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come beforehand to anoint my body for the burying.

9 Verily, I say to you, Wherever these good tidings are published throughout the whole world, this also which she hath done shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests, to betray him to them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently deliver him up.

12 ¶ And on the first day of unleavened bread, when they were sacrificing the passover, his disciples said to him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith to them, Go into the city, and there will meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him:

14 And whosoever he shall go in, say to the master of the house, The Teacher saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he said to them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And at evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they reclined, and ate, Jesus said, Verily I say to you, One of you who eateth with me, will betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said to them, It is one of the twelve who dippech with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but wo to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it were good for that man if he had never been born!

22 ¶ And as they ate, Jesus took bread, and having blessed, broke it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and having given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said to them, This is my blood, that of the new covenant, which is shed for many.

25 Verily, I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And they sung an hymn, and went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith to them, Ye will all forsake me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.

28 But after I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Peter said to him, Although all shall forsake thee, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith to him, Verily, I say to thee, That to-day, on this night, before the cock crow twice, thou wilt thrice deny me.

31 But he spoke the more vehemently, If I must die with thee, I will never deny thee. And so also said they all.

32 And they came to a place named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit here, while I pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be filled with terror and anguish;

34 And saith to them, My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death: remain here, and watch.

35 And going forward a little, he fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to thee; take away this cup from me: yet, not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest thou not watch one hour?

38 Watch and pray, lest ye enter into trial. The spirit indeed is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, speaking the same words.

40 And returning, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy;) and they knew not what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith to them, Sleep on henceforth, and rest: enough! the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is delivered into the hands of sinners.

42 Arise! let us go! lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And immediately while he yet spoke, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.

44 And he who betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, is he; seize him, and lead him away safely.

45 And having come, he immediately goeth to him, and saith, Master, Master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of those who stood by, drawing his sword, struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answering, said to them, Have ye come out as against a robber, with swords and with staves to seize upon me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all left him and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body; and the young men laid hold of him.

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him assembled all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him from afar, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests, and all the council, sought for testimony against Je-

10 And in order to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many testified falsely against him, and their testimony did not agree.

57 And certain persons arising, testified falsely against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 And not even thus did their testimony agree.

60 And the high priest arising, came forward, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what do these testify against thee?

61 But he was silent, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said to him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye will see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 And the high priest, rending his clothes, saith, Why need we further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard his blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be worthy of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with their fists, and to say to him, Prophecy: and the servants struck him with their open hands.

66 And Peter being below in the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And seeing Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou wast with Jesus the Nazarene.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, nor understand what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch: and the cock crowed.

69 And a maid seeing him again, began to say to those standing by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, those who stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech sheweth it.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crowed. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said to him, Before the cock crow twice, thou wilt thrice deny me. And thinking thereon, he wept.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Jesus brought bound, and accused before Pilate. 15 Upon the clamour of the common people, the murderer Barabbas is loosed, and Jesus delivered up to be crucified. 17 He is crowned with thorns, 19 spit on, and mocked: 21 fainteth in bearing his cross: 27 hangeth between two thieves: 29 suffereth the triumphing reproaches of the Jews: 39 but confessed by the centurion to be the Son of God: 43 and is honourably buried by Joseph.

AND immediately in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and binding Jesus, carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering, said to him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him much: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how much they testify against thee!

5 But Jesus still answered nothing; so that Pilate wondered.

6 Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whomsoever they asked.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with his seditious companions, who had committed murder in their insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud, began to request him to do as he had ever done to them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Do ye wish that I release to you the King of the Jews?

10 (For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him up from envy.)

11 But the chief priests stirred up the people that he should rather release to them Barabbas.

12 And Pilate answering, said again to them, What then will ye that I do to him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him!

14 Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more vehemently, Crucify him!

15 And Pilate, wishing to satisfy the multitude, released to them Barabbas, and scourging Jesus, delivered him to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they called together the whole band;

17 And they clothed him with purple, and braided and put on him a crown of thorns,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote his head with a reed, and spit upon him, and bowing their knees, did him homage.

20 And when they had made sport with him, they took off from him the purple, and put his own garments on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who was passing by, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him to the place Golgotha, which, interpreted, is; The place of a skull.

23 And they offered him to drink, wine mingled with myrrh: but he did not take it.

24 And having nailed him to the cross, they divide his garments, casting lots upon them, what each should take.

25 And it was the third hour, when they placed him on the cross.

26 And the inscription of his accusation was written upon it, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two robbers, one on his right hand, and one on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was reckoned among transgressors.

29 And those passing by, reviled him, shaking their heads, and saying, Ha! thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,

30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross!

31 In like manner also the chief priests said scoffingly to each other, with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save!

32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And those who were crucified with him, reproached him.

33 And at the sixth hour, darkness spread over the whole land, until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lamma sabachthani? which, interpreted, is, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of those standing by, hearing it, said, Lo, he calleth Elijah.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge with vinegar, and placing it on a reed, gave him to drink, saying, Wait; let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.

37 And Jesus, sending forth a loud cry, expired.

38 And the vail of the temple was rent in two, from top to bottom.

39 ¶ And the centurion who stood opposite him, seeing that upon thus crying out, he expired, said, Truly this man was the Son of God!

40 There were also women looking on from afar, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joseph, and Salome;

41 Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered to him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

42 ¶ And now, evening coming, (because it was the preparation, that is, the evening before the Sabbath,)

43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honourable senator, who himself also was looking for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly to Pilate, and asked for the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate wondered that he was already dead; and calling to him the centurion, he asked him whether he was as yet dead.

45 And learning it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And buying fine lincn, he took him down, and wrapped him in the lincn; and he laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER XVI.

An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three women. 9 Christ himself appeareth to Mary Magdalene: 12 to two going into the country: 14 to them to the apostles, 15 whom he sendeth forth to preach the gospel: 19 and ascendeth into heaven.

AND the Sabbath being past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

3 And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the sepulchre at the rising of the sun:

3 And they said among themselves, Who will roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 (And looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled away,) for it was very great.

5 And going into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right, clothed in a white robe; and they were terrified.

6 And he saith to them, Be not terrified: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee: there will ye see him, as he said to you.

8 And going out quickly, they fled from the sepulchre; and trembling and amazement had seized on them: and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ And Jesus having risen early, on the first day of the week, appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.

10 She went and reported it to those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, hearing that he was alive, and had been seen by her, disbelieved it.

12 ¶ After that, he appeared in another form to two of them, on the road, as they were going into the country.

13 And they went and reported it to the rest: nor did they believe them.

14 ¶ Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves, as they sat at table, and reproached them with their unbelief, and obstinacy of heart, because they believed not those who had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said to them, Go into all the world, and proclaim the gospel to every creature.

16 He that believeth and is immersed, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be condemned.

17 And these signs will follow those who believe: In my name they shall cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.

19 ¶ So then, after the Lord had spoken to them, he was taken up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and proclaimed the gospel every where, the Lord working with them, and establishing their word by the miracles which accompanied it. Amen.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my lord should come to me?

44 For lo, as the voice of thy salutation came to my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And happy she who believed [that there will be a fulfilment of the things which were spoken to her by the Lord.

46 And Mary said, 'My soul magnifieth the Lord,

47 And my spirit exulteth in God my Saviour.

48 For 'he hath regarded the humble condition of his handmaiden: for behold, henceforth 'all generations will call me happy.

49 For the Almighty 'hath done to me great things; and 'holy is his name,

50 And 'his mercy is on those who fear him, from generation to generation.

51 'He sheweth strength with his arm; 'he scattereth the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 'He hurleth the mighty from their thrones, and exalteth the lowly.

53 'He filleth the hungry with good things, and the rich he sendeth away empty.

54 He aideth Israel his servant, 'remembering mercy,

55 ('As he promised our fathers,) toward Abraham, and toward his seed for ever.

56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elizabeth's time came to be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her kindred heard that the Lord had shewn her great kindness; and 'they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that 'on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they were about to call him Zachariah, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, 'No; but he shall be called John.

61 And they said to her, There is none of thy kindred who is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing-tablet, and wrote, saying, 'His name is John. And they all wondered.

64 'And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God.

65 And fear came on all who dwelt around them: and all these things were reported abroad throughout all 'the hill-country of Judea.

66 And all who heard them, 'laid them up in their hearts, saying, What will this child be! And 'the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zachariah 'was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

68 'Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, that 'he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 'And hath raised up a horn of deliverance for us, in the house of his servant David:

CHAPTER II.

1 Augustus registereth all the Roman empire. 6 The birth of Christ. 8 One angel relateth it to the shepherds: 13 many sing praises to God for it. 21 Christ is circumcised. 22 Mary purified. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesy of Christ: 40 who increaseth in wisdom, 46 questioneth in the temple with the doctors, 51 and is obedient to his parents.

AND it came to pass in those days, that 'there went forth a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the 'province should be registered.

2 ('This registering was the first which was made while Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all went to be registered, each to his own city.

4 And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to 'the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, ('because he was of the house and lineage of David,)

5 To be registered with Mary 'his espoused wife, who was with child.

6 And it happened, that while they were there, the time of her delivery came.

7 And 'she brought forth her first-born son, and swathed him, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds in the field, keeping 'watch over their flock by night.

9 And lo, an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them; 'and they feared greatly.

10 And the angel said to them, Fear not; for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, 'which will be to all the people.

11 'For there is born to you to-day, in the city of David, 'a Saviour, 'who is Christ the Lord.

12 And this is the sign to you; Ye shall find an infant swathed, lying in a manger.

13 'And suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying,

14 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth 'peace; 'good will towards men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels departed from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Come, let us go to Bethlehem, and see this thing which hath 16 And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And on seeing it, they made known what had been said to them concerning this child.

18 And all who heard it, wondered at the things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all which they had heard and seen, as it was told to them.

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was given him by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that is the first-born of his mother shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and this man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do concerning him according to the custom of the law,

28 He took him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Now, Lord, thou dismisses thy servant in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared in the presence of all people;

32 A light to enlighten the nations, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother stood wondering at the things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Behold, this child is placed for the fall and rising of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against,

35 (Nay, a sword will pierce even thine own soul); that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher: she was advanced in age, having lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about eighty-four years, who departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming up at that instant, gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and became strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, according to the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had finished the days, as they returned, the child Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew it not.

44 But, supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kindred and acquaintance.

45 And not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were struck with astonishment; and his mother said to him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I were seeking thee in anguish.

49 And he said to them, Why did ye seek me? knew ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

50 And they understood not the words which he spoke to them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them; but his mother kept all these things in her heart.

52 And Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and men.

CHAPTER III.

1 The preaching and immersion of John: 15 his testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ immersed, receiveth testimony from heaven. 23 The age, and genealogy of Christ from Joseph upwards.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zachariah in the desert.

3 And he came into all the country around the Jordan, proclaiming the immersion of repentance, for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the desert, Prepare the way of the Lord! make straight his paths!

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill made low; and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough ways smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitudes that came forth to be immersed by him, Gene-cation of vipers! who hath warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say to you, That God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

9 And even now the axe lieth at the root of the trees: every tree therefore which beareth not good fruit, is cut down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the multitudes asked him, saying, What then shall we do?

11 He answering, saith to them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him who hath none; and he who hath food, let him do in like manner.

12 And there came also publicans to be immersed, and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do?

13 And he said to them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers also asked him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Oppress and defraud no one; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all were considering in their hearts concerning John, whether he were the Christ, or not,

16 John answered them all, saying, I indeed immerse you in water; but there cometh one mightier than I, whose shoelatchet I am not worthy to unloose: he will immerse you in the Holy Spirit and fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing-floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

18 And with many other exhortations he published the good tidings to the people.

19 But Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, and concerning all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added this also to all, that he shut up John in prison.

21 Now, when all the people were immersed, it came to pass, that Jesus also being immersed, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

23 And Jesus himself was beginning to be about thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) a son of Joseph, the son of Heli,

24 The son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Janua, the son of Joseph,

25 The son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Naum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai,

26 The son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Shimei, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah,

27 The son of Joanna, the son of Reza, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Salathiel, the son of Neri,

28 The son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er,

CHAPTER IV.

1 The temptation and fasting of Christ. 13 He overcometh the devil: 14 beginneth to preach. 16 The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words. 33 He cureth one having a demon, 38 Peter's mother-in-law, 40 and cures other sick persons. 41 The demons acknowledge Christ, and are reproved for it. 43 He preacheth through the cities.

AND Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the desert,

2 Being forty days tempted by the devil AND in those days he ate nothing: and when they were ended, he was afterwards hungry.

3 And the devil said to him, If thou art the Son of God, bid this stone become bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment.

6 And the devil said to him, All this power will I give thee, and its glory: for it is delivered to me, and to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answering, said to him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and thou shalt serve him alone.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence.

10 For it is written, He will give his angels charge concerning thee, to keep thee:

11 And they will bear thee on their hands, lest thou dash thy foot upon a stone.

12 And Jesus answering, said to him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And the devil finished every temptation, departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a report concerning him through all the surrounding region.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being praised by all.

16 ¶ And he came to Nazareth, where he was brought up: and, as his custom was, he went on the Sabbath into the synagogue; and he stood up to read:

17 And there was delivered to him the book of Isaiah the prophet. And unrolling the volume, he found the place where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to publish glad tidings to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to proclaim deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty the oppressed,

19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And rolling up the volume, he returned it to the servant, and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say to them, To-day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bore witness to him, and wondered at the gracious words which issued from his mouth, and said, Is not this the son of Joseph?

23 And he said to them, Ye will surely say to me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily, I say to you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 And in truth I say to you, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there was a great famine throughout all the land:

26 But to none of them was Elijah sent, but to a widow in Zarephath of Sidon.

27 And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all in the synagogue, hearing this, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the mountain on which their city was built, in order to throw him down headlong.

30 But he, passing through the midst of them, went away.

31 And he came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the Sabbath.

32 And they were astonished at his teaching: for his word was with authority.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man having a spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Ah! what have we to do with thee, Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God!

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Be silent, and come out of him. And the demon, throwing him down in their midst, came out of him, without having harmed him.

39 And standing over her, he rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered to them.

40 ¶ And as the sun was setting, all who had any sick with various diseases, brought them to him: and he laid his hands on each one of them, and healed them.

41 And demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Christ, the Son of God! And he, rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place; and the multitudes sought him, and came to him, and would have held him, that he should not depart from them.

43 But he said to them, I must announce to other cities also the good news of the kingdom of God, for therefore am I sent.

44 And he published it in the synagogues of Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ teacheth the people out of Peter's ship: & in a miraculous taking of fishes, sheweth how he will make him and his partners fishers of men: 12 cleanseth the leper: 16 prayeth in the desert: 18 healeth a paralytic: 27 calleth Matthew the publican: 29 eateth with sinners, as being the physician of souls: 34 foretelleth the faultings and afflictions of the apostles after his ascension: 36 and likeneth faint-hearted and weak disciples to old bottles and worn garments.

AND it came to pass, that as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And entering one of the ships, which was Simon's, he prayed him to put forth a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people from the ship.

4 And as he ceased speaking, he said to Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering, said to him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing; yet, at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And having done this, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net was breaking.

7 And they beckoned to their companions in the other ship, to come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 And Simon Peter seeing it, fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For amazement had seized him and all who were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And in like manner also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Fear not: henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And they brought their ships to land, left all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst cleanse me.

13 And stretching out his hand, he touched him, saying, I will: Be cleansed. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no one: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.

15 But his fame spread abroad the more: and great multitudes came together to hear and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 But he withdrew into the solitary places, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it happened on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come from every village of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And behold, men brought on a bed a man who was paralytic: and they sought to bring him in, and lay him before him.

19 And finding no means of bringing him in, on account of the crowd, they went upon the house, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And seeing their faith, he said to him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the Scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this that uttereth blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?

22 But Jesus perceived their thoughts, and answering, said to them, Why reason ye in your hearts?

23 Which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he said to the paralytic,) I say to thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go to thine house.

25 And immediately he arose before them, and taking up that on which he lay, went away to his house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all struck with amazement, and glorified God; and they were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day!

27 ¶ And after this he went forth, and saw a publican named Levi, sitting at the custom-house: and he said to him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, arose, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house; and there was a great company of publicans, and of others who reclined with them at table.

30 But the Scribes and Pharisees of the place murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering, said to them, Those who are well need not a physician; but those who are sick.

34 And he said to them, Can ye make the sons of the bride-chamber fast while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken from them, and then they will fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spoke also a parable to them: No one putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: otherwise, the new teareth it, and the new part suiteth not the old.

37 And no one putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles will perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved.

39 And no one having drunk old wine, immediately desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees' Windiness about the observance of the Sabbath, by scrip^{tu}re, reason, and miracle: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased: 20 preacheth to his disciples before the people of blessings and curses: 27 how we must love our enemies: 46 and join the obedience of good works to the hearing of the word: test in the evil day of temptation we fall like a house built upon the fuce of the earth, without any foundation.

AND *it happened on the first Sabbath, that after the second day of the pass-over, that he went through the fields of grain; and his disciples plucked the ears of grain, and ate, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, Why do ye do that which it is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?

3 And Jesus answering them, said, Have ye then not read this, what David did, when he was hungry and those with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and took and ate the shew-bread, and gave also to those with him, which it is lawful for none to eat but the priests alone?

5 And he said to them, The Son of man is Lord also of the Sabbath.

6 And it happened also on another Sabbath, that he went into the synagogue, and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered;

7 And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, Arise, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 And Jesus said to them, I will ask you a question; Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round upon them all, he said to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored sound as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and consulted with each other what they should do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into the mountain to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called to him his disciples: and he chose from them twelve, whom also he named Apostles;

14 Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, 16 And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor.

17 And coming down with them, he stood in the plain with a crowd of his disciples, and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And those vexed by unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him; for power went forth from him, and healed them all.

20 And he raising his eyes to his disciples, said, Happy are ye poor; for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Happy ye that hunger now; for ye shall be satisfied. Happy ye that weep now; for ye shall laugh.

22 Happy are ye when men hate you, and when they separate you from them, and reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the sake of the Son of man.

23 Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy! for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the same way did their fathers to the prophets.

24 But wo to you who are rich! for ye have your consolation.

25 Wo to you who are full! for ye shall hunger. Wo to you who laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Wo to you, when men speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, 28 Bless those who curse you, and pray for those who abuse you.

29 To him who smiteth thee on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who taketh away thy cloak, do not withhold thy coat.

30 Give to every one who asketh of thee; and from him who taketh away thy goods, do not demand them back.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also in like manner to them.

32 And if ye love those who love you, what thanks have ye? for even sinners love those who love them.

33 And if ye do good to those who do good to you, what thanks have ye? for even sinners do the same.

34 And if ye lend to those from whom ye hope to receive, what thanks have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, that they may receive as much in return.

35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for no return; and your reward will be great, and ye will be sons of the Highest: for he is kind to the unthankful and evil.

36 Be therefore merciful, as also your Father is merciful.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: acquit, and ye will be acquitted:

38 Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, they will give into your bosom. For with the same measure with which ye mete, it will be measured to you again.

39 And he spoke a parable to them; Can the blind lead the blind? will not both fall into the ditch?

40 The disciple is not above his teacher: but every one shall be trained up to be as his teacher.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Or how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself seest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Hypocrite! remove first the beam from thine own eye, and then thou wilt see clearly to pull out the mote that is in the eye of thy brother.

43 For it is no good tree that beareth bad fruit; nor bad tree that beareth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by its own fruit: for they do not gather figs from thorns, nor grapes from the bramble-bush.

45 The good man, from the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good; and the evil man, from the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for from the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And why do ye call me Lord, Lord, and not do the things which I say?

47 Whoever cometh to me, and heareth my words, and doeth them, I will shew you whom he is like.

48 He is like a man building a house, who dug deep, and laid the foundation on the rock: and when the flood arose, the stream dashed upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded on the rock.

49 But he who heareth and doeth not, is like a man who built a house upon the earth, without a foundation; which, when the stream dashed against it, immediately fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ findeth greater faith in the centurion, a Gentile, than in any of the Jews: 10 healeth his servant, being absent: 11 raiseth from death the widow's son at Nain: 19 answereth John's messengers with the declaration of his miracles: 24 testifieth to the people what opinion he hold of John: 30 increaseth against the Jews, who with neither the manners of John nor of Jesus could be won: 36 and sheweth by occasion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to sinners, not to maintain them in sin, but to forgive them their sins, upon their faith and repentance.

1 Christ findeth greater faith in the centurion, a Gentile, than in any of the Jews: 10 healeth his servant, being absent: 11 raiseth from death the widow's son at Nain: 19 answereth John's messengers with the declaration of his miracles: 24 testifieth to the people what opinion he hold of John: 30 increaseth against the Jews, who with neither the manners of John nor of Jesus could be won: 36 and sheweth by occasion of Mary Magdalene, how he is a friend to sinners, not to maintain them in sin, but to forgive them their sins, upon their faith and repentance.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who

NOW, when he had finished all his discourse in the hearing of the people, he entered Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick, and about to die.

3 And hearing of Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and heal his servant.

4 And they came to Jesus, and besought him earnestly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldst do this for him:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he himself built our synagogue.

6 And Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof;

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come to thee; but speak the word, and my servant will be healed.

8 For I am a man placed under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 And Jesus hearing this, wondered at him, and turning, said to the multitude that followed him, I say to you, Not even in Israel have I found so great faith!

10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the sick servant well.

11 ¶ And it happened on the day after, that he went into a city called Naim: and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 And as he drew near the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and many people of the city were with her.

13 And the Lord seeing her, had compassion on her, and said to her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and those who bore it stopped. And he said, Young man, I say to thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak: and he delivered him to his mother.

16 And fear seized all: and they glorified God, saying, A great prophet hath arisen among us; and, God hath visited his people.

17 And this report concerning him went forth through all Judea, and through all the surrounding region.

18 And the disciples of John reported to him concerning all these things.

19 ¶ And John, calling to him two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that cometh? or look we for another?

20 And the men coming to him, said, John the Baptist hath sent us to thee, saying, Art thou he that cometh? or look we for another?

21 And at that very hour he healed many from their infirmities, and plagues, and from evil spirits; and to many that were blind he gave sight.

22 And Jesus answering, said to them, Go, and report to John what ye have seen and heard; that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, the poor receive glad tidings;

23 And happy is he, whoever is not offended in me.

1 Or, stirred.

24 ¶ And the messengers of John having departed, he began to say to the people concerning John, What went ye out into the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, those who wear gorgeous apparel, and live in luxury, are in palaces.

26 But what went ye out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and far more than a prophet!

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thee, who shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say to you, Among those born of women, there is no greater prophet than John the Baptist: but the least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he.

29 And all the people, hearing him, and the publicans, justified God, submitting to the immersion of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers sect at nought the purpose of God with regard to themselves, not being immersed by him.

31 ¶ To what then shall I liken the men of this generation? and what are they like?

32 They are like children sitting in the market, and calling to each other, and saying, We have piped for you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned for you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a glutton, and a wine-drinker, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But Wisdom is justified by all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and reclined at table.

37 And behold, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, learning that Jesus was at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment.

38 And standing at his feet behind him, weeping, began to bathe his feet with tears; and she wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 And the Pharisee who had bidden him, seeing it, spoke within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would know who, and what sort of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering, said to him, Simon, I have something to say to thee. And he saith, Teacher, speak.

41 A certain creditor had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And they being unable to pay, he freely gave it to them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 And Simon answering, said, I suppose that he, to whom he gave most. And he said to him, Thou hast judged rightly.

44 And turning to the woman, he said to Simon, Seest thou this woman? I came into thine house; thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath bathed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but she, from the time that I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 'Thou didst not anoint my head with oil: but she hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 'Wherefore, I say to thee, Her many sins are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, he loveth little.

48 And he said to her, 'Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And those who were at table with him, began to say within themselves, 'Who is this who even forgiveth sins?

50 And he said to the woman, 'Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

CHAPTER VIII.

3 Women minister to Christ of their substance. 4 Christ, after he had preached from place to place, attended with his apostles, propounded the parable of the sower, 16 and of the lamps: 21 declareth who are his mother, and brethren: 23 rebuketh the winds: 26 casteth the legion of demons out of the man into the herd of swine: 37 is rejected by the Gadarenes: 43 healeth the woman of her bloody issue, 49 and raiseth from death Jairus' daughter.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went through cities and villages, proclaiming the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And 'certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, 'from whom had gone out seven demons,

3 And Joanna, wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered to him from their possessions.

4 'And a great multitude assembling, and those from the cities coming to him, he spake by a parable:

5 The sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way-side; and it was trodden down, and the birds of heaven devoured it.

6 And some fell on the rock; and springing up, it withered for the want of moisture.

7 And some fell among the thorns; and the thorns growing up with it, choked it.

8 And other fell on the good ground, and springing up, bore fruit an hundred-fold. Saying this, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear!

9 'And his disciples asked him, saying, What doth this parable mean?

10 And he said, To you it is given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God: but to the rest I speak in parables; 'that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way-side, are those who hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word from their hearts, lest they believe and be saved.

13 Those on the rock are they, who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of trial fall away.

14 And that which fell among the thorns, these are they who, having heard, go forth, and are choked by cares, and riches, and pleasures of life, and bear no mature fruit.

15 But that on the good ground are they who, in a good and upright heart, hearing, hold fast the word, and bear fruit with perseverance.

16 ¶ 'No one lighteth a lamp and covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but placeth it on a stand, that those who enter may see the light.

17 'For nothing is hidden, that will not become manifest; nor concealed, that will not be known, and come to light.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: 'for whoever hath, to him shall be given; and whoever hath not, from him shall be taken even what he thinketh he hath.

19 ¶ 'And his mother and his brethren came to him, and could not get near him on account of the crowd.

20 And it was told him by some, who said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said to them, My mother and my brethren are those who hear and do the word of God.

22 ¶ 'And it happened on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said to them, Let us go across the lake. And they set sail.

23 But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filling with water, and were in peril.

24 And they came up, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master! we perish! And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said to them, Where is your faith? And they, struck with fear, wondered, saying one to another, Who then is this, that he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ 'And they sailed to the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And as he went forth to land, a certain man from the city met him, who had demons for a long time, and wore no clothes, nor remained in any house, but in the tombs.

28 And seeing Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and said with a loud voice, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For often it had seized him: and he was bound with chains and fetters, and guarded; and bursting the bands, he was driven by the demon into the deserts.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many demons had entered into him.

31 And they besought him not to command them to go 'into the abyss.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they entreated him to permit them to enter into them. And he permitted them.

33 And the demons going out of the man, entered into the swine: and the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and were choked.

34 And those who fed them seeing what was done, fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 And they went out to see what had happened; and came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone forth, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus: and they were afraid.

36 And those who saw it, told them how the demoniac was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them; for they were struck with great fear. And he entered the ship and returned.

38 But the man from whom the demons had gone out, prayed that he might remain with him. But Jesus dismissed him, saying, 39 Return to thy house, and relate how great things God hath done for thee. And he went away and published through the whole city, how great things Jesus had done for him.

40 And it came to pass, when Jesus returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and falling at the feet of Jesus, he entreated him to come into his house:

42 For he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitude thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, and could be healed by none,

44 Came behind him and touched the fringe of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stopped.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? And all denying, Peter, and those with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Some one touched me: for I felt that power went forth from me.

47 And the woman seeing that she was not unknown, came trembling, fell down before him, and declared to him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said to her, Take courage, daughter: thy faith hath healed thee; go in peace.

49 ¶ While he was still speaking, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead: trouble not the Teacher.

50 But Jesus hearing it, answered him, saying, Fear not: only believe, and she shall be restored.

51 And coming into the house, he suffered no one to go in, except Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And they were all weeping and bewailing her. But he said, Weep not: she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he, putting them all out, took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maiden, arise.

55 And her spirit returned, and she immediately arose: and he directed to give her food.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Christ sendeth his apostles to work miracles, and to preach. 7 Herod desired to see Christ. 17 Christ feedeth five thousand: 18 inquireth what opinion the world had of him: foretelleth his suffering: 23 propoeth to all the pattern of his patience. 28 The transfiguration. 37 He healeth the tunatic: 43 again forewarneth his disciples of his suffering: 46 commendeth humility: 61 biddeh them to shew mildness towards all, without desire of revenge. 57 Divers would follow him, but upon conditions.

AND calling together his twelve disciples, he gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to heal diseases.

2 And he sent them forth to proclaim the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said to them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor sack, nor bread, nor money; nor have two coats apiece.

4 And whatever house ye enter, there remain, and thence go forth.

5 And whoever do not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And going forth, they went through the villages, publishing the good news, and healing every where.

7 ¶ And Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because it was said by some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And by others, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets had arisen.

9 And Herod said, John I beheaded; but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles returning, recounted to him all that they had done. And he took them, and retired privately into a desert place, near the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and receiving them, he spoke to them concerning the kingdom of God, and healed those who had need of healing.

12 But the day began to decline; and the twelve coming up, said to him, Dismiss the multitude, that they may go into the surrounding villages and country, to lodge and get provisions: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said to them, Do ye give them to eat. And they said, We have not more than five loaves and two fishes; unless we go and buy food for all this people.

14 (For they were about five thousand men.) And he said to his disciples, Let them recline in companies of fifty.

15 And they did so, and made them all recline.

16 And taking the five loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed them; and he broke, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they ate, and were all satisfied: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him; and he asked them, saying, Who say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and others, That one of the old prophets is arisen.

20 He said to them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, The Christ of God.

21 And he strictly charged them, and commanded them to tell this to no one,

22 Saying, The Son of man must suffer much, and be rejected by the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and rise on the third day.

23 And he said to them all, If any one will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whoever will save his life, shall lose it: and whoever shall lose his life for my sake, he will save it.

25 For what is a man benefited, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whoever is ashamed of me, and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and that of his Father, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who shall not taste of death till they see the kingdom of God.

28 And it came to pass, about eight days after these words, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into the mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the appearance of his countenance was altered, and his raiment became white and glistening.

30 And lo, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah:

31 Who appearing in glory, spoke of his departure which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and those with him had been oppressed with sleep: and awaking, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said.

34 While he said this, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice from the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And as the voice came, Jesus was found alone. And they were silent, and told no one in those days any thing of what they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, as they came down from the mountain, a great multitude met him.

38 And lo, a man from the multitude cried out, saying, Teacher, I beseech thee look upon my son; for he is my only child.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it rendeth him, with foaming, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I entreated thy disciples to cast it out, and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation! how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet coming, the demon threw him down and rent him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and restored him to his father.

43 And all were struck with astonishment at the mighty power of God. But as they were all wondering at every thing which Jesus did, he said to his disciples, 44 Receive these words into your ears: the Son of man is about to be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this language, and it was hidden from them, so that they did not comprehend it: and they feared to ask him concerning these words.

46 And there arose a debate among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said to them, Whoever receiveth this child in my name, receiveth me; and whoever receiveth me, receiveth him who sent me: for he that is least among you all, he will be great.

49 And John answering, said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said to him, Forbid him not: for he who is not against us, is for us.

51 And it came to pass, as the time of his ascension was approaching, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

52 And he sent messengers before him, who went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was turned toward Jerusalem.

54 And his disciples, James and John, seeing it, said, Lord, wilt thou that we bid fire to descend from heaven, and consume them, as Elijah did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, saying, Ye know not of what spirit ye are.

56 For the Son of man came not to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 And it happened, as they were going on the way, a certain man said to him, Lord, I will follow thee wherever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said to him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of heaven dwelling-places, but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said to another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said to him, Let the dead bury their own dead: but do thou go and announce the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but first permit me to take leave of my family.

62 And Jesus said to him, No one who putteth his hand to the plough, and looketh back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER X.

1 Christ sendeth out at once seventy disciples to work miracles, and to preach: 17 admonisheth them to be

29 preacheth to the people, 31 and reprehendeth the outward shew of holiness in the Pharisees, scribes, and lawyers.

AND it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, as also John taught his disciples.

2 And he said to them, When ye pray, say, Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

3 Give us [day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one who is indebted to us. And lead us not into trial; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said to them, Who of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves:

6 For a friend of mine hath come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say to you; Even though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet at least on account of his importunity he will rise and give him whatever he needeth.

9 And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you.

10 For every one that asketh, receiveth; and that seeketh, findeth; and that knocketh, to him it shall be opened.

11 And what father among you, if his son shall ask bread, will give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he ask an egg, will give him a scorpion?

13 If then ye, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children: how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!

14 ¶ And he was casting out a demon, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, that when the demon was gone out, the dumb man spoke; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out demons by Beelzebub, prince of the demons.

16 And others trying him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself, is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house, falleth.

18 And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? for ye say that I cast out demons by Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

20 But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then the kingdom of God is come to you.

21 When the strong man, being armed, guardeth his palace, his possessions are secure:

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of the man, it goeth through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, it saith, I will return to my house whence I came out;

25 And coming, findeth it swept and furnished.

26 Then it goeth, and taketh seven other spirits more wicked than itself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it happened, as he was saying this, a certain woman from the crowd, raising her voice, said to him, Happy the womb that bore thee, and the breasts which thou hast sucked!

28 But he said, Yea indeed, happy are they who hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ And the multitude crowding round him, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given them, but the sign of the prophet Jonah.

30 For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south will arise in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the extremities of the earth, to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and lo, here is a greater than Solomon.

32 The men of Nineveh will arise in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn it: for they repented at the warning of Jonah; and lo, here is a greater than Jonah.

33 No one lighting a lamp, putteth it in a secret place, nor under the measure, but on the stand, that those who come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: when therefore thine eye is sound, thy whole body also is enlightened; but when it is diseased, thy body also is dark.

35 Take heed, then, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore is enlightened, having no part dark, the whole will be enlightened, as when the bright shining of a lamp giveth thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him: and he went in and reclined at table.

38 And the Pharisee seeing it, wondered that he did not bathe himself before dinner.

39 And the Lord said to him, Now ye Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of rapine and wickedness.

40 Fools! did not he who made the outside, make also the inside?

41 But give what is within them as alms, and behold, all is clean to you.

42 But wo to you, Pharisees! for ye tithe the mint, and rue, and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God: This ye ought to have done, and not have left the other undone.

43 Wo to you, Pharisees! for ye love the first seats in the synagogues, and consultations in the markets.

44 Wo to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unseen sepulchres, over which men walk and know it not!

45 ¶ And one of the lawyers, answering, saith to him, Teacher, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, And wo to you, lawyers! for ye load men with intolerable burdens, and yourselves will not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Wo to you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers slew them.

48 So then ye attest and approve the deeds of your fathers: for they slew them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and these they will slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the temple: verily, I say to you, It will be required of this generation.

52 Wo to you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye enter not yourselves, and those who are entering ye hinder.

53 And as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be greatly embittered toward him, and to press him with many questions;

54 Laying snares for him, and seeking to catch something from his mouth, that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisy, and fearfulness in publishing his doctrine: 13 warneth the people to beware of covetousness, by the parable of the rich man who set up greater barns. 22 We must not be over careful of earthly things, 31 but seek the kingdom of God, 33 give alms, 36 be ready at a knock to open to our Lord whenever he cometh. 41 Christ's ministers are to see to their charge, 49 and look for persecution. 54 The people must take this time of grace, 58 because it is a fearful thing to die without reconciliation.

MEANWHILE the people having assembled by thousands, so that they trod on one another, he began to say to his disciples first of all, Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; nor hidden, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore, what ye have said in darkness, will be heard in the light; and what ye have spoken in the ear in closets, will be proclaimed on the house-tops.

4 And I say to you, my friends, Fear not those who kill the body, and after that, can do no more.

5 But I will warn you whom to fear: Fear him who, after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say to you, Fear him!

8 And I say to you, Whoever shall acknowledge me before men, him will also the Son of man acknowledge before the angels of God.

9 But he that denieth me before men, will be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it will be forgiven him: but he who revileth the Holy Spirit, will not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you before the synagogues, and magistrates, and powers, be not anxious how or what ye shall say in your defence:

12 For the Holy Spirit will teach you at that hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the multitude said to him, Teacher, bid my brother divide with me the inheritance.

14 And he said to him, Man, who made me a judge, or a divider over you?

15 And he said to them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of his possessions.

16 And he spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, for I know not where I shall store my fruits?

18 And he said, I will do this: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there I will store all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast abundant goods laid up for many years; rest, eat, drink, be merry.

20 But God said to him, Fool! this night thy soul is required of thee: and who shall have what thou hast provided?

21 Thus is he who gathereth treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.

22 ¶ And he said to his disciples, Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat; nor for your body, how ye shall be clothed.

23 The life is more than food, and the body than clothing.

24 Observe the ravens. They neither sow nor reap: they have neither storehouse, nor barn; and God feedeth them. How much better are ye than the birds!

25 And who of you, by being anxious, can add a span to his life?

26 If then ye cannot do even the least, why are ye anxious about the rest?

27 Observe the lilies how they grow. They toil not, they spin not; yet I say to you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothes the grass in the field, which to-day is, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, ye of little faith!

29 And seek ye not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, and be not of doubtful mind.

30 For after all these things do the nations of the world seek: and your Father knoweth that ye need these things.

31 ¶ But seek the kingdom of God, and all these things will be added to you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 'Sell your possessions, and give alms: provide yourselves purses which grow not old, an unfailling treasure in the heavens, where no thief approacheth, nor moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 'Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;

36 And ye like men waiting for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may immediately open to him.

37 'Happy those servants, whom their lord when he cometh shall find watching! Verily, I say to you, that he will gird himself, and make them to recline at table, and will come and serve them.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, happy are those servants.

39 'But know this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 'Be ye therefore ready: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said to him, Lord, speakest thou this parable to us, or also to all?

42 And the Lord said, 'Who then is the faithful and prudent steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the season?

43 Happy is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 'Truly I say to you, that he will set him over all his possessions.

45 'But if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and begin to beat the men-servants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, and be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour that he is not aware of, and will smite him asunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unfaithful.

47 And that servant who knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, nor did according to his will, will receive many stripes.

48 'But he that knew not, and did things worthy of stripes, will receive few stripes. For to whomsoever much is given, of him much will be required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ 'I came to send fire on the earth, and how would I that it were already kindled!

50 But 'I have an immersion to undergo; and how am I distressed until it is accomplished!

51 'Think ye that I came to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but division:

52 'For henceforth there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 Father will be divided against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, 'When ye see a cloud rising from the west, immediately ye say, There cometh rain; and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 Hypocrites! ye can distinguish the face of the earth and the sky; and how is it that ye do not distinguish this time?

57 ¶ And why do ye not of yourselves decide according to justice?

58 'For when thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, endeavour on the way to be delivered from him; lest he drag thee before the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer throw thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou wilt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid even the last mite.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Christ preacheth repentance upon the punishment of the Galileans, and others. 6 The fruitless fig-tree may not stand, 11 He healeth the crooked woman: 18 sheweth the powerful working of the word in the hearts of his chosen, by the parable of the grain of mustard-seed, and of leaven: 24 exhorteth to enter in at the strait gate, 31 and reproveth Herod and Jerusalem.

THERE were present at that season some who reported to him concerning the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering, said to them, Think ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay; but unless ye repent, ye will all in like manner perish.

4 Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men who dwell in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay; but unless ye repent, ye will all in like manner perish.

6 ¶ And he spoke this parable: 'A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none.

7 And he said to the vine-dresser, Behold, three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none; cut it down; why doth it also encumber the ground?

8 And he answering, said to him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well; and if not, afterward thou shalt cut it down.

10 ¶ And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

11 And lo, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bent together, and could not raise herself.

12 And Jesus seeing her, called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art released from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and she immediately stood erect, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue being indignant that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, answering, said to the people, 'There are six days in which we should work: in these then come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Hypocrite! doth not each of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to drink?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?

17 And as he said this, all his opposers were ashamed: and all the multitude rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ And he said, What is the kingdom of God like? and to what shall I liken it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and threw into his garden, and it grew, and became a great tree; and the birds of heaven lodged in its branches.

20 And again he said, To what shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 ¶ And he was passing through cities and villages, teaching, and making his journey toward Jerusalem.

23 ¶ And some one said to him, Lord, are there few who are saved? And he said to them, 24 Strive to enter through the strait gate: for many, I say to you, will seek to enter, and will not be able.

25 ¶ When once the Master of the house hath arisen, and shut the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us; he will answer and say to you, I know you not whence ye are.

26 Then ye will begin to say, We ate and drank in thy presence, and thou taughtest in our streets.

27 ¶ But he will say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of unrighteousness.

28 ¶ There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves thrust out.

29 And they will come from the east and west, and from the north and south, and will recline at table in the kingdom of God.

30 ¶ And behold, there are last, who will be first; and there are first, who will be last.

31 ¶ On that day there came certain Pharisees, saying to him, Go forth, and depart hence; for Herod wisheth to kill thee.

32 And he said to them, Go and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out demons, and perform cures to-day and to-morrow, and on the third day my work is finished.

33 Yet, I must go on to-day and to-morrow, and the day following: for it may not be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 Jerusalem! Jerusalem! that killest the prophets, and stonest those who are sent to thee; how often would I have gathered thy children, as a hen gathereth her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your house is left to you desolate. And verily, I say to you, Ye shall

CHAPTER XIV.

2 Christ healeth the dropsy on the Sabbath: 7 teacheth humility: 13 to feast the poor: 15 under the parable of the great supper, sheweth how worldly minded men, who contemn the word of God, shall be shut out of heaven. 25 Those who will be his disciples, to bear their cross must make their accounts beforehand, lest with shame they revolt from him afterwards, 34 and become altogether unprofitable, like salt that hath lost its savour.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certain man before him, who had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?

4 And they were silent. And taking hold of him, he healed and dismissed him.

5 And he answered them, saying, Who of you, if his ass or ox fall into a pit, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath?

6 And they could not answer him to this.

7 ¶ And he spoke a parable to the guests, observing how they chose out the first seats; saying to them,

8 When thou art invited by any one to a marriage-feast, do not recline on the first seat, lest a more honourable man than thou have been invited by him;

9 And he who invited thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest place.

10 ¶ But when thou art invited, go and recline in the lowest place; that when he who invited thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then thou wilt have honour in the presence of the guests.

11 ¶ For every one that exalteth himself will be humbled, and that humbleth himself will be exalted.

12 ¶ And he said also to him who had invited him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, nor thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also invite thee in return, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind;

14 And thou wilt be happy: for they cannot recompense thee: for thou wilt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And one of the guests hearing this, said to him, Happy he who shall eat bread in the kingdom of God!

16 ¶ And he said to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many:

17 And sent his servant at supper-time, to say to those who were invited, Come, for all is now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, I have bought a field, and must go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife: and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and reported this to his lord. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor and maimed and lame and blind.

22 And the servant said, Sir, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And his lord said to the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say to you, that none of those men who have been invited, shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And great multitudes accompanied him: and he turned, and said to them,

26 If any one come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, and further, even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For who of you wishing to build a tower, doth not first sit down and count the cost, whether he have enough to finish it?

29 Lest perchance, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all who behold it begin to deride him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king going to engage in battle with another king, doth not first sit down and consult whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who is coming against him with twenty thousand?

32 Else, while the other is yet at a distance, he sendeth an embassy, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, no one of you who forsaketh not all that he hath, can be my disciple.

34 ¶ Salt is good: but if the salt become insipid, with what shall it be seasoned?

35 It is fit neither for the land, nor for the dunghill. They cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear!

CHAPTER XV.

1 The parable of the lost sheep: 8 of the piece of silver: 11 of the prodigal son.

AND all the publicans and sinners were coming near to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spoke to them this parable, saying,

4 What man of you having a hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety-nine in the desert, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And having found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And coming home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my lost sheep!

7 I say to you, that thus there will be joy in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance.

10 Thus, I say to you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of property that falleth to me. And he divided to them his living.

13 And not many days after, the younger son gathering all together, went away into a distant country, and there wasted his property in riotous living.

14 And he having spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the pods which the swine ate; and no one gave to him.

17 And coming to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's abound in bread, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee.

19 And am no longer worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But while he was still afar off, his father saw him, and had compassion; and he ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against Heaven, and in thy sight, and am no longer worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew near the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 And calling one of the servants, he asked what this meant.

27 And he said to him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in; therefore his father came out, and entreated him.

29 And he answering, said to his father, Lo, so many years do I serve thee, and never transgressed thy commandment; yet to me thou never gavest a kid, that I might make merry with my friends;

30 But when this thy son is come, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf!

31 But he said to him, Son, thou art ever with me; and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisee. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also to his disciples, There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and he was accused to him of wasting his possessions.

2 And he called him, and said to him, What is this that I hear of thee? render an account of thy stewardship: for thou canst be steward no longer.

3 And the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg.

4 I have resolved what to do, that when I am removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So calling to him each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much owest thou to my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then he said to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and write eighty.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done prudently: for the sons of this world are in their generation more prudent than the sons of light.

9 And I say to you, Make to yourselves friends by means of the unrighteous mammon; that when ye leave it, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He who is faithful in the least, is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If then ye were not faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will entrust to you the true?

12 And if ye were not faithful in that which is another's, who will give you your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for he will either hate the one, and love the other, or hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things, and they derided him.

15 And he said to them, Ye are those who justify themselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is announced, and every one presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than for one particle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marieth another, committeth adultery; and whosoever marieth her who is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, who

20 And there was a certain poor man named Lazarus, who lay at his gate, full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: nay, even the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the poor man died, and was carried by the angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died, and was buried:

23 And in the lower world raising his eyes, being in torments, he seeth Abraham at a distance, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, pity me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life receivedst thy good things, and Lazarus in like manner his evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that those who would pass from hence to you, cannot; nor those from thence pass over to us.

27 And he said, I pray thee then, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith to him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one go to them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said to him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rise from the dead.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of sin. 3 One to forgive another. 6 The power of faith. 7 How we are bound to God, and not he to us. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man.

AND he said to the disciples, It is impossible but that occasions of sin will come: but wo to him through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hung about his neck, and he thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to sin.

3 Take heed to yourselves: But if thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said to the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say to this sycamine-tree, Be rooted up, and planted in the sea; and it would obey you.

7 And who of you having a servant ploughing, or feeding cattle, will say to him, as he cometh from the field, Go immediately and recline at table?

8 But will not rather say to him, Make ready my supper, and gird thyself, and serve me, while I eat and drink; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Dost he thank that servant, because he did what was commanded him? I think not.

10 Thus also ye, when ye shall have done all which is commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done but what we were bound to do.

11 ¶ And it happened, as he was going to Jerusalem, that he went through Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entered a certain village, ten lepers met him, who stood at a distance;

13 And they raised their voices, saying, Jesus, Master, pity us!

14 And seeing them, he said, Go shew yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass, as they were going, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, seeing that he was healed, returned, with a loud voice glorifying God;

16 And fell on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering, said, Were not the ten cleansed? and where are the nine?

18 Were there none found to return and give glory to God, except this stranger?

19 ¶ And he said to him, Arise and go; thy faith hath healed thee.

20 ¶ And being asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God cometh, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation.

21 Nor will they say, Lo here! or, Lo there! for behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

22 And he said to the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye will not see it.

23 And they will say to you, Lo here! or, Lo there! go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning which flasheth from one part of heaven shineth to the other; so also will the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first he must suffer much, and be rejected by this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They were eating, drinking, marrying, given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark; and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 In like manner also as it was in the days of Lot: they were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building;

29 But on the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all:

30 So will it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 On that day, he who is on the housetop, and his furniture in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he who is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember the wife of Lot.

33 Whoever shall seek to save his life, will lose it; and whoever shall lose his life, will preserve it.

34 I say to you, in that night there will be two in one bed; one will be taken, and the other left.

CHAPTER XVIII.

3 Of the importunate widow. 9 Of the Pharisee and the publican. 15 Children brought to Christ. 18 A ruler that would follow Christ, but is hindered by his riches. 29 The reward of them that leave all for his sake. 31 He foreteweth his death, 35 and restoreth a blind man to his sight.

AND he spoke also a parable to them, A shewing that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a certain city a judge, who feared not God, nor regarded man.

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she used to come to him, saying, Do me justice on my adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet, because this widow troubleth me, I will do her justice, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And will not God avenge his own elect, who cry to him day and night, though he suffer long in respect to them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. But will the Son of man, when he cometh, find faith on the earth?

9 And he spoke this parable to some who believed themselves to be righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men, rapacious, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off would not even raise his eyes to heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for whoever exalteth himself will be humbled, and whoever humbleth himself will be exalted.

15 And they brought to him also their infants, that he would touch them: but his disciples seeing it, rebuked them.

16 But Jesus calling them to him, said, Suffer the little children to come to me, and do not forbid them: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily, I say to you, Whoever doth not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall by no means enter into it.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good, but one, that is God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments,

*Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false testimony, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth.

22 And Jesus hearing this, said to him, Thou still lackest one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And on hearing this, he became very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And Jesus seeing that he became very sorrowful, said, How hardly will those who have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.

26 And those who heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, What is impossible with men, is possible with God.

28 And Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said to them, Verily, I say to you, There is no one who hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come everlasting life.

31 ¶ And taking the twelve, he said to them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all that is written by the prophets will be accomplished on the Son of man.

32 For the will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be scoffed at, and abused, and spit upon;

33 And they will scourge and slay him: and on the third day he will arise,

34 And they comprehended none of these things: and this language was hidden from them, and they understood not what was spoken.

35 ¶ And it happened, as he came near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the way-side begging;

36 And hearing a multitude passing along, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth was going by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus, son of David, pity me!

39 And those who proceeded charged him to be silent: but he cried the more, Son of David, pity me!

40 And Jesus stopping, directed him to be brought to him: and as he came near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I do for thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said to him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath healed thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people saw it, and gave praise to God.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 Of Zaccheus a publican. 11 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem with triumph: 41 weepeth over it: 45 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple: 47 teaching daily to it. The rulers would have destroyed him, but for fear of the people.

AND he entered and was passing through Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, who was a chief publican; and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was small of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore-tree to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said to him, Zaccheus, hasten, and come down: for today I must remain in thy house.

6 And he hastened, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And they all saw it, and murmured, saying, He is gone to be a guest with a sinner.

8 And Zaccheus stood, and said to the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my possessions I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded any one in any thing, I restore him four-fold.

9 And Jesus said to him, To-day salvation is come to this house, inasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man came to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard this, he added and spoke a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they thought that the kingdom of God would immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a distant country to obtain the sovereignty, and then return.

13 And calling his ten servants, he delivered to them ten pounds, and said to them, Trade with these till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent an embassy after him, saying, We wish not this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he returned, having received the sovereignty, he bade these servants be called to him, to whom he gave the money, that he might know what each had gained by trading.

16 And the first came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said to him, Well done, good servant! because thou wert faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, And be thou over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a severe man: thou takest up what thou layest not down, and reapest what thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith to him, From thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant! Thou knewest that I was a severe man, taking up what I laid not down, and reaping what I did not sow?

23 Why then didst thou not give my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have exacted it with interest?

24 And he said to those standing by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him who hath the ten pounds.

25 (And they said to him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say to you, That to every one who hath, shall be given; and from him who hath not, even what he hath shall be taken from him.

27 But those mine enemies, who would not have me reign over them, bring here, and slaughter in my presence.

28 ¶ Having thus spoken, he went on before them, ascending to Jerusalem.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, as he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mountain called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go into the village over against you; in which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, on which no man ever sat: loose and bring him.

31 And if any one ask you, Why do ye loose him? ye shall say thus to him, The Lord hath need of him.

32 And those who were sent went, and found it as he had said to them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, its owners said to them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they threw their garments upon the colt, and set Jesus upon him.

36 ¶ And as he went, they spread their garments in the way.

37 And he being now come near, at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works which they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be the King who cometh in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said to him, Teacher, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said to them, I tell you, that if these are silent, the stones will cry out.

41 ¶ And as he drew near, and saw the city, he wept over it,

42 Saying, Didst thou but know, at least in this thy day, the things which belong to thy peace! but now they are hidden from thine eyes.

43 For the days will come upon thee, when thine enemies will throw a trench about thee, and encircle thee, and shut thee in on every side, 44 And level thee with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they will not leave in thee one stone upon another: because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ¶ And he went into the temple, and began to cast out those who sold and bought in it,

46 Saying to them, It is written, My house is a house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of robbers.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests, and the scribes, and the chief men of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they should do: for all the people hung upon his lips.

the Success that denied the resurrection. 41 How Christ is the Son of David. 46 He warneth his disciples to beware of the scribes.

AND it happened, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and published the glad tidings, the chief priests and the scribes, with the elders, came up,

2 And spoke to him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou this? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answering, said to them, I also will ask you one question; and answer me:

4 John's immersion, was it from heaven, or from men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

6 And if we say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, That they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do this.

9 And he began to speak to the people this parable: A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it out to husbandmen, and went abroad for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be that when they see him, they will reverence him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What then will the lord of the vineyard do to them?

16 He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and give the vineyard to others. And hearing it, they said, God forbid!

17 But he looked at them, and said, What then is this that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, this is become the head of the corner?

18 Whoever falleth on that stone will be dashed in pieces: but whosoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes at that same hour sought to lay hands on him: and they feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ¶ And they watched him, and sent forth spies, who should feign themselves righteous, that they might lay hold of his words, in order to deliver him to the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, we know that thou speakest and teachest rightly, and acceptest no one's person, but teachest truly the way of God:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Cesar, or not?

23 But perceiving their craftiness, he said to them, Why do ye try me?

24 Shew me a ppeny. Whose image and inscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar's.

25 And he said to them, Render therefore to Cesar that which is Cesar's, and to God that which is God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and wondering at his answer, they were silent.

27 ¶ And some of the Sadducees came up (who deny that there is a resurrection) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Teacher, Moses directed us in the law, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die childless, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring to his brother.

29 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died childless.

30 And the second took his wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner also the seven: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Now in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for the seven had her as a wife.

34 And Jesus answering, said to them, The sons of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But those who are deemed worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 For they cannot die any more: for they are like the angels; and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

37 But that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 But he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live to him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Teacher, thou hast well said.

40 And they no longer ventured to question him at all.

41 And he said to them, How do they say that the Christ is the son of David?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool. 44 David therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he his son?

45 ¶ Then in the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples,

46 Beware of the scribes, who delight to walk in robes, and love salutations in the streets, and the first seats in the synagogues, and the first places at feasts;

47 Who devour the houses of widows, and for a shew make long prayers: these will receive greater punishment.

3 And he said, Truly I say to you, That this poor widow hath cast in more than all.

4 For all these of their abundance threw in to the offerings of God: but she of her deficiency threw in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And as some saith of the temple, that it was adorned with beautiful stones, and offerings, he said,

6 As to these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which there will not be left one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Teacher, when will this be? and what is the sign when this is about to happen?

8 And he said, Take heed lest ye be led astray: for many will come in my name, saying, I am he; and the time is near: do not then go after them.

9 But when ye hear of wars, and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first happen; but the end is not immediately.

10 Then he said to them, Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines, and pestilences: and there will be fearful sights, and great signs from heaven.

12 But before all this they will lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you to synagogues, and prisons, and bringing you before kings and rulers on account of my name.

13 And it will turn out to you as a means of testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate beforehand how ye shall defend yourselves.

15 For I will give you utterance and wisdom, which all your opposers will not be able to gainsay or resist.

16 And ye will be betrayed by parents, and brethren, and kindred, and friends; and some of you they will put to death.

17 And ye will be hated by all on account of my name.

18 But there shall not a hair of your head perish.

19 By your steadfastness preserve your lives.

20 But when ye see Jerusalem encircled by armies, then know that its desolation is near.

21 Then let those in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let those in the midst of it depart out; and let those in the country not enter into it.

22 For these are days of vengeance, that all that is written may be accomplished.

23 But wo to those who are with child, and to those giving suck in those days: for there will be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be led captive among all nations: and Jerusalem will be trodden by the nations, until the times of the nations are fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; and on the earth distress of nations, amid perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; his sack: and he who hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say to you, that this which is written must yet be accomplished in me, 'And he was reckoned among transgressors: for the things written concerning me are to be fulfilled.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said to them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And going out, he went, as he was accustomed, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And coming to the place, he said to them, Pray that ye enter not into trial.

41 And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, remove this cup from me: yet, not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling to the ground.

45 And he arose from prayer, and coming to his disciples, found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said to them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into trial.

47 ¶ And while he was still speaking, behold a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near to Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said to him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 And those about him, seeing what was to happen, said to him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answering, said, Let this suffice. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said to the chief priests, and officers of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, Have ye come out as against a robber, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye did not stretch forth your hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness!

54 ¶ And having seized upon him, they led him away, and brought him into the house of the high priest. And Peter followed at a distance.

55 And kindling a fire in the midst of the court, they sat down together, and Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid saw him sitting by the fire, and fixing her eyes upon him, said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I do not know him.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou also art of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about an hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, In truth this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, the cock crowed.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter called to mind the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, 'Before the cock crow, thou wilt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter went out and wept bitterly. 63 ¶ And the men who held Jesus, were scoffing at, and beating him.

64 And having blindfolded him, they kept striking him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that struck thee?

65 And many other things they spoke revilingly against him.

66 ¶ And when it was day, the elders of the people, with the chief priests and scribes, came together, and led him into their council,

67 Saying, Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said to them, If I tell you, ye will not believe.

68 And if I also question you, ye will not answer me, nor release me.

69 Henceforth will the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 And they all said, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said to them, ¶ Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, Why need we further testimony? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, and sent to Herod. 8 Herod mocketh him. 12 Herod and Pilate are made friends. 13 Barabbas is desired by the people, and is loosed by Pilate, and Jesus is given to be crucified. 21 He telleth the women, that lament him, the destruction of Jerusalem: 31 prayeth for his enemies. 30 Two evil-doers are crucified with him. 46 His death. 50 His burial.

AND the whole company of them arose, and led him to Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that he himself is Christ, a king.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 And Pilate said to the chief priests, and the multitude, ¶ I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more violent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching through all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked if the man was a Galilean.

7 And learning that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was himself also at Jerusalem at this time.

8 ¶ And Herod rejoiced greatly on seeing Jesus: for he had desired for a long time to see him, from hearing much of him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him.

9 And he questioned him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his soldiers having made light of him, and derided him, arrayed him in a splendid dress, and sent him back to Pilate.

12 ¶ And on that day Pilate and Herod became friends with each other; for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, calling together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people, 14 Said to them, "Ye have brought this man to me, as one perverting the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, have found him guilty of nothing of which ye accuse him;

15 And neither hath Herod: for I sent you to him; and lo, nothing worthy of death hath been done by him:

16 I will therefore chastise and release him:

17 (For it was necessary that he should release one to them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas!

19 (Who, for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, had been thrown into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, wishing to release Jesus, again addressed them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him! crucify him!

22 And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found in him nothing worthy of death; I will therefore chastise and release him.

23 But they urged with loud voices, demanding that he should be crucified: and their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate decided that it should be as they required.

25 And he released to them him whom they demanded, who for sedition and murder had been thrown into prison, and Jesus he delivered to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming from the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, who also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning to them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For lo, the days are coming, in which they will say, Happy the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never gave suck!

30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us! and to the hills, Cover us!

31 For if they do thus to the green tree, what will be done to the dry?

32 And there were also two malefactors led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they came to the place called Calvary, there they nailed him to the cross, and the malefactors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ And Jesus said, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. And they divided his garments, casting lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them scoffed at him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ, the chosen of God!

36 And the soldiers also made sport of him, coming up, and offering him vinegar.

37 And saying, If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And there was also an inscription written over him, in Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew letters, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ And one of the malefactors, who were hanging on the cross, reviled him, saying, If thou art the Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost thou also not fear God, seeing thou art in the same punishment?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said to Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest to thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said to him, Verily, I say to thee, To-day thou shalt be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And Jesus crying with a loud voice, said, Father, into thy hands I commit my spirit: and saying this, he expired.

47 ¶ And the centurion seeing what had happened, glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man!

48 And all the people who had come together to this spectacle, beholding what took place, returned, beating their breasts.

49 ¶ And all his acquaintance, and the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And behold, a man named Joseph, a senator, a good and just man,

51 (He had not agreed to their counsel and action,) of Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was also himself looking for the kingdom of God;

52 This man went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And taking it down, he wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre hewn in rock, where as yet none had been laid.

54 And it was the day of preparation, and the Sabbath was dawning.

55 And the women also, who had come with him from Galilee, followed him, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was placed.

56 And returning, they prepared spices and ointments; and rested on the Sabbath, according to the commandment.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels to the women that came to the sepulchre. 8 These report it to others. 13 Christ himself appeareth to the two disciples that went to Emmaus: 36 afterwards he appeareth to the apostles, and reprovereth their unbelief: 47 giveth them a charge: 49 promiseth the Holy Spirit: 51 and so ascendeth into heaven.

AND on the first day of the week, early in the morning, they came to the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And entering in, they found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it happened, as they were much perplexed at this, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And they being terrified, and bowing

¶ THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 The divinity, humanity, and office of Jesus Christ. 15 The testimony of John. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 This was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it; and without it nothing was made that was made.

4 In it was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shone in the darkness; and the darkness did not admit it.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 This man came as a witness, to testify concerning the Light, that through him all might believe.

8 He was not the Light, but came to testify concerning the Light.

9 The true Light was he who, coming into the world, enlighteneth every man.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came to his own possession, and his own people received him not.

12 But as many as received him, believing on his name, to them he gave the privilege of becoming children of God:

13 Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 And the Word became flesh, and sojourned among us, (and we beheld his glory, a glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

15 (John testifieth concerning him, and crieth, saying, This was he of whom I said, He who cometh after me, is preferred before me; for he was before me.)

16 And of his fulness we all received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses; the grace and the truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 No one hath ever seen God; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews of Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he acknowledged, and denied not; but acknowledged, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou the prophet? And he answered, No.

22 And they said to him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What sayest thou concerning thyself?

23 He said, I am The voice of one crying in the desert, Make straight the way of the Lord! as said the prophet Isaiah.

24 And those who were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said to him, Why then immersest thou, if thou art not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I immerse in water: but among you standeth one whom ye know not:

27 He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me; whose shoe-latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 This took place in Bethabara beyond the Jordan, where John was immersing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming to him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, that beareth the sin of the world!

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man who is preferred before me; for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not; but that he might be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come immersing in water.

32 And John testified, saying, I have seen the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained upon him.

33 And I knew him not; but he who sent me to immerse in water, he said to me, On whomsoever thou seest the Spirit descending and remaining on him, this is he who immerseth in the Holy Spirit.

34 And I have seen, and testify, that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again, the day after, John was standing with two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus.

38 And Jesus turning, saw them following, and saith to them, What seek ye? They said to him, Rabbi, (which, interpreted, meaneth Teacher,) where abidest thou?

39 He saith to them, Come and see. They came and saw where he abode, and remained with him that day: and it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith to him, We have found the Messiah, (which, interpreted, is, Christ.)

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And Jesus, looking at him, said, Thou art Simon the son of Jonah: thou shalt be called Cephas; (which, interpreted, is, Rock.)

43 ¶ The day following Jesus wished to go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith to him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith to him, We have found him of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said to him, Can any thing good come from Nazareth? Philip saith to him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith to him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith to him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, believest thou? thou wilt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith to him, Verily, verily, I say to you, Henceforth ye will see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of man.

CHAPTER II.

1 Christ turneth water into wine, 13 departeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 where he clear-eth the temple of buyers and sellers. 19 He foretelleth his death and resurrection. 23 Many believed because of his miracles, but he would not trust himself with them.

AND on the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus and his disciples were invited to the marriage.

3 And wine failing, the mother of Jesus saith to him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith to her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? my hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith to the servants, Whatever he saith to you, do it.

6 And there were placed there six water-pots of stone, according to the Jewish custom of purification, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith to them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them to the brim.

8 And he saith to them, Draw out now, and bear to the ruler of the feast. And they bore it.

9 When the ruler of the feast tasted of the water which had been made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants who drew the water knew,) the ruler of the feast calleth to the bridegroom,

10 And saith to him, Every man first setteth forth the good wine; and when they have drunk freely, then the poorer; but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of his miracles Jesus made in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and they remained there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,

14 And found in the temple those who sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the money-changers sitting:

15 And making a scourge of small cords, he drove them all from the temple, and the sheep; and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overturned the tables;

16 And said to those who sold doves, Take these things hence! make not my Father's house an house of traffic.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, Zeal for thy house consumeth me.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews, and said to him, What sign shewest thou to us, since thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it.

20 Then said the Jews, In forty-six years was this temple built, and wilt thou rear it in three days?

21 But he spoke of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had spoken.

23 ¶ Now, when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast, many believed on his name, beholding the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not entrust himself to them, because he knew them all,

25 And needed not that any should testify concerning a man: for he himself knew what was in the man.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration, 14 Of faith in his death. 16 The great love of God towards the world. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. 23 The immersion, testimony, and teaching of John concerning Christ.

BUT there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 ¶ This man came to Jesus by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no one can do these miracles which thou doest, unless God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said to him, Verily, verily, I say to thee, Unless a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith to him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say to thee, Unless a man be born of water and Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.

7 Wonder not that I said to thee, Ye must be born again.

8 ¶ The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest its voice, but knowest not whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one who is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said to him, How can this be?

10 Jesus answered and said to him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and understandest not this?

11 ¶ Verily, verily, I say to thee, We speak what we know, and testify what we have seen; and ye receive not our testimony.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how will ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no one hath ascended to heaven, but he who came down from heaven, the Son of man who is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whoever believeth on him may not perish, but may have eternal life.

16 ¶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believeth on him, should not perish, but have eternal life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He who believeth on him, is not condemned; but he who believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light; for their deeds were evil.

20 For every one who doeth evil hateth the light, nor cometh to the light, lest his deeds be discovered.

21 But he who doeth the truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After this Jesus and his disciples came into the land of Judea; and there he remained with them, and immersed.

23 ¶ And John also was immersing in Aenon, near Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were immersed.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Now a dispute arose between John's disciples and a Jew, about purification.

26 And they came to John, and said to him, Rabbi, he who was with thee beyond the Jordan, to whom thou hast borne witness, behold, he immerseth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, unless it is given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He who hath the bride, is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, who standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly at the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is full.

30 He must increase, and I decrease.

31 He who cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he who cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, this he testifieth; but no one receiveth his testimony.

33 He who hath received his testimony, hath attested that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giveth him not the Spirit by measure.

35 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all into his hand.

36 He who believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he who believeth not the Son, will not see life; but the wrath of God remaineth on him.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria, and revealeth himself to her. 27 His disciples wonder.

31 He declareth to them his zeal to God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe on him. 43 He departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son that lay sick at Capernaum.

WHEN now the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and immersing more disciples than John,

John 27. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83

26 Jesus saith to her, 'I who speak to thee am he.

27 ¶ And upon this his disciples came, and wondered that he was talking with a woman: yet none said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man 'who told me all that I have done: is this the Christ?

30 So they went out of the city, and came to him.

31 ¶ Meanwhile his disciples asked him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said to them, I have food to eat which ye know not.

33 The disciples then said to each other, Hath any one brought him food?

34 Jesus said to them, 'My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work.

35 Do ye not say, There are yet four months and harvest cometh? behold, I say to you, Raise your eyes, and survey the fields; 'for they are already white for harvest.

36 'And he who reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit to life eternal: that both the sower and the reaper may rejoice together.

37 For in this the saying is true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I send you to reap where ye have not laboured: others have laboured, and ye have entered into their labours.

39 ¶ And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him 'on account of the words of the woman, who testified, He told me all that I have done.

40 So when the Samaritans came to him, they besought him to remain with them: and he remained there two days.

41 And many more believed, on account of his own word;

42 And said to the woman, We no longer believe on account of thy report: for 'we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is truly the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ And after the two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For 'Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 When therefore he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, 'having seen all that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: 'for they also went to the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, 'where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 He hearing that Jesus was come from Judea into Galilee, went to him, and asked him to come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 And Jesus said to him, 'Unless ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith to him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith to him, Go; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus said to him, and departed.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 So he inquired of them the hour when he became better. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at that hour, in which Jesus said to him, Thy son liveth: and he believed himself, and his whole house.

54 Again, this second miracle Jesus did, having come from Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Jesus on the Sabbath cureth him who was diseased eight and thirty years. 10 The Jews therefore cavil, and persecute him for it. 17 He answereth for himself, and reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who he is.

AFTER 'this there was a feast of the Jews: and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem, 'by the sheep gate, a pool, called in Hebrew, Bethesda, having five porticoes.

3 In these lay a great multitude of the sick, blind, lame, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at certain seasons into the pool, and disturbed the water: whoever then first went in after the stirring of the water, became well of whatever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, who had been sick thirty-eight years.

6 Jesus seeing him lying, and knowing that he had been sick now a long time, saith to him, Wistest thou to become well?

7 The sick man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is disturbed, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another goeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith to him, 'Arise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man became well, and took up his bed, and walked: and 'that day was the Sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said to him who was healed, It is the Sabbath; 'it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He who made me well, he said to me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then they asked him, Who is the man that said to thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he who was healed knew not who it was: for Jesus had withdrawn, there being a multitude in the place.

14 After this Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said to him, Behold, thou hast become well: 'sin no more, lest a worse thing happen to thee.

15 The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

16 And therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he did this on the Sabbath.

17 ¶ But Jesus answered them, 'My Father worketh until now, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews 'sought the more to slay him, because he not only violated the Sabbath, but also called God his Father, 'making himself equal with God.

19 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, 'The Son can do nothing of himself, but only what he seeth the Father do: for whatever he doeth, this also doeth the Son in like manner.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things which he himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may wonder.

21 For as the Father raiseth the dead, and giveth them life; so also the Son giveth life to whom he will.

22 For neither doth the Father judge any one; but hath committed all judgment to the Son:

23 That all may honour the Son as they honour the Father. He who honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father who sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say to you, He who heareth my word, and believeth on him who sent me, hath everlasting life, and cometh not into condemnation; but hath passed from death to life.

25 Verily, verily, I say to you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who hear will live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself, so he gave also to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And gave him authority also to execute judgment, because he is the Son of man.

28 Wonder not at this: for the hour is coming, in which all who are in their graves will hear his voice,

29 And will come forth; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can do nothing of myself: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not my own will, but the will of the Father who sent me.

31 If I testify concerning myself, my testimony is not true.

32 There is another who testifieth concerning me, and I know that the testimony which he beareth concerning me is true.

33 Ye have sent to John, and he hath testified to the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but I say this, that ye may be saved.

35 He was the burning and the shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 The testimony which I have is greater than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to accomplish, the very works which I do, testify concerning me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father who sent me, hath himself testified concerning me. Ye have never either heard his voice, or seen his form.

38 And ye have not his word remaining in you, that ye believe not him whom he hath sent.

39 Ye search the scriptures, because ye think that in them ye have eternal life. And these are they which testify concerning me;

40 Yet ye will not come to me, that ye may have life.

41 I receive not honour from men;

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another come in his own name, him ye will receive.

46 For if ye believed Moses, ye would believe me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how will ye believe my words?

CHAPTER VI.

1 Christ feedeth five thousand men with five loaves and two fishes. 15 Thereupon the people would have made him king. 16 But withdrawing himself, he walked on the sea to his disciples: 26 reproveh the people flocking after him, and all the fleshly hearers of his word: 32 declarath himself to be the bread of life to believers. 96 Many disciples depart from him. 68 Peter confesseth him. 70 Judas is an adversary.

AFTER this Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, called the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did upon the sick.

3 And Jesus went up into the mountain, and there sat with his disciples.

4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ Jesus then raising his eyes, and seeing a great company come to him, saith to Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat?

6 (And he said this to try him: for he himself knew what he was about to do.)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that each of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, brother of Simon Peter, saith to him,

9 There is a lad here, who hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men recline. (Now there was much grass in the place.) So the men reclined in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those reclining, and in like manner of the fishes, as much as they wished.

12 When they were satisfied, he said to his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained after they had eaten.

14 Now the men, seeing the miracle which Jesus did, said; This is truly the Prophet who cometh into the world.

15 ¶ Jesus therefore knowing that they were about to come and seize him, to make him a king, retired again by himself alone into the mountain.

16 And when evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,

17 And entering the ship, went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them.

18 And a great wind blowing, the sea was agitated.

19 Having therefore rowed about twenty-five or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and coming near the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith to them, It is I; fear not.
21 So they gladly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship came to the land to which they were going.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people who stood by the sea-side saw that there was no other boat there, except that one which his disciples entered, and that Jesus did not go with his disciples into the ship, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (But there came other boats from Tiberias near the place where they ate bread, the Lord having given thanks:)

24 When therefore the people saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they also entered the ships, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And finding him beyond the sea, they said to him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say to you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were satisfied.

27 ¶ Labour not for the food that perisheth, but for the food that remaineth to everlasting life, which the Son of man will give you: for him hath God the Father approved.

28 And they said to him, What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore to him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 ¶ Our fathers ate manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he who cometh down from heaven, and giveth life to the world.

34 ¶ They said therefore to him, Lord, always give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life: he who cometh to me, will never hunger; and he who believeth on me, will never thirst.

36 ¶ But I said to you, That ye have even seen me, and believe not.

37 ¶ All that the Father giveth me, will come to me; and him who cometh to me, I will by no means cast out.

38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will who sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him who sent me, that every one who seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread that came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how then doth he say, I have come down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 ¶ No one can come to me, unless the Father who sent me draw him: and I will raise him at the last day.

45 ¶ It is written in the prophets, And they shall all be taught of God. Every one then who heareth from the Father, and learneth, cometh to me.

46 ¶ Not that any one hath seen the Father, except he who is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say to you, He who believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 ¶ I am the bread of life.

49 ¶ Your fathers ate manna in the desert, and died.

50 ¶ This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat of it, and not die.

51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven: if any one eat of this bread, he will live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore contended among themselves, saying, How can he give us his flesh to eat?

53 Jesus therefore said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Unless ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 ¶ Whoever eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him at the last day.

55 For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, he also shall live by me.

58 ¶ This is the bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers ate manna, and died: he that eateth of this bread will live for ever.

59 This he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 ¶ Many therefore of his disciples, hearing it, said, This is hard language: who can hear it?

61 But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at it, said to them, Doth this offend you?

62 ¶ How then if ye see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 ¶ It is the Spirit that giveth life; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken to you, are spirit, and are life.

64 But there are some of you who believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who it was that would betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore I have said to you, that none can come to me, unless it be given him by my Father.

66 ¶ Upon this, many of his disciples went back, and no longer walked with him.

67 Jesus therefore said to the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 And Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast words of eternal life.

69 ¶ And we believe, and know that thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, 'Have I not chosen you twelve, and one of you is an adversary?

71 He spoke of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon: for it was he who was to betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Jesus reproveth the ambition and boldness of his kinsmen: 10 goeth up from Galilee to the feast of Tabernacles: 14 teacheth in the temple. 40 Divers opinions of him among the people. 43 The Pharisees were angry that their officers took him not, and chide with Nicodemus for taking his part.

AND Jesus walked after this in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said to him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works which thou doest.

4 For no one doeth any thing in secret, and yet seeketh himself to be known openly. If thou doest these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 (For neither did his brethren believe on him.)

6 Jesus therefore saith to them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but it hateth me, because I testify concerning it, that its deeds are evil.

8 Go ye up to this feast: I do not yet go up to this feast; for my time is not yet fully come.

9 Saying this to them, he remained in Galilee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then he also himself went up to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Now the Jews were seeking him at the feast, and saying, Where is he?

12 And there was much murmuring about him among the people. Some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he leadeth astray the people.

13 None however spoke openly concerning him, for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ But now at the middle of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught.

15 And the Jews wondered, saying, How knoweth this man the scriptures, having never learned them?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.

17 If any one will do his will, he will know concerning my teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from myself.

18 He who speaketh from himself, seeketh his own glory: but he who seeketh the glory of him who sent him, he is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

19 Hath not Moses given you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why do ye seek to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a demon: who seeketh to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and ye all wonder at this.

22 Moses hath given you circumcision, (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and on the Sabbath ye circumcise a man.

Sabbath, that the law of Moses be not violated; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man entirely well on the Sabbath?

24 Judge not according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of those of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?

26 But he speaketh openly, and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers indeed acknowledge that this is truly the Christ?

27 But we know this man, whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no one knoweth whence he is.

28 Jesus therefore cried in the temple, as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom ye know not!

29 But I know him; for I am from him, and he sent me.

30 Therefore they sought to take him: but no one laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 But many of the people believed on him, and said, When the Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Pharisees heard the people murmuring thus concerning him: and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Jesus therefore said to them, Yet a little while I am with you, and I go to him who sent me.

34 Ye will seek me, and will not find me: and where I am, ye cannot come.

35 The Jews then said among themselves, Where is he going, that we shall not find him? Is he going to those dispersed among the Greeks, to teach the Greeks?

36 What is this word which he spoke, Ye will seek me, and will not find me: and where I am ye cannot come?

37 And on the last, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any one thirst, let him come to me and drink!

38 He who believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, from his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this he spoke concerning the Spirit, which those who believed on him were to receive, for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, hearing these words, said, This is truly the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But others said, Doth the Christ come from Galilee?

42 Doth not the scripture say that the Christ cometh from the seed of David, and from the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there arose a division among the people on account of him.

44 And some of them wished to seize him; but no one laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said to them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spoke like this man!

47 The Pharisees therefore answered them, Are ye also led astray?

48 Hath any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees believed on him?
 49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.
 50 Nicodemus saith to them, (The who came to him by night, being one of them.)
 51 Doth our law condemn a man before it hear him, and know what he doeth?
 52 They answered and said to him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet hath arisen from Galilee.
 53 And each one went to his own house;

CHAPTER VIII.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery.
 12 He proclaimeth himself the light of the world, and justifieth his doctrine: 33 answereth the Jews that boasted of Abraham, 59 and conceyeth himself from their cruelty.

AND Jesus went to the mount of Olives.
 2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him; and he sat down and taught them.
 3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought to him a woman taken in adultery; and placing her in the midst,
 4 They say to him, Teacher, this woman was taken in the very act of adultery.
 5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: what then sayest thou?
 6 This they said, trying him, that they might be able to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.
 7 But as they continued asking him, he raised himself, and said to them, Let him who is without sin among you, first cast a stone at her.
 8 And again stooping down, he wrote on the ground.
 9 And those who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, to the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
 10 And Jesus raising himself, and seeing none but the woman, said to her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath none condemned thee?
 11 She said, No one, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Nor do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.
 12 ¶ Again therefore Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world: he who followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
 13 The Pharisees therefore said to him, Thou testifiest concerning thyself; thy testimony is not true.
 14 Jesus answered and said to them, Though I testify concerning myself, my testimony is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye know not whence I come, and whither I go.
 15 Ye judge according to the flesh, I judge no one.
 16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent me.
 17 And in your law too it is written, that the testimony of two men is true.
 18 I am one that testify concerning myself, and the Father who sent me, testifyeth concerning me.
 19 And they said to him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye know me, ye would also know my Father.

 20 These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, while teaching in the temple: and no one seized him, because his hour was not yet come.
 21 Now again Jesus said to them, I go away, and ye will seek me, and will die in your sins: where I go, ye cannot come.
 22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself, that he saith, Where I go, ye cannot come?
 23 And he said to them, Ye are from below; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.
 24 I said therefore to you, that ye will die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye will die in your sins.
 25 They said then to him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith to them, That which I said to you from the beginning.
 26 I have much to say, and to judge concerning you: but he who sent me, is true; and I say that to the world which I have heard from him.
 27 They understood not that he spoke to them of the Father.
 28 Jesus therefore said to them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then ye will know that I am he, and do nothing of myself, but speak these things as my Father hath taught me.
 29 And he who sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I always do that which pleaseth him.
 30 As he spoke this, many believed on him.
 31 Jesus therefore said to those Jews who believed on him, If ye continue in my word, ye are truly my disciples;
 32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth will make you free.
 33 ¶ They answered him, We are the offspring of Abraham, and were never in bondage to any one: how sayest thou, Ye shall become free?
 34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Whoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.
 35 And the servant remaineth not in the house for ever; the Son remaineth for ever.
 36 If the Son therefore make you free, ye will be free indeed.
 37 I know that ye are Abraham's offspring; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.
 38 I speak what I have seen with my Father: and ye do what ye have seen with your father.
 39 They answered and said to him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus saith to them, If ye were children of Abraham, ye would do the works of Abraham.
 40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man who hath told you the truth, which I heard from God: this did not Abraham.
 41 Ye do the deeds of your father. They said then to him, We are not born of fornication; we have one Father, God.
 42 Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I came forth from God, and am come from him: nor have I come of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of your father the devil, and ye choose to do the desires of your father: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abideth not in the truth; because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh after his own way: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Who of you convicteth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He who is of God, heareth God's words: ye on this account hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 The Jews therefore answered, and said to him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a demon?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honour my Father, and ye dishonour me.

50 And I seek not my own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say to you, If a man keep my word, he shall never see death.

52 The Jews then said to him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my word, he shall never taste of death?

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who died? and the prophets died: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God.

55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like you: but I know him, and keep his word.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced that he should see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 The Jews then said to him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Therefore they took up stones to throw at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The man that was born blind restored to sight. 8 He is brought to the Pharisees. 13 They are offended at it, and excommunicate him: 35 but he is received by Jesus, and acknowledgeth him. 39 Who they are whom Christ enlighteneth.

AND as he passed on, he saw a man blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither this man sinned, nor his parents; but that the works of God might be made manifest in him.

4 I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when none can work.

5 While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 Saying this, he spit on the ground, and make clay of the spittle, and daubed with the clay the eyes of the blind man,

7 And said to him, Go, wash them in the pool of Siloam, (which interpreted, is Sent.) He went therefore, and washed them, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and those who before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he who sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they to him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man called Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash them: and I went and washed them, and received sight.

12 And they said to him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They bring to the Pharisees him who before was blind.

14 And it was the Sabbath when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, He put clay on my eyes, and I washed them, and see.

16 Some of the Pharisees therefore said, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the Sabbath. Others said, How can a sinful man do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They say again to the blind man, What sayest thou of him, that he opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he was blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? How then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But how he now seeth, we know not; or who opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he will speak for himself.

22 His parents said this, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any one acknowledged him as the Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Now a second time they called the man who was blind, and said to him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he is a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that, being once blind, I now see.

26 And they said to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: why will ye hear it again? will ye also become his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are disciples of Moses.

29 We know that God hath spoken to Moses; but as to this man, we know not whence he is.

30 The man answered and said to them, Why, in this is a wonderful thing, that ye know not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 And we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any one be a worshipper of God, and do his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began it was not heard that any man opened the eyes of one born blind.

33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said to him, Thou wert wholly born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and finding him, he said to him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him?

37 And Jesus said to him, Thou hast both seen him, and 'tis he who talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world; that those who see not may see, and those who see, may become blind.

40 And those of the Pharisees who were with him heard this, and said to him, Are we also blind?

41 Jesus said to them, If ye were blind, ye would not have sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER X.

1 Christ is the door, and the good shepherd. 19 Various opinions of him. 24 He proveth by his works that he is Christ the Son of God: 39 escapeth the Jews, 40 and went again beyond Jordan, where many believed on him.

VERILY, verily, I say to you, He who entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, he is a thief and a robber.

2 But he who entereth in by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice.

5 But a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him: because they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable Jesus spoke to them: but they understood not what it was which he was speaking to them.

7 Jesus therefore said to them again, Verily, verily, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All who have come before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the door: by me if any one enter, he will be saved, and will go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but to steal, and kill, and destroy: I am come that they may have life, and that they may have it abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But the hireling, who is not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth; and the wolf seizeth them, and scattereth the sheep. 13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. 14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known by mine, 15 As the Father knoweth me, and I know the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. 16 And I have other sheep, which are not of this fold: these also I must bring; and they will hear my voice, and there will become one fold, one shepherd. 17 Therefore my Father loveth me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again. 18 No one taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This command I have received from my Father. 19 ¶ Again then there arose a division among the Jews on account of these words. 20 And many of them said, He hath a demon, and is mad; why hear ye him? 21 Others said, These are not the words of one who hath a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind? 22 ¶ And the feast of the dedication took place at Jerusalem, and it was winter. 23 And Jesus was walking in the temple in the porch of Solomon. 24 The Jews therefore surrounded him, and said to him, How long dost thou keep us in doubt? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly. 25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works which I do in my Father's name, these bear witness of me. 26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said to you. 27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: 28 And I give to them eternal life; and they shall never perish; none shall pluck them from my hand. 29 My Father, who gave them me, is greater than all; and none can pluck them from my Father's hand. 30 I and my Father are one. 31 Again therefore the Jews took up stones to stone him. 32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? 33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy, and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. 34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods? 35 If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be annulled; 36 Say ye of him whom the Father consecrated, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? 37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. 38 But if I do, even though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know 48 If we let him go on thus, all will believe on him: and the Romans will come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being high priest for that year, said to them, Ye know nothing.

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 (But this he said not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that he might also gather in one the scattered children of God.)

53 From that day, therefore, they conspired together to slay him.

54 Jesus therefore no longer walked openly among the Jews; but went thence into the country near the desert, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jews' passover was near: and many from the country went up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Now they were seeking Jesus, and saying among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 And the chief priests and the Pharisees had also given a command, that, if any one knew where he was, he should point it out, that they might take him.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet. 9 The people flock to see Lazarus. 10 The high priests consult to kill him. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 20 Greeks desire to see Jesus. 23 He foretelleth his death. 37 The Jews are generally blinded: 43 yet many chief rulers believe, but do not confess him: 44 therefore Jesus calleth earnestly for confession of faith.

NOW Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had died, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of those who reclined with him at table.

3 Then Mary, taking a pound of ointment of pure, costly nard, anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who was about to betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the purse, and carried what was put into it.

7 Jesus therefore said, Let her alone: she hath kept this for the day of my burial.

8 For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Now a great multitude of the Jews knew that he was there: and they came, not only on account of Jesus, but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted that they might also slay Lazarus:

11 Because on account of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day, a great multitude that had come to the feast, hearing that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna! Blessed is the King of Israel who cometh in the name of the Lord!

14 And Jesus, finding a young ass, sat upon it; as it is written,

15 Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 And his disciples at first did not understand this: but when Jesus was glorified, they then remembered that this was written of him, and that they did this to him.

17 The multitude therefore that was with him, testified that he called Lazarus from the tomb, and raised him from the dead.

18 For this reason also the multitude met him, because they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Do ye see that ye avail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among those who came up to worship at the feast.

21 These therefore came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, Sir, we wish to see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say to you, Unless the grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it remaineth alone: but if it die, it beareth much fruit.

25 He who loveth his life will lose it; and he who hateth his life in this world, will keep it for life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any one serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour! but for this cause I came to this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. There came then a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered. Others said, an angel hath spoken to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not for my sake, but yours.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now will the prince of this world be cast forth.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself.

33 (This he said, indicating by what death he was to die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard from the law that the Christ remaineth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Jesus therefore said to them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness overtake you: for he who walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have the light, trust to the light, that ye may be sons of light. Jesus having said this, departed, and hid himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, they believed not on him:

38 That the words of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because Isaiah said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; lest they should see with their eyes, and understand with their heart, and turn, and I should heal them.

41 This Isaiah said, when he saw his glory, and spoke of him.

42 ¶ Still, however, many even among the rulers believed on him; but on account of the Pharisees they did not acknowledge him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ But Jesus cried, and said, He who believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him who sent me:

45 And he who seeth me, seeth him who sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whoever believeth on me may not remain in darkness.

47 And if any one hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He who rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word which I have spoken, that will judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father who sent me, he gave me a command, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his command is life everlasting: whatever then I speak, as the Father hath said to me, so I speak.

CHAPTER XIII.

Jesus washeth the disciples' feet: exhorteth them to humility and love. 18 He foretelleth, and discovereth to John by a token, that Judas would betray him: 31 commandeth them to love one another, 36 and forewarneth Peter of his denial.

NOW before the feast of the passover, Jesus knowing that his hour was come that he should depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, loved them to the end.

2 And they being at supper, (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, son of Simon, to betray him,)

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and was going to God;

4 Ariseth from supper, and laying aside his garment, took a towel, and girded himself.

5 Then he poureth water into the bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded.

6 So he cometh to Simon Peter: and Peter saith to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said to him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou wilt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith to him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him and less I wash thee thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith to him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He who hath bathed himself needeth only to wash his feet, but is then wholly clean: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who would betray him: therefore he said, Ye are not all clean.

12 So when he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, having lain down again, he said to them, Do ye understand what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me the Teacher and the Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If then I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash the feet of each other.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say to you, The servant is not greater than his lord; nor he who is sent greater than he who sent him.

17 If ye know these things, ye are happy if ye do them.

18 I speak not of you all; I know whom I have chosen; but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He who cateth bread with me, hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you before it happeneth, that when it happeneth, ye may believe that I am he.

20 Verily, verily, I say to you, He who receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he who receiveth me, receiveth him who sent me.

21 Having said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say to you, that one of you will betray me.

22 The disciples therefore looked at each other, being at a loss concerning whom he spake.

23 Now there was reclining on the bosom of Jesus, one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, to ask who it was of whom he spoke.

25 He then, lying on Jesus' breast, saith to him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give the morsel, when I have dipped it. And he dipped the morsel and gave it to Judas Iscariot the son of Simon.

27 And after the morsel Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus to him, What thou doest, do quickly.

28 But no one at table knew for what he spake this to him.

29 For some thought, since Judas had the purse, that Jesus had said to him, Buy what we need for the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then, taking the morsel, went immediately out; and it was night.

31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and will immediately glorify him.

33 Children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye will seek me; and, as I said to the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come, so now I say to you.

34 A new commandment I give to you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this all will know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love toward one another.

36 ¶ Simon Peter said to him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterward.

37 Peter said to him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thee.

38 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for me? Verily, verily, I say to thee, The cock will not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples with the hope of heaven: 6 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, and one with the Father: 13 assureth their prayers in his name to be effectual: 15 requesteth love and obedience, 16 promiseth the Holy Spirit the Comforter, 27 and leaveth his peace with them.

LET not your heart be troubled: trust in God, and trust in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith to him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no one cometh to the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye would also have known my Father: and henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip saith to him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith to him, Have I been so long with you, and hast thou not known me, Philip? he who hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak to you, I speak not of myself: but the Father, who dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say to you, He who believeth on me, the works which I do he will do also; and greater works than these will he do; because I go to my Father.

13 And whatever ye shall ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandments:

16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Comforter, that he may remain with you for ever; 17 The Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, nor knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you orphans: I will come to you. 19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. 20 At that day ye will know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. 21 He who hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is who loveth me: and he who loveth me, will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him. 22 Judas saith to him, (not Iscariot,) Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself to us, and not to the world? 23 Jesus answered and said to him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our abode with him. 24 He who loveth me not, keepeth not my words: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me. 25 These things I have spoken to you, while remaining with you. 26 But the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and remind you of all that I have said to you. 27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you: not as the world giveth, give I to you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. 28 Ye heard how I said to you, I go away, and come to you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go to the Father: for my Father is greater than I. 29 And now I have told you before it happeneth, that when it happeneth, ye may believe. 30 I shall no longer talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh; and in me he hath nothing: 31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, so I do. Arise, let us go hence. CHAPTER XV. 1 The consolation and mutual love between Christ and his members, under the parable of the vine. 18 A comfort in the hatred and persecution of the world. 26 The office of the Holy Spirit, and of the apostles. I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. 2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleanseth, that it may bear more fruit. 3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken to you. 4 Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it remain in the vine: no more can ye, unless ye remain in me. 5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He who remaineth in me, and I in him, he beareth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man remain not in me, he is cast forth like the branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye remain in me, and my words remain in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 In this is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so will ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye will continue in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and continue in his love.

11 These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 None hath greater love than this, that he lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatever I command you.

15 I no longer call you servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I call you friends; for all things which I have heard from my Father, I have made known to you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and appointed you, that ye go and bear fruit, and that your fruit remain: that whatever ye ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 This I command you, That ye love one another.

18 If the world hateth you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love its own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said to you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my word, they will also keep yours.

21 But all this they will do to you on account of my name, because they know not him who sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin: but now they have no pretext for their sin.

23 He who hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which no other one hath done, they had not had sin: but now they have both seen, and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this is, that the word may be fulfilled which is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter cometh, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, that proceedeth from the Father, he will testify of me.

27 And ye too will testify, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER XVI.

Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Spirit, and by his reurrection and ascension: 23 comforteth their prayers made in his name to be acceptable to his Father. 33 Peace to Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things I have spoken to you, that ye may not fall away.

2 They will put you out of the synagogues: nay, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you, will think that he doeth God service.

3 And this they will do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But I have said this to you, that when the time cometh, ye may remember that I told you of it. And I said not this to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go to him who sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said this to you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 But I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send him to you.

8 And he, when he cometh, will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet much to say to you, but ye cannot bear it now.

13 But when he, the Spirit of truth cometh, he will guide you into all truth: for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he shall hear, he will speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He will glorify me: for he will receive of mine, and will shew it to you.

15 All things which the Father hath are mine: therefore I said, that he will take of mine, and will shew it to you.

16 A little while, and ye see me not: and again, a little while, and ye will see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this which he saith to us, A little while, and ye see me not: and again, a little while, and ye will see me: and, because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we know not what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said to them, Are ye inquiring among yourselves of this that I said, A little while, and ye see me not: and again, a little while, and ye will see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say to you, that ye will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice: and ye will be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but when her child is born, she no longer remembereth her anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And so ye now indeed have sorrow: but I shall see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and your joy none taketh from you.

23 And on that day ye will ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say to you, Whatever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give you.

24 Hitherto ye have asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things I have spoken to you in parables: but the time cometh when I shall no more speak to you in parables, but shall announce to you plainly concerning the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not to you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said to him, Lo, now thou speakest plainly, and speakest no parable.

30 Now we are sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any one should ask thee: by this we believe that thou earnest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, and is now come, when ye will be scattered each to his place, and will leave me alone: yef I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 I have said this to you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye will have affliction, but take courage: I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 11 in unity, 17 and truth, 20 to glorify them, and all other believers with him in heaven.

THUS spoke Jesus, and raised his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they may know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, do thou, Father, glorify me with thyself, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy name to the men whom thou hast given me from the world: thine they were, and thou hast given them to me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things which thou hast given me are from thee:

8 For I have given them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came forth from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for those whom thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee.

Holy Father, keep in thy name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name; those whom thou hast given me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now I come to thee, and these things I speak in the world; that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou wouldest take them out of the world, but that thou wouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I consecrate myself, that they also may be consecrated through the truth.

20 And I pray not for these alone; but for those also who will believe on me through their word:

21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me, I have given them; that they may be one, as we are one;

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfectly one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

24 Father, those whom thou hast given me, I will that they also be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 Righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have made known to them thy name, and will make it known: that the love with which thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus. 6 The officers fall to the ground. 10 Peter swieth off Malchus' ear. 12 Jesus is taken, and led to Annas and Caiaphas. 15 Peter's denial. 19 Jesus examined before Caiaphas. 28 His arraignment before Pilate. 36 His kingdom. 40 The Jews ask Barabbas to be let loose.

HAVING thus spoken, Jesus went forth with his disciples over the brook Kedron, where was a garden, which he entered with his disciples.

2 And Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus often resorted thither with his disciples.

3 Now Judas, taking the band and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all that was coming upon him, went forth, and said to them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith to them, I am he. And Judas also, who betrayed him, stood among them.

6 Now, as he said to them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Again then he asked them, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he. If therefore ye seek me, let these depart:

9 That the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, Of those whom thou gavest me, I have lost none.

10 Now Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Jesus therefore said to Peter, Put thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 So the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away first to Annas; for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.

14 And Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, with another disciple. And that disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus, into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Now the other disciple who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the door-keeper, and brought in Peter.

17 And the maid who kept the door saith to Peter, Art thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers having made a fire of coals, (for it was cold,) stood and warmed themselves: and Peter stood among them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus concerning his disciples, and concerning his teaching.

20 Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I always taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always assemble; and in secret I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask those who heard me, what I said to them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And as he had said this, one of the officers who stood by, struck Jesus on the face, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I spoke evilly, testify concerning the evil: and if well, why dost thou smite me?

24 (Now Annas had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.)

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, Art thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest (being a kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crowed.

28 Now they bring Jesus from Caiaphas into the palace: and it was early; and they themselves did not enter the palace, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said to him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him to thee.

31 Pilate therefore said to them, Do ye take him, and judge him according to your law. And the Jews said to him, It is not permitted us to put any one to death:

32 That the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, indicating by what death he was to die.

33 So Pilate again entered the palace, and called Jesus, and said to him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this of thyself, or have others told thee concerning me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation, and the chief priests, have delivered thee to me. What hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, my servants would contend, that I might not be delivered to the Jews: but now my kingdom is not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said to him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. For this was I born, and for this I am come into the world, that I may testify to the truth. Every one who is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith to him, What is truth? And saying this, he went out again to the Jews, and saith to them, I find no fault in him.

39 But ye have a custom, that I release to you one at the passover: will ye therefore, that I release to you the King of the Jews?

40 And they all cried again, saying, Not him, but Barabbas! Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER XIX.

Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten.

4 Pilate is desirous to release him, but being overcome with the outrage of the Jews, he delivered him to be crucified. 23 They cast lots for his garments. 28 He commendeth his mother to John. 28 He dieth. 31 His side is pierced. 38 He is buried by Joseph and Nicodemus.

THEN therefore Pilate took Jesus, and I scourged him.

2 And the soldiers braided a crown of thorns, and placed it on his head, and arrayed him in a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail! King of the Jews! and gave him blows on the face.

4 Again, therefore, Pilate came out, and saith to them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Now Jesus came forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith to them, Behold the man!

6 When therefore the chief priests and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him! crucify him! Pilate saith to them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ Now when Pilate heard these words, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the palace, and saith to Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 And Pilate saith to him, Dost thou not speak to me? knowest thou not, that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou wouldest have no power against me, unless it were given thee from above: therefore he who delivered me to thee hath the greater sin.

12 Upon this Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou release him, thou art not Cesar's friend! Whoever maketh himself a king, opposeth himself to Cesar!

13 ¶ Pilate, therefore, on hearing these words, brought Jesus forth, and sat down on his tribunal, in a place called the Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 (And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour:) and he saith to the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him! away with him! crucify him! Pilate saith to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar.

16 ¶ Then therefore he delivered him to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross went forth into the place called the place of a skull, called in Hebrew, Golgotha;

18 Where they crucified him, and two others with him, one on either side, and Jesus between them.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 Now this title many of the Jews read: for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

21 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had nailed Jesus to the cross, took his garments, and made four parts, a part for each soldier; and his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my garments among them, and cast lots for my vesture. Now this did the soldiers.

25 ¶ And there stood by the cross of Jesus, his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 Jesus therefore seeing his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing by, saith to his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then he saith to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there stood a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and presented it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished! and bowing his head, he yielded up his spirit.

31 Now the Jews, that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, (since it was the preparation, (for that Sabbath was a great day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and they be taken away.

32 So the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they did not break his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and immediately there came out blood and water.

35 And he who hath seen it, testifieth, and his testimony is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe.

36 For this happened, that the scripture might be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They will look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly from fear of the Jews) asked of Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And Nicodemus also (who at first came to Jesus by night) came and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds.

40 They took therefore the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as is the Jewish custom to prepare for burial.

41 And in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, in which none had as yet been laid.

42 ¶ Here therefore, on account of the Jewish preparation, since the sepulchre was near, they laid Jesus.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre: 2 so do Peter and John, ignorant of the resurrection. 11 Jesus appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 19 and to his disciples. 24 The incredulity, and confession of Thomas. 30 The scripture is sufficient to salvation.

ON the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, to the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith to them, They have taken away the Lord from the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and went to the sepulchre.

4 And the two ran together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he bending over, saw the linen clothes lying, but did not enter.

6 Now Simon Peter cometh, following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lying;

7 And the napkin which was on his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but rolled up in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also the other disciple who came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must arise from the dead.

10 So the disciples went back to their homes.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without by the sepulchre weeping; and as she wept she bent over into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say to her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 Saying this, she turned back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith to her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith to him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith to her, Mary. She turned, and saith to him, Rabboni, (that is, Teacher.)

17 Jesus saith to her, Lay not hold of me: for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say to them, I ascend to my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken thus to her.

19 ¶ Now on that day at evening, being the first day of the week, and the doors having been shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith to them, Peace be to you.

20 And saying this, he shewed them his hands and his side. And the disciples rejoiced at seeing the Lord.

21 Jesus therefore said to them again, Peace be to you: as my Father hath sent me, I also send you.

22 And saying this, he breathed on them, and saith to them, Receive the Holy Spirit.

23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted to them; whose soever ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: Jesus cometh, the doors having been shut, and stood in their midst, and said, Peace be to you.

30 ¶ And many other signs indeed Jesus performed in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.

31 But these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye may have life through his name.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Christ appearing again to his disciples was known of them by the great draught of fishes. 12 He dineth with them: 16 earnestly commendeth Peter to feed his lambs and sheep: 18 foretelleth him of his death: 22 rebuketh his curiosity touching John. 25 The conclusion.

AFTER this Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and he shewed himself thus.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith to them, I go a fishing. They say to him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered their ship immediately; and on that night they caught nothing.

4 But when it was now morning, Jesus stood on the shore; the disciples however knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Jesus therefore saith to them, Children, have ye any thing to eat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said to them, Cast your net on the right side of the ship, and ye will find. They cast it therefore, and could no longer draw it, from the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith to Peter, It is the Lord. And Simon Peter, hearing that it was the Lord, girded to him his upper garment, (for he was naked,) and threw himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in the bark (for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits) dragging the net with the fishes.

9 And as they came to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and a fish lying on it, and bread.

10 Jesus saith to them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of large fishes, an hundred and fifty-three: and though there were so many, the net was not broken.

12 Jesus saith to them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples ventured to ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and in like manner the fish.

14 Now this third time Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after he arose from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon son of Jonah, lovest thou me more than these? He saith to him, Yea, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee. He saith to him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon son of Jonah, lovest thou me? He saith to him, Yea, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee. He saith to him, Tend my sheep.

17 He saith to him the third time, Simon son of Jonah, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said to him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith to him, Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say to thee, When thou wert young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldst: but when thou art old, thou wilt stretch forth thy hands, and another will gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not.

19 And he said this, indicating by what

 21 Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what of this man?
 22 Jesus saith to him, If I wish him to remain till I come, what is it to thee? Follow thou me.
 23 This report therefore went abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus did not say to him, He will not die; but, If I wish him to remain till I come, what is it to thee?

¶ THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER I.

1 Christ, preparing his apostles to the beholding of his ascension, gathereth them together into the mount of Olivet, commandeth them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Spirit, promiseth after few days to send it: by virtue whereof they should be witnesses to him, even to the utmost parts of the earth. 9 After his ascension they are warned by two angels to depart, and to set their minds upon his second coming. 12 They accordingly return, and, giving themselves to prayer, choose Matthias apostle in the place of Judas.

I WROTE my former narrative, Theophilus, concerning all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after having, through the Holy Spirit, given commands to the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his suffering, by many proofs, being seen by them during forty days, and speaking of things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And being assembled with them, he commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard from me.

5 For John indeed immersed in water; but ye will be immersed in the Holy Spirit not many days hence.

6 They therefore, on coming together, asked him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said to them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power when the Holy Spirit cometh upon you: and ye shall be witnesses to me, in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the extremity of the earth.

9 And having spoken thus, while they looked on, he was taken up; and a cloud received him from their sight.

10 And while they were gazing fixedly toward heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Who also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye looking toward heaven? this Jesus who is taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem, from the mount called the Mount of Olives, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath-day's journey.

13 And when they came in, they went up into the upper room, where they were remaining; Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

14 All these continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

15 And in those days Peter arising in the midst of the disciples, said, (the number of the names together was about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Brethren, it was necessary that this scripture be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who seized upon Jesus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had his part allotted him in this service.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the wages of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known to all who inhabited Jerusalem; so that that field is called in their own tongue, Aceldama, that is, A field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation become desolate, and let no man dwell in it: and, Let another take his office.

21 Therefore of the men who accompa nied us, all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

22 *Beginning from the immersion of John, until the day that he was taken up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all, shew which of these two thou hast chosen,

25 *To take part of this ministry and apostleship, which Judas deserted; that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER II.

1 The apostles, filled with the Holy Spirit, and speaking various languages, are admired by some, and derided by others. 14 Whom Peter disproving, and shewing that the apostles spoke by the power of the Holy Spirit, that Jesus was risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, had poured down the same Holy Spirit, and was the Messiah, a man known to them to be approved of God by his miracles, wonders, and signs, and not crucified without his determinate counsel and foreknowledge: 37 he immerseth a great number that were converted. 41 Who afterwards devoutly and charitably walk together: the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing his church.

AND when the day of Pentecost had arrived, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came from heaven a sound, as of a rushing violent wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, dividing themselves, and settling upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven.

6 And this being reported abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because they heard them speak each in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed, and wondered, saying to each other, Behold, are not all these who speak, Galileans?

8 And how do we hear, each in our own tongue, in which we were born;

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the region of Libya about Cyrene, and the Roman strangers, both Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, how do we hear them speaking in our tongues the wonderful works of God?

12 And they were all amazed, and greatly in doubt, saying to one another, What meaneth this?

13 Others in mockery said, They are full of new wine!

14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with the eleven, raised his voice, and said to them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye who inhabit

Jerusalem, be this known to you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose; since it is but the third hour of the day:

16 But this is that which was spoken of by the prophet Joel,

17 *And it will come to pass in the last days, saith God, 'I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants, and on my handmaidens, I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

19 *And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs on the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 *The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and memorable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall be, that whoever calleth on the name of the Lord, shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words! Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved to you of God by miracles, and wonders, and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and purpose of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 *Whom God raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be held by it.

25 For David saith concerning him, 'I saw the Lord always before me; for he is on my right hand, that I be not moved:

26 Therefore my heart rejoiced, and my tongue exulted; moreover also, my flesh will rest in hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave me in the grave, nor suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me paths of life; thou wilt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Brethren, I may speak openly to you concerning the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his sepulchre is among us to this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, as to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

31 He foreseeing this, spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that he was not left in the grave, nor did his flesh see corruption.

32 *This Jesus hath God raised up, of which we all are witnesses.

33 *Being then exalted by the right hand of God, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he saith himself, 'The Lord said to my Lord, Sit on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made this same Jesus whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now on hearing this, they were pricked to the heart, and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do?

38 And Peter said to them, Repent, and let each of you be immersed in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

39 For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words he testified and entreated, saying, Save yourselves from this unward generation.

41 ¶ Now those who gladly received his word, were immersed: and there were added to them on that day about three thousand souls.

42 And they continued steadfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all who believed were together, and had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and divided them among all, as any one had need.

46 And continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they partook their food with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily those who were saved.

CHAPTER III.

1 Peter preaching to the people that came to see a lame man restored to his feet, 12 declareth the cure not to have been wrought by his or John's own power, or holiness, but by God, and his Son Jesus, and through faith in his name: 13 without reprehending them for crucifying Jesus. 17 Which, because they did it through ignorance, and that thereby were fulfilled God's determinate counsel, and the scriptures: 19 he exhorteth them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their sins, and salvation in the same Jesus.

NOW Peter and John were going up together into the temple, at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of those who entered the temple;

3 Who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked alms.

4 And Peter fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he attended to them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 And Peter said, Silver and gold I have none; but what I have, this I give thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, arise and walk!

7 And he took him by the right hand, and raised him up: and immediately his feet and ankle-bones received strength.

8 And leaping up, he stood, and walked, and went with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he who sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

11 And as the lame man who was healed kept close to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch called Solomon's, filled with amazement.

12 ¶ And as Peter saw it, he answered the people, Ye men of Israel, why wonder ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him to walk?

13 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him.

14 But ye denied the Holy and Just One, and requested a murderer to be granted to you;

15 And killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead; of which we are witnesses.

16 And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him, hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I know that from ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But that which God formerly announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that the Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent, therefore, and turn, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he may send Jesus Christ, who was formerly appointed for you:

21 Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of the restoration of all things, which God spoke of old, by the mouth of all his holy prophets.

22 For Moses indeed said to our fathers, A Prophet will the Lord your God raise up to you, from your brethren, like me; him ye shall hear in all things, whatever he shall say to you.

23 And it will be, that every soul that will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 And indeed all the prophets from Samuel, and those after him, as many as have spoken, have also announced these days.

25 Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.

26 To you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away each of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The rulers of the Jews offended with Peter's sermon, 4 (though thousands of the people were converted that heard the word,) imprison him and John.

5 After, upon examination, Peter boldly avouching the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus, and that by the same Jesus only we must be eternally saved, 13 they command him and John to preach no more in that name, adding also threatening, 23 whereupon the church fleeth to prayer. 31 And God, by moving the place where they were assembled, testified that he heard their prayer: confirming the church with the gift of the Holy Spirit, and with mutual love and charity.

AND as they were speaking to the people, the priests, and the justicer of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them, 2 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in prison until the next day: for it was now evening.

4 But many of those who heard the word, believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 And it happened on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and whoe- ever were of the high priest's family, assembled at Jerusalem.

7 And placing them in the midst, they asked, "By what power, or by what name have ye done this?"

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we are examined to-day in regard to the good deed done to the infirm man, by whom he hath been healed;

10 Be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by him doth this man stand before you whole.

11 This is the stone, despised by you, the builders, which is become the head of the corner,

12 Nor is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men, whereby we may be saved.

13 Now, seeing the boldness of Peter and John, and knowing that they were unlearned and common men, they wondered; and they ascertained that they had been with Jesus.

14 And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 And directing them to withdraw from the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, "What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a noted miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all who inhabit Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us order them with threats to speak no more to any man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak nor teach at all in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answering, said to them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot but speak what we have seen and heard.

21 And they having further threatened them, let them go, finding no means of punishing them, on account of the people: for they all glorified God for what had happened.

22 For the man was more than forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been wrought.

23 ¶ And being dismissed, they went to their friends, and reported what the chief priests and elders had said to them.

24 And they hearing it, with one accord raised their voice to God, and said, Lord, thou art God, who madest heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things in them;

25 Who, by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, "Why did the nations rage, and the people imagine vain things?"

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers assembled together against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

27 For in truth there assembled in this city, against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the nations, and the people of Israel, 28 To do whatever thy hand and thy will had determined should take place.

29 And now, Lord, look upon their threats: and grant to thy servants, with all boldness to speak thy word,

30 While thy hand is stretched forth to heal, and signs and wonders are wrought by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

31 ¶ And as they prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and spoke the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of believers were of one heart, and one soul: and not one of them said that any of his possessions was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Nor was any among them in want: for such as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of what they sold,

35 And laid them at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made to each according as he had need.

36 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, when interpreted, Son of consolation,) a Levite, a Cyprian by birth, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the feet of the apostles.

CHAPTER V.

1 After Ananias and Sapphira his wife for their hypocrisy at Peter's rebuke had fallen down dead, 12 and the rest of the apostles had wrought many miracles, 14 to the increase of the faith: 17 the apostles are again imprisoned, 19 but delivered by an angel bidding them to preach openly to all: 21 when, after their teaching accordingly in the temple, 23 and before the council, 33 they are in danger to be killed, through the advice of Gamaliel, a great counsellor among the Jews, they are kept alive, 40 and are but beaten: for which they glorify God, and cease no day from preaching.

BUT with a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept to himself part of the price, (his wife also being aware of it,) and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart (to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the field?)

4 While it remained, was it not thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? Thou hast not lied to men, but to God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and expired. And great fear came on all who heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in.

8 And Peter answered her, Tell me whether ye sold the field for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said to her, Why have ye agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of those who buried thy husband are at the door, and they will carry thee out.

10 And instantly she fell at his feet, and expired. And the young men coming in, found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon all who heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest none ventured to join himself to them: but the people honoured them;

14 (And believers in the Lord were added to them more, multitudes both of men and women;)

15 So that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 And the multitudes also from the surrounding cities came together to Jerusalem, bringing the sick, and those vexed by unclean spirits; and they were all healed.

17 ¶ But the high priest arising, and all who were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) were filled with indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the public prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And hearing it, they went into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and those with him, and called together the council, and all the elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But the officers coming, found them not in the prison, and returning, reported,

23 Saying, The prison indeed we found shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but on opening, we found no one within.

24 And when the high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they were at a loss concerning them to what this would grow.

25 But one came and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then the captain with the officers went, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.

27 And having brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ And Peter and the other apostles answering, said, We must obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye hung on the cross and slew.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand, a Prince and a Saviour, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to those who obey him.

33 ¶ And they hearing it, were stung with madness, and were planning to destroy them.

34 But a certain Pharisee arose in the council, named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honoured by all the people, and directed to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said to them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye are about to do to these men:

36 For not long since arose Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all who obeyed him, were scattered, and came to nought.

37 After him arose Judas the Galilean, in the days of the enrolment, and drew away a great company after him: he also perished; and all who obeyed him were dispersed.

38 And now I say to you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will be overthrown:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest perchance ye be found even fighting against God.

40 And they yielded to him; and calling the apostles, they beat them, and commanded them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were deemed worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in the house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The apostles, desirous to have the poor regarded for their bodily sustenance, as also careful themselves to dispense the word of God, the food of the soul, 2 appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men. 3 Of whom Stephen, a man full of faith, and of the Holy Spirit, is one. 4 Who is taken by those, whom he confounded in disputing, 5 and afterward falsely accused of blasphemy against the law and the temple.

AND in those days, as the disciples multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Hellenists against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 And the twelve calling to them the multitude of the disciples, said, 'It is not proper that we should leave the word of God, and attend on tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look out among you seven men well attested, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the advice pleased the whole multitude; and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch,

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and having prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶ And Stephen, full of faith and power, was performing great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 And there arose some of the so-called synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit with which he spoke.

11 ¶ Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came, and seized him, and brought him to the council.

13 And set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 ¶ For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all who sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Stephen, permitted to answer to the accusation of blasphemy, 2 sheweth that Abraham worshipped God rightly, and how God chose the fathers 20 before Moses was born, and before the tabernacle and temple were built: 37 that Moses himself witnessed of Christ: 44 and that all outward ceremonies were ordained according to the heavenly pattern, to last but for a time: 51 reprehending their rebellion, and murdering of Christ, the Just One, who the prophets foretold should come into the world.

54 Whereupon they stone him to death, who commendeth his soul to Jesus, and humbly prayeth for them.

THEN said the high priest, Is this so?

2 And he said, Brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran,

3 And said to him, Go out from thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then, departing from the land of the Chaldeans, he dwelt in Haran. And from thence, after the death of his father, God removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot-breadth: yet he promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring after him, while as yet he had no child.

6 And God spoke thus, That his seed would sojourn in a land of strangers; and that they would enslave and afflict them four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage I will judge, said God: and after that they shall come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 ¶ And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham begot Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs.

9 ¶ And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him from all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt, and all his house.

11 ¶ And there came a famine over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction; and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 ¶ But Jacob hearing that there was grain in Egypt, sent out our fathers first.

13 ¶ And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren: and the family of Joseph became known to Pharaoh.

14 ¶ And Joseph sent, and called for his father Jacob, and all his kindred, seventy-five souls.

15 ¶ So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,

16 And were carried over into Shechem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor, father of Shechem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew near, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Egypt,

18 Till another king arose, who knew not Joseph.

19 He dealing craftily with our race, afflicted our fathers, so that they exposed their infants, that they might not live.

20 ¶ In which time Moses was born, and was exceedingly fair; he was nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And being exposed, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 ¶ And when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the sons of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, by smiting the Egyptian:

25 And he supposed his brethren would understand that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

leading him by the hand, they brought him to Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him the Lord said in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 And Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard from many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to bind all who call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said to him, Go, for he is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before nations, and kings, and the sons of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how much he must suffer on behalf of my name.

17 And Ananias departed, and entered into the house: and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus who appeared to thee on the road by which thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it were scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was immersed.

19 And taking food, he was strengthened. And Saul was some days with the disciples at Damascus.

20 And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all who heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he who destroyed in Jerusalem those who call on this name, and came here for this purpose, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

23 ¶ And when many days were completed, the Jews conspired together to kill him.

24 But their plot was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall in a basket.

26 And Saul, coming to Jerusalem, endeavoured to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and recounted to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had spoken openly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them going in and out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spoke openly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed with the Hellenists: but they undertook to slay him.

30 And the brethren learning it, brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Now the churches had rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified: and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed through them all, he came down also to the saints who dwelt at Lydda.

33 And he found there a certain man named Eneas, who had kept his bed eight years, who was paralytic.

34 And Peter said to him, Eneas, Jesus Christ health thee: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all who inhabited Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which, interpreted, meaneth Dorcas; this woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: and they washed and laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And Lydda being near to Joppa, the disciples hearing that Peter was there, sent to him two men, entreating him not to delay to come to them.

39 And Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter, putting them all forth, kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and seeing Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and raised her; and calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa: and many believed on the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he remained many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

CHAPTER X.

1 Cornelius, a devout man, being commanded by an angel, sendeth for Peter: 11 who by a vision is taught not to despise the Gentiles. 34 As he preacheth Christ to Cornelius and his company, 44 the Holy Spirit falleth on them, 48 and they are immersed.

AND there was a certain man in Cesarea, named Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always.

3 He saw in a vision manifestly, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying to him, Cornelius.

4 And fastening his eyes on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is near the sea: he will tell thee what thou must do.

7 And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of those who waited on him;

8 And recounting to them every thing, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, when they went on their journey, and drew near the city, Peter went up from the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and wished to eat: but as they were preparing, he fell into a trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending to him, like a great sheet fastened at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 In which were all the four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of heaven.

13 And there came a voice to him, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

14 But Peter said, By no means, Lord; for I never ate any thing common or unclean.

15 And the voice spoke to him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, do not thou call common.

16 This happened thrice: and again the vessel was received up into heaven.

17 And while Peter was doubting in himself what this vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent from Cornelius having inquired out Simon's house, stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, lodged there.

19 ¶ And as Peter reflected on the vision, the Spirit said to him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and descend, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 And Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause for which ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius a centurion, a just man, and one who feareth God, and of good report with all the nation of the Jews, was warned by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words from thee.

23 So he called them in, and entertained them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered Cesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and did him reverence.

26 But Peter raised him, saying, Stand up: I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found that many had come together.

28 And he said to them, Ye know that it is unlawful for a Jew to keep company, or visit one of another nation; but God hath taught me to call no man common or unclean.

29 Therefore, when sent for, I came to you without hesitation: I ask then for what purpose ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I was praying in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing.

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are remembered before God.

32 Send therefore to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter; he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner, near the sea: who will come and speak to thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast done well that thou art come. Now therefore we are all present before God, to hear all that is commanded thee from God.

34 ¶ And Peter opening his mouth, said, In truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation, he who feareth him and worketh righteousness, is accepted by him.

36 The word which he sent to the sons of Israel, publishing peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the immersion which John proclaimed;

38 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed by the devil; for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they hung on the cross and slew:

40 Him God raised on the third day, and made him manifest;

41 (Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before of God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead:)

42 And commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is he who is appointed by God to be the Judge of living and dead.

43 To him all the prophets bear witness, that through his name whoever believeth on him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word.

45 And the believers of the circumcision who came with Peter, were amazed that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit.

46 For they heard them speaking with tongues, and magnifying God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any one forbid water, that these should not be immersed, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be immersed in the name of the Lord. Then they prayed him to remain some days.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Peter, being accused for going in to the Gentiles, 5 maketh his defence, 18 which is accepted. 19 The gospel being spread into Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, Barnabas is sent to confirm them. 26 The disciples there are first called Christians. 27 They send relief to the brethren in Judea in time of famine.

AND the apostles and brethren in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, those of the circumcision contended with him,

3 saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter began and laid the matter before them in order, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it were a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came to me:

6 Upon which fastening mine eyes, I observed, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and the birds of heaven.

7 And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, By no means, Lord: for nothing common or unclean ever entered my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, do not thou call common.

10 And this happened three times: and again all was drawn up into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there stood three men at the house where I was, sent to me from Cesarea.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. And these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered the man's house:

13 And he told us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter;

14 Who will tell thee words, by which thou and all thy house will be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John indeed immersed in water; but ye shall be immersed in the Holy Spirit.

17 If then God gave them the like gift as us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard this, they were silent, and glorified God, saying, So then to the Gentiles also God hath granted repentance to life!

19 Now those who were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, went as far as Phenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none but to the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, on coming to Antioch, spoke to the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned to the Lord.

22 And these tidings reached the ears of the church in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, to go to Antioch.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith: and a great multitude was added to the Lord.

25 And Barnabas went forth to Tarsus, to seek for Saul:

26 And having found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they were together in the church, and taught a great multitude. And at Antioch the disciples were first called Christians.

27 And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem to Antioch.

28 And one of them, named Agabus, arose and declared by the Spirit that there was to be a great famine throughout all the land: which happened in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren dwelling in Judea.

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter; whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 In his pride taking to himself the honour due to God, Herod is stricken by an angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After his death, the word of God prospereth.

NOW about that time, Herod the king shut forth his hands to vex some of the church.

2 And he slew James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And seeing that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize upon Peter also. They were the days of unleavened bread.

4 And he apprehended and put him in prison, and delivered him to four quarters of soldiers to guard him; intending after the passover to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but earnest prayer to God was made for him by the church.

6 And when Herod was about to bring him forth, on that night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and guards before the door watched the prison.

7 And behold, an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the prison; and striking Peter on the side, he awoke him, saying, Arise quickly! And his chains fell from his hands.

8 And the angel said to him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and he did so. And he saith to him, Throw thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, following him, and knew not that what was done by the angel was real; but thought he saw a vision.

10 And passing the first and the second watch, they came to the iron gate that leadeth into the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and immediately the angel departed from him.

11 And Peter, coming to himself, said, Now I know truly that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me cometh one after me, the shoes of whose feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Brethren, sons of the race of Abraham, and whoever among you fear God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For those who dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, being ignorant of him, and of the declarations of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, they desired of Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the cross, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead:

31 And he was seen for many days by those who went up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people.

32 And we declare to you glad tidings, in respect to the promise which was made to the fathers;

33 How God hath fulfilled this to us as their children, in raising Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, 'Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.'

34 And that he raised him from the dead, no more to return to corruption, he said thus, 'I will give you the sure mercies of David.'

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, 'Thou wilt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.'

36 For David, having in his own age served the will of God, fell asleep, and was gathered to his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, did not see corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known to you therefore, brethren, that through him is announced to you the forgiveness of sins;

39 And by him all who believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I accomplish a work in your days, a work which ye will by no means believe, although one declare it to you.

42 And as they were going out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be spoken to them on the next Sabbath.

43 And the synagogue being broken up, many of the Jews and pious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And on the next Sabbath almost the whole city assembled to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and opposed what was spoken by Paul, contradicting and reviling.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spoke boldly, and said, 'It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you: but since ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles: 47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, 'I have placed thee to be a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be for salvation to the extremities of the earth.'

48 And the Gentiles hearing this, rejoiced, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were appointed to eternal life, believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was spread through the whole region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their borders.

51 And they, shaking off the dust of their feet against them, came to Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Paul and Barnabas are persecuted from Iconium.

7 At Lystra Paul healeth a lame man, whom they are reputed as gods. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They pass through various churches, confirming the disciples in faith and patience. 26 Returning to Antioch, they report what God had done with them.

AND it happened in Iconium, that they went together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke, that a great multitude, both of Jews and Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up and embittered the minds of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 Now they continued a long time speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part were with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to abuse and stone them,

6 They being aware of it, fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding region:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lystra, powerless in his feet, being lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked.

9 He heard Paul speak: who fastening his eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, 'Stand erect on thy feet. And he sprang up and walked.'

11 And the multitudes seeing what Paul had done, raised their voices, saying in the language of Lycaonia, 'The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.'

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercury, because he was the chief speaker.

13 And the priest of Jupiter, whose temple was before the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and, together with the people, was intending to sacrifice them.

14 But the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, hearing of it, rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, 'Ye men! why do ye this? We also are men of like nature with you, and preach to you, that ye should turn from these vain idols to the living God, who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that is in them:

16 *Who in past ages suffered all nations to walk in their own ways;

17 *Although he left not himself unwitnessed, in that he did us good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And saying this, they hardly restrained the people from sacrificing to them.

19 ¶ But there came thither Jews from Antioch, and Iconium, who persuaded the people, *and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he was dead.

20 But the disciples surrounding him, he arose, and came into the city: and the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And having preached the gospel to that city, *and made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch.

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying that *we must through many afflictions enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And *appointing for them elders in every church, they commended them with prayer and fasting to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And passing through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And having spoken the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, *whence they had been *recommended to the grace of God, for the work which they had accomplished.

27 And having come, and assembled the church, *they related what God had done with them, and how he had *opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.

28 And they remained there no little time with the disciples.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Great dissension arising about circumcision. 6 The apostles consult about it, 22 and send their determination by letters to the churches. 36 Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the brethren together, fall into a strife, and part asunder.

AND *some who came down from Judea, taught the brethren, saying, *Unless ye are circumcised *according to the law of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that *Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, should go up to the apostles and elders at Jerusalem, about this question.

3 And *being conducted forth by the church, they passed through Phenicia and Samaria, *recounting the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy to all the brethren.

4 And being come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church, and by the apostles and elders, and they announced all that God had done with them.

5 But there *arose some of the sect of the Pharisees, who believed, saying, *That it was necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter.

7 And after much debate, Peter arose and said to them, *Brethren, ye know that a long time ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles, by my mouth, should bear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, *who knoweth the hearts, bore them witness, *giving them the Holy Spirit, as he did to us:

9 *And made no distinction between us and them, *purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, *to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But *we believe, that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we are saved, in the same manner as they.

12 ¶ And all the assembly were silent, and listened to Barnabas and Paul, recounting what miracles and wonders God had *wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they were silent, James answered, saying, Brethren, hearken to me.

14 *Simeon hath declared how God first visited the Gentiles, to take from them a people for his name.

15 And with this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 *After this I will return, and rebuild the fallen tabernacle of David; and I will rebuild its ruins, and I will set it up:

17 That the rest of men may seek the Lord, and all the nations who are called by my name, saith the Lord, who doeth all this.

18 Known to God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore *my judgment is, that we trouble not those who from among the Gentiles *are turned to God:

20 But that we write to them that they abstain *from pollutions of idols, and *from fornication, and from things strangled, *and from blood.

21 For Moses hath of old his preachers in every city, *being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.

22 Then the apostles and elders, with the whole church, determined to send chosen men of their own number to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed *Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote by them thus; The apostles, and elders, and brethren, to their brethren of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia, send greeting.

24 Since we have heard, that *some who went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such instruction:

25 It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul:

26 *Men who have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who will themselves also by word tell you the same things.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 *That ye abstain from things offered to idols, and *from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye will do well. Farewell.

30 So they being dismissed came to Antioch: and assembling the multitude, they delivered the epistle.

31 And they having read it, rejoiced for the consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being themselves also prophets, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And having remained a while, they were dismissed in peace from the brethren to the apostles.

34 But it seemed good to Silas to remain there still.

35 And Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after, Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, called Mark.

38 But Paul thought proper not to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to their work.

39 And there arose a sharp contention, so that they separated from each other: and Barnabas took Mark, and sailed to Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren to the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

CHAPTER XVI.

¶ Paul having circumcised Timothy, and being called by the Spirit from one country to another, he converteth Lydia, he casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 For which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned. 26 The prison doors are opened. 31 The jailer is converted, 37 and they are delivered.

AND he came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a believing Jewish woman, but whose father was a Greek:

2 Who was well reported of by the brethren who were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him Paul wished to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him, on account of the Jews who were in those places: for they all knew that his father was a Greek:

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decisions to observe, that had been ordained by the apostles and elders at Jerusalem.

5 And so the churches were established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 And passing through Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, being forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia,

7 They came to Mysia, and endeavoured to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit did not permit them.

8 And passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And when he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go into Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.

11 Therefore setting sail from Troas, we took a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we continued in that city some days.

13 And on the Sabbath we went out of the city to the river, where prayer was accustomed to be made; and we sat down, and spoke to the women who were assembled.

14 ¶ And a certain woman Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, to attend to the things spoken by Paul.

15 And when she was immersed, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye judge me to be a believer in the Lord, come into my house, and remain there: And she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it happened as we were going to prayer, a certain damsel having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

17 She followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are servants of the most high God, who announce to us the way of salvation!

18 And this she did many days. But Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And her masters seeing that the hope of their gain was gone, laid hold of Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market to the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, greatly disturb our city,

21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive or practise, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

23 And having inflicted upon them many stripes, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely;

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises to God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 ¶ And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and instantly all the doors were opened, and the bonds of all were loosed.

27 And the jailer awaking from sleep, and seeing the prison-doors open, drew his sword, and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here!

29 And calling for a light, he sprang in, and trembling, fell down before Paul and Silas:

30 And bringing them out, said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, and to all who were in his house.

33 And he took them at that hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was immersed, he and all his, immediately.

34 And bringing them into his house, he placed food before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Dismiss those men.

36 And the jailer reported these words to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore come forth, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said to them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and thrown us into prison; and now do they thrust us out secretly? No; let them come themselves and bring us out.

38 And the sergeants reported these words to the magistrates: and they feared on hearing that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and bringing them out, desired them to go forth from the city.

40 And coming out of the prison, they went to the house of Lydia: and seeing the brethren, they exhorted them, and departed.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 4 where some believe, and others persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 13 Being persecuted at Thessalonica, 15 he cometh to Athens, and disputeth, and preacheth the living God to them unknown, 31 whereby many are converted to Christ.

AND passing through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was the synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as he was accustomed, went in among them, and for three Sabbaths reasoned with them from the scriptures,

3 Opening them, and setting forth that it was necessary that the Christ should suffer, and rise from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach to you, is the Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and joined themselves to Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women.

5 ¶ But the unbelieving Jews, moved with envy, taking to them idle and vicious men, and raising a mob, threw the city into a tumult, and assailing the house of Jason, sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And not finding them, they drew Jason and certain brethren to the rulers of the city, crying, These who have turned the world upside down, are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all act contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, who heard this.

9 And having taken security from Jason and the rest, they dismissed them.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night to Berea:

who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received their word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether this was so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; and of honourable Grecian women and men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica knew that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go to the sea: but Silas and Timothy remained there still.

15 And those who conducted Paul brought him to Athens: and receiving a command to Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they departed.

16 ¶ Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city filled with idolatry.

17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with such as met with him.

18 And some of the Epicurean and of the Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some said, What doth this babbler mean to say? others, He seemeth to be an announcer of strange gods: because he made known to them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine is, which thou utterest?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears; we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers who were there, spent their time in nothing else than in telling or hearing something new.)

22 ¶ And Paul standing in the midst of the Areopagus, said, Athenians, I perceive that in all things ye are very religious.

23 For as I passed by, and surveyed your objects of worship, I found an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him I declare to you.

24 ¶ God who made the world, and all things in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands.

25 Nor is worshipped by men's hands, as though he needed any thing, since he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And he made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, determining appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if perchance they might feel after him, and find him, although he is not far from each one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as also some of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of ignorance God overlooked; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath fixed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness, by the man whom he hath appointed: by which he hath given assurance to all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some ridiculed: and others said, We will hear thee again concerning this.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 But certain men adhered to him, and believed: among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth to the Gentiles. 9 The Lord encourageth him in a vision. 12 He is accused before Gallio the proconsul, but is dismissed. 18 Afterwards passing from city to city he strengtheneth the disciples. 24 Apollos, being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, 28 preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER this, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And finding a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, (because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome,) he came to them;

3 And because he was of the same trade, he remained with them, and wrought, (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.)

4 And he discoursed in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded both Jews and Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, testifying earnestly to the Jews, that Jesus was the Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and reviled, he shook his garments, and said to them, Your blood be upon your own heads: I am clean: henceforth I will go to the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And departing thence, he entered a certain man's house, named Justus, one who worshipped God, whose house was adjoining the synagogue.

8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord, with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were immersed.

9 And the Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and be not silent:

10 For I am with thee, and no one shall assail thee, to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching among them the word of God.

12 ¶ But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the tribunal, 13 Saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or wickedness, ye Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you:

16 And he drove them from his tribunal.

17 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the tribunal. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

18 ¶ And Paul having remained many days, took leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla, and Aquila; having shaven his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 And they desiring him to remain a longer time with them, he did not consent:

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep the coming feast at Jerusalem: but I will return again to you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And landing at Caesarea, he went up, and saluting the church, went down to Antioch.

23 And having spent some time there, he departed and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew, named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 He had been instructed in the way of the Lord: and being fervent in the spirit, he spoke and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the immersion of John.

26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But Aquila and Priscilla hearing him, took him to them, and explained to him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And he wishing to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: and when he came, he greatly aided those who had believed through grace.

28 For he powerfully confuted the Jews, and that publicly, shewing by the scriptures, that Jesus was the Christ.

CHAPTER XIX.

6 The Holy Spirit is given by Paul's hands. 9 The Jews blaspheme his doctrine, which is confirmed by miracles. 13 The Jewish exorcists 16 are beaten by the demon. 19 Conjuring books are burnt. 24 Demetrius, for love of gain, raiseth an uproar against Paul, 30 which is appeased by the chancellor.

AND it happened, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper districts, came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said to them, Have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed? And they said to him, We have not even heard that the Holy Spirit is given.

3 And he said to them, To what then were ye immersed? And they said, To John's immersion.

4 Then said Paul, John indeed immersed you with the immersion of repentance, saying to the people, that they should believe on him who came after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 And on hearing this, they were immersed in the name of the Lord Jesus;
 6 And Paul having laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke with tongues, and prophesied.
 7 And all the men were about twelve.
 8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake openly three months, reasoning and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.
 9 But when some were hardened, and believed not, speaking evil of his doctrine before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated his disciples, discoursing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.
 10 And this continued for two years; so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.
 11 And God wrought no ordinary miracles by the hands of Paul:
 12 So that handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and their diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.
 13 And some of the vagabond Jewish exorcists undertook to name to those who had evil spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.
 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.
 15 And the evil spirit answering, said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?
 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled from that house naked and wounded.
 17 And this was known to all, both Jews and Greeks, dwelling at Ephesus: and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
 18 And many of those who believed came, confessing and declaring their deeds.
 19 And many of those who practised curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
 20 So mightily did the word of God increase and prevail!
 21 When this was ended, Paul purposed in his spirit passing through Macedonia, and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there I must also see Rome.
 22 So he sent into Macedonia two of those who attended upon him, Timothy and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.
 23 And at that time there arose no little tumult about the doctrine.
 24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith, who made silver temples of Diana, brought no small gain to the craftsmen;
 25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this employment we have our wealth:
 26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not only at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away a great multitude, saying, that these are no gods that are made with hands.
 27 And there is danger, not only that this our business will fall into disgrace; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana will be despised, and her magnificence destroyed, whom all Asia, and the world worshippeth.

 28 And hearing this, they became full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians!
 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and seizing on Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, fellow-travellers of Paul, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.
 30 And when Paul would have entered in to the people, the disciples suffered him not.
 31 And some also of the chiefs of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him, entreating him not to trust himself in the theatre.
 32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the greater part knew not for what they were come together.
 33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoning with the hand, wished to make his defence to the people.
 34 But learning that he was a Jew, all with one voice, about two hours, cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians!
 35 And the chancellor, having quieted the people, said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?
 36 Since then this is undeniable, ye ought to be quiet, and do nothing rashly.
 37 For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither robbers of temples, nor revilers of your goddess.
 38 If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a complaint against any one, court days are held, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.
 39 But if ye have a demand concerning other matters, it shall be determined in the regular assembly.
 40 For we are in danger of being called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause for which we can give an account of this concourse.
 41 And having thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.
 CHAPTER XX.
 1 Paul goeth to Macedonia, 7 he celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus having fallen down dead, 10 is raised to life. 17 At Miletus he calleth the elders together, telleth them what shall befall to himself, 28 committeth God's stock to them, 29 warneth them of false teachers, 32 commendeth them to God, 36 prayeth with them, and goeth his way.
 AND after the tumult was ceased, Paul, having called to him the disciples, and embraced them, departed to go into Macedonia.
 2 And having gone through those regions, and given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,
 3 And remained there three months. And a plot being laid for him by the Jews, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.
 4 And there accompanied him into Asia,

Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before, waited for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and within five days came to them to Troas; where we spent seven days.

7 And on the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul discoursed to them, (being about to depart on the morrow,) and continued his discourse until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were assembled.

9 And there sat on the window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep; and as Paul discoursed very long, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 And coming up again, he broke bread, and ate, talked still a long while till break of day, and so departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little consoled.

13 ¶ And we going forward to the ship, sailed for Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for he had thus appointed, being himself about to go by land.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and after staying at Trogyllium, came the next day to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, that he might not spend time in Asia: for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem by the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they came to him, he said to them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, how I have conducted among you at all times,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and amidst many tears and trials, which befell me by the plots of the Jews:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable to you, but announced to you, and taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to Jews and Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ,

22 And now behold, I go bound in my spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will befall me there:

23 Except that the Holy Spirit testifyeth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions await me.

24 But none of these things move me, nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone proclaiming the kingdom of God, will see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to witness this day, that I am pure from the blood of all,

27 For I have not shunned to declare to you all the counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock of which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departure, grievous wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 And from among yourselves will men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that for three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

33 ¶ I have desired no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered to my wants, and to those who were with me.

35 I have at all times shewed you, that so labouring ye ought to assist the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And having thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept greatly, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Paul will not by any means be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. 9 Philip's daughters prophesies. 17 Paul cometh to Jerusalem: 27 where he is apprehended, and in great danger, 31 but by the captain is rescued, and permitted to speak to the people.

NOW after we had separated from them, we set sail and came with a straight course to Coos, and the day following to Rhodes, and thence to Patara:

2 And finding a ship passing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 And coming in sight of Cyprus, and leaving it on the left, we sailed for Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding the disciples, we remained there seven days: who bade Paul through the Spirit, not to go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had finished those days, we departed, and went on our way; and they all conducted us forth, with their wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And having taken our leave of one another, we entered the ship; and they returned to their homes.

7 But we finishing our voyage from Tyre, came to Ptolemais, and saluting the brethren, remained with them one day.

8 And the next day we who were of Paul's company departed, and came to Cesarea; and entering the house of Philip, the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we remained with him.

9 And he had four virgin daughters, who prophesied.

10 And while we remained there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus.

11 And he came to us, and taking Paul's girdle, bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit, So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owneth this girdle, and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard this, both we, and those of the place, entreated him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and to break my heart? for I am ready not only to be bound, but even to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done!

15 And after those days we gathered our effects, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also some disciples from Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And on the day following Paul went with us to James: and all the elders were present.

19 And having saluted them, he recounted particularly what God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And they, hearing it, glorified the Lord, and said to him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe; and they are all zealous for the law:

21 And they are informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, bidding them not to circumcise their children, nor to walk in the law.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must necessarily come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this which we say to thee: We have four men who have a vow on them;

24 Take these, and purify thyself with them, and pay their expenses, that they may shave their heads: and all will know that in what they were informed concerning thee, there is nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest in the observance of the law.

25 But concerning the believing Gentiles, we wrote and decided that they observe no such thing, only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and on the next day purifying himself with them, entered the temple, giving notice of the accomplishment of the days of purification, until the offering should be offered for each one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further, hath brought Greeks also into the temple, and polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was aroused, and the people ran together: and they took Paul and drew him out of the temple. And immediately the doors were shut.

31 And as they sought to kill him, Gings came to the captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar;

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And they seeing the captain and the soldiers, ceased beating Paul.

33 Then the captain came near and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains: and inquired who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and being unable to know the certainty on account of the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, it happened that he was borne by the soldiers, on account of the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed, crying, Away with him!

37 And as Paul was about to be led into the castle, he said to the captain, May I speak to thee? But he said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou the Egyptian, who some time ago made an insurrection, and led off into the desert those four thousand assassins?

39 But Paul said, I am a Jew of Tarsus, a citizen of no obscure city in Cilicia: and I beseech thee permit me to speak to the people.

40 And he having given him permission, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with his hand to the people. And a great silence prevailing, he addressed them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER XXII.

1 Paul declareth at large, how he was converted to the faith, 17 and called to his apostleship. 22 At the very mentioning of the Gentiles, the people acclaim on him. 24 He would have been scourged, 26 but claiming the privilege of a Roman, he escapeth.

BRETHREN, and fathers, hear my defence which I now make to you.

2 (And hearing that he addressed them in the Hebrew tongue, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I indeed am a Jew, born in Tarsus, of Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strictness of the law of our fathers, and being zealous towards God, as ye all are to-day.

4 And I persecuted this sect to death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and 'all the elders; 'from whom also having received letters to the brethren, I was going to Damascus, to bring those who were there bound to Jerusalem, to be punished.

6 And 'it happened, that, as I made my journey, and was approaching Damascus about noon, suddenly a great light from heaven shone around me.

7 And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And 'those who were with me saw indeed the light, and were terrified; but they heard not the voice of him who spoke to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all which it is appointed thee to do.

11 And as I could not see from the brightness of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And 'one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, 'having a good report from all the 'Jews who dwell there, 13 Came to me, and stood, and said to me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked upon him.

14 And he said, 'The God of our fathers 'hath appointed thee to know his will, and to 'see 'the Just One, and 'to hear the voice of his mouth.

15 'For thou shalt be his witness to all men of 'what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why delayest thou? arise, be immersed, 'and wash away thy sins, 'calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And 'it came to pass, that, having returned to Jerusalem, as I was praying in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And 'saw him saying to me, 'Hasten, and go forth quickly from Jerusalem; for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, 'they know that I imprisoned, and 'beat in every synagogue those who believe on thee:

20 'And when the blood of thy witness Stephen was shed, I myself also stood by, and 'approved his death, and kept the garments of those who slew him.

21 And he said to me, Depart: 'for I will send thee afar to the Gentiles.

22 And they heard him up to this word, and then raised their voices, and said, 'Away with such a man from the earth! for it is not fit that 'he should live!

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their garments, and threw dust into the air, 24 The captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who stood by, 'Is it lawful for you to scourge a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest; for this man is a Roman.

27 And the captain came, and said to him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the captain answered, With a great sum I bought my citizenship. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Immediately therefore those who were about to examine him, departed from him: and the captain also feared, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, wishing to know with certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he released him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down, and placed him before them.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 As Paul pleadeth his cause, 2 Ananias commandeth them to smite him. 7 Dissension among his accusers. 11 God encourageth him. 14 The Jews' laying wait for Paul 20 is declared to the captain. 27 He sendeth him to Felix the governor.

AND Paul, fixing his eyes on the council, said, Brethren, 'I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him, 'to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then Paul said to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall! for sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and 'commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And those who stood by, said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 And Paul said, 'I knew not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, 'Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 And Paul, knowing that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, cried out in the council, Brethren, 'I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: 'I am tried concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And as he said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 'For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees acknowledge both.

9 And there arose a great clamour: and the scribes who belonged to the party of the Pharisees, arose, and contended, saying, 'We find no evil in this man: but 'if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, 'let us not fight against God.

10 And a great dissension arising, the captain, fearing that Paul would be pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and take him from among them, and bring him to the castle.

11 And 'the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Take courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so thou must also testify at Rome.

12 And when it was day, 'some of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves 'under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And there were more than forty who had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves by a curse, to eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore do ye with the council give notice to the captain, that he bring him down to you to-morrow, as though ye would ascertain something more accurately concerning him: and we, before he is near, are ready to kill him.

16 And the son of Paul's sister hearing of their plot, went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions to him, and said, Bring this young man to the captain; for he hath something to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to him, and asked me to bring this young man to thee, who hath something to say to thee.

19 And the captain took him by the hand, and going aside privately, asked him, What is it which thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, to bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him.

21 But do not thou yield to them: for more than forty men of them lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves with an oath, neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now they are ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain dismissed the young man with the charge, Tell no one that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called to him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe to Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter to this effect:

26 Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them: But I coming with my soldiers, rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.

28 And wishing to know the reason why they accused him, I brought him into their council:

29 Whom I found to be accused of questions in their law, but charged with nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And being informed that a plot was about to be laid by the Jews against the man, I sent him immediately to thee, commanding also his accusers to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 So the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, coming to Cesarea, delivered the epistle to the governor, and presented Paul also before him.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 answereth for his life and doctrine. 24 He preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife. 26 The governor hopeth for a bribe, but to vain. 27 At last, going out of his office, he leaveth Paul in prison.

AND after five days, Ananias the high priest descended with the elders and a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And he being called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Since by thee we enjoy great quietness, and prosperity ariseth to this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 But lest I trouble thee too far, I pray thee to hear us in thy clemency a few words.

5 For finding this man to be a pest, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the empire, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes,

6 And one who endeavoured to profane the temple, we took him, and would have tried him according to our law:

7 But Lysias the captain came upon us, and with great violence took him from our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: by examining whom thou canst thyself ascertain concerning every thing of which we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, That this was so.

10 Then Paul, the governor having beckoned to him to speak, answered, Since I know thee to have been for many years a judge to this nation, I the more cheerfully plead for myself:

11 For thou canst know, that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple discoursing with any one, nor exciting the multitude either in the synagogues, or in the city:

13 Nor can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.

14 But this I acknowledge to thee, that according to the doctrine which they call heresy, thus I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 Having hope toward God, which they themselves also cherish, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both just and unjust.

16 And for this do I strive always to have a pure conscience towards God and towards men.

17 Now, after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Upon which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and accuse, if they had aught against me.

20 Or let these persons themselves say, what crime they found in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Unless for that one declaration which I uttered aloud while standing among them, 'For the resurrection of the dead I am tried by you to-day.

22 And Felix hearing this, being more accurately acquainted with the doctrine, put them off, saying, When 'Lysias the captain shall come down, I will inquire fully into your cause.

23 And he commanded the centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and 'to forbid none of his acquaintance to serve him or come to him.

24 And after some days, Felix coming with his wife Drusilla, a Jewess, sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he discoursed concerning righteousness, temperance, and the judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Depart for the present; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that 'money would be given him by Paul, that he might release him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and conversed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix: and Felix, 'wishing to gain favour with the Jews, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER XXV.

3 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth to Cesar. 14 Afterwards Festus openeth the matter to king Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth. 25 Festus cleareth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he went up from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 'And the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 Asking a favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, 'while they laid a plot to slay him on the road.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul was in keeping at Cesarea, and that he himself should soon go thither.

5 Let then, said he, the powerful among you go down with me, and 'if there is any charge against this man, accuse him.

6 And having spent among them 'more than ten days, he went down to Cesarea; and the next day sitting on his tribunal, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around, 'alleging many weighty charges against Paul, which they could not prove;

8 While he said in defence, 'Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Cesar have I committed any offence.

9 But Festus, 'wishing to gain the favour of the Jews, answered Paul, and said, 'Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be tried for these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's tribunal, where I ought to be tried: to the Jews I have done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 'For if I am an offender, and have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there is nothing in the things of which they accuse me, no one can yield me to their pleasure. 'I appeal to Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, 'Thou hast appealed to Cesar; thou shalt go to Cesar.

13 And after some days, king Agrippa and Bernice came to Cesarea, to salute Festus.

14 And as they were spending there several days, Festus laid before the king the case of Paul, saying, 'There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 'About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish elders informed me, demanding his condemnation.

16 'To whom I answered, It is not the custom of the Romans to deliver any man to death, before the accused hath his accusers face to face, and have opportunity to defend himself against the charge.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, 'without any delay on the next day I sat on the tribunal, and ordered the man to be brought forth;

18 Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no such charges as I expected:

19 'But had certain controversies with him concerning their own religion, and about one Jesus, who had died, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And I being at a loss about the examination of this matter, asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be tried concerning these things.

21 But Paul appealing to be reserved to the 'hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 And 'Agrippa said to Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, Agrippa and Bernice coming with great pomp, and entering the place of hearing, with the captains and principal men of the city, at the order of Festus Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all ye men who are here present with us, ye see this man about whom 'all the multitude of the Jews applied to me, both at Jerusalem, and here, crying that he ought 'not to live any longer. 25 But when I found that 'he had committed nothing worthy of death, 'and he himself appealed to Augustus, I determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have nothing certain to write to my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before thee, king Agrippa, that after examination I may have something to write.

27 For it seemed to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not also to indicate the charges against him.

CHAPTER XXVI.

2 Paul, in the presence of Agrippa, declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship. 24 Festus chargeth him to be mad, whereto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost persuaded to be a Christian. 31 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

THEN Agrippa said to Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and began his defence:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, that I am to defend myself to-day before thee, concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be acquainted with all the customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I entreat thee to hear me patiently.

4 My mode of life from my youth, which was from the beginning among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 Who knew me from the beginning, (if they will testify,) that according to the strictest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand, and am tried for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers:

7 To which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God day and night, hope to attain. Concerning which hope, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.

8 What! is it thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I indeed thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even to strange cities.

12 Upon which, as I went to Damascus, with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining around me, and those who journeyed with me.

14 And we having all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the goads.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But arise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared to thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witness both of what thou hast seen, and of what I will reveal to thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Whereupon, king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first to those of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the regions of Judea, and to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance.

21 For these reasons the Jews seizing me in the temple, endeavoured to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained assistance from God, I continue to this day, testifying both to small and great, saying nothing except what the prophets and Moses said was to happen:

23 That the Christ would suffer, and that he, having first arisen from the dead, would shew light to his people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus made his defence, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art mad! thy much learning maketh thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but I utter the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth concerning these things, before whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this hath not been done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 And Agrippa said to Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all who hear me to-day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them:

31 And they retired, and talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 And Agrippa said to Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Caesar.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Paul shipping toward Rome, 10 foretelleth of the danger of the voyage, 11 but is not believ'd.

14 They are tossed in and fro with tempest, 41 and suffer shipwreck, 22, 34, 44 yet all come safe to land.

AND when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him liberty to go to his friends to refresh himself.

4 And launching thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And sailing over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy, and put us on board of it.

7 And sailing slowly many days, and hardly coming over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we ran under Crete, at Salmone:

8 And hardly sailing along the coast, we came to a place called The Fair Havens; near which was the city of Lasca.

9 And much time having been spent, and sailing being now dangerous, because the fast was already passed, Paul admonished them,

10 Saying, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with injury and great loss, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 But the centurion yielded rather to the pilot and the master of the ship than to what was said by Paul.

12 And the harbour being unfit to winter in, the most advised to sail thence also, if perchance they might reach Phoenix, a harbour of Crete, lying towards the south-west and north-west, and there winter.

13 And a gentle south wind blowing, they supposed they had obtained their purpose, and weighing anchor, sailed along close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And the ship being caught, and unable to face the wind, we gave up, and let her drift.

16 And running under a certain island called Claudia, we could hardly get possession of the boat:

17 Which they took up, and used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, lowered the mast, and so were driven.

18 And we being violently tossed by the tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And on the third day we threw over with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And as neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and a violent storm pressed upon us, all hope of safety was at last taken away.

21 And all neglecting food, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened to me, and not have sailed from Crete, and so have been spared this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to take courage: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night an angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must stand before Cesar: and lo, God hath given thee all who sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, take courage: for I believe God, that it will be as it was told me.

26 But we must be thrown upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic, about midnight the shipmen suspected that they were approaching some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and going a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 And fearing lest they should fall upon rocks, they cast four anchors from the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And the sailors seeking to flee from the ship, and letting down the boat into the sea, under the pretext that they were about to cast anchors out of the foreship.

31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Unless these remain in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul entreated them all to take food, saying, To-day is the fourteenth day that ye have waited, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

54 Wherefore I pray you to take some food; for this is for your safety: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

55 And saying this, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and he broke it, and began to eat.

56 Then they were all encouraged, and they also took food.

57 And we were in all in the ship two hundred and seventy-six souls.

58 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and threw the wheat into the sea.

59 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain inlet with a convenient shore, into which they were inclined, if possible, to thrust the ship.

60 And cutting away the anchors, they let them go into the sea, at the same time loosing the rudder-bands; and raising the mainsail to the wind, they made toward shore.

61 And falling into a shallow place, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained immovable, but the stern was broken by the violence of the waves.

62 And it was the plan of the soldiers to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

63 But the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim, should first plunge into the sea, and get to land:

64 And the rest, some on boards, and some on other pieces of the ship. And so it happened, that they all escaped safe to land.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Paul after his shipwreck is kindly entertained by the barbarians. 5 The viper on his hand hurtleth him not. 8 He healeth many diseases in the island. 11 They depart towards Rome. 17 He declareth to the Jews the cause of his coming. 24 After his preaching some were persuaded, and some believed not. 30 Yet he preacheth there two years.

AND having escaped, they learned that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarians shewed us no ordinary kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us all under their care, on account of the continued rain, and on account of the cold.

3 And Paul having gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the animal hang on his hand, they said among themselves, Assuredly this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet justice suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the animal into the fire, and suffered no harm.

6 But they were expecting that he would swell, or suddenly fall dead: but after looking a great while, and seeing no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 Near that place were the lands of the chief man of the island, whose name was

Paul; who received and entertained us kindly three days.

8 And it happened, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody-flux: to whom Paul entered in, and praying, laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 Now this being done, the others also who had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, furnished us with such things as we needed.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the island, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we remained there three days.

13 And thence sailing about, we came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came on the second day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went towards Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and The Three Taverns; whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was permitted to dwell by himself, with a soldier who guarded him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called together the chief of the Jews. And when they were assembled, he said to them, Brethren, though I have done nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans:

18 Who having examined me, wished to let me go, as there was no cause of death in me.

19 But the Jews opposing it, I was con-

22 But we desire to hear from thee what thou thinkest: for concerning this sect, we know that it is every where spoken against.

25 And disagreeing among themselves, they departed, Paul having spoken one word, Well did the Holy Spirit speak by Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, 26 Saying, Go to this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should turn, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles; and they will hear it.

29 And he having said this, the Jews departed, having much dispute among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all who came in to him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no one hindering him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER I.

ANNO DOMINI 60.

ANNO DOMINI 60.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans, & and his desire to come to them. 16 What his gospel is, and the righteousness which it sheweth. 18 God is angry with all manner of sin. 21 What were the sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart to the gospel of God,

2 (Which he formerly promised by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who sprang from the seed of David as to the flesh;

4 And was declared to be the Son of God with power, as to the Spirit of holiness, by his resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for producing obedience to the faith among all nations, on behalf of his name:

6 Among whom are ye also, called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is celebrated through the whole world.

9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I remember you; always in my prayers

10 Entreating (if by any means I may at length have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come to you.

11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, that ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 And I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that I often purposed to come to you, (but was hindered hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you, as also among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debtor both to Greeks and Barbarians; both to the wise and unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also who are at Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God for salvation to every one who believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For herein is revealed a righteousness of God from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who hinder the truth by unrighteousness.

19 Because what may be known of God, is manifest among them; for God hath manifested it to them.

20 For his invisible attributes, both his eternal power and Godhead, are, since the creation of the world, clearly seen, being understood by his works; so that they are without excuse:

21 Because when they knew God, they honoured him not as God, nor were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools;

23 And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore God also gave them up to the desires of their hearts to uncleanness, to dishonour their own bodies among themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creation instead of the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up to shameful lusts. For their women changed the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And in like manner also the males, leaving the natural use of the female, burned in their lust towards one another; males with males practising abominations, and receiving in themselves the due recompense of their error.

28 And as they did not think proper to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do that which is not becoming:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, malignity, covetousness, mischief; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malevolence; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, insolent, proud, boasters, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unpleasable, unmerciful:

32 Who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who commit such things are worthy of death; not only do them, but have pleasure in those who do them.

Gentiles. 14 The Gentiles cannot escape, 17 yet the Jews, 25 whom their circumcision shall not profit, if they keep not the law.

17 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whoever thou art, that judgest! for while thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou who judgest, doest the same things.

2 But we know that the judgment of God is according to truth, upon those who practise such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, who judgest those practising such things, and doest the same, that thou wilt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But by thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up to thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and of the revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who will render to each one according to his deeds:

7 To those who by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality, eternal life:

8 But to those who are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation, and wrath:

9 Affliction and distress upon every soul of man that doeth evil; of the Jew first, and also of the Greek;

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every one who worketh good; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek;

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, will also perish without law: and as many as have sinned under the law, will be judged by the law,

13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law will be justified.)

14 For when nations that have no law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these having no law, are a law to themselves.

15 Who shew the deeds of the law written in their hearts, (their conscience also bearing them witness, and their thoughts mutually accusing, or also excusing them;)

16 In the day when God will judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and trestest in the law, and makest thy boast in God,

18 And knowest his will, and provest what is right and wrong, being instructed from the law,

19 And trustest that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the ignorant, a teacher of the simple, having in the law the very form of knowledge, and of truth:

21 Thou therefore who teacheest another, teacheest thou not thyself? thou who preacheest, a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou who forbiddest to commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou who was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while yet uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all who believe, though uncircumcised, that righteousness may be reckoned to them also;

12 And the father of the circumcised not only to those of the circumcision, but also to those who walk in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had while yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be heir of the world was not to Abraham, or to his seed, by law, but by the righteousness of faith.

14 For if those of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is done away.

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, neither is there transgression.

16 Therefore it was of faith, that it might be by grace; in order that the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before God whom he believed, who giveth life to the dead, and calleth those things which are not, as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed with hope, that he should become the father of many nations; according to what had been said, So shall thy seed be;

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body already dead, (he being about an hundred years old,) nor the deadness of Sarah's womb.

20 Nor did he through unbelief doubt the promise of God; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was reckoned to him for righteousness.

23 Now, it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned to him;

24 But for ours also, to whom it is to be reckoned, while we believe on him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead,

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and raised for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in our hope, 3 that since we were reconciled by his blood, when we were enemies, 10 we shall much more be saved being reconciled. 13 As sin and death came by Adam, 17 so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ. 20 Where sin abounded, grace did superabound.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By whom also we have access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we also glory in our afflictions; knowing that affliction worketh patience;

4 And patience, approbation; and approbation, hope:

5 And our hope doth not put us to shame: because the love of God is shed forth in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who is given to us.

6 For we being still [wretched, in due season Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: though perchance for the good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God establisheth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved through him from wrath.

10 For if when enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also rejoice in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the reconciliation.

12 Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed through upon all men, in that all sinned:

13 (For until the law, sin was in the world: but sin is not accounted when there is no law.

14 Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a type of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one the many died, much more the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded to many.

16 And not as the sentence through one who sinned, is the gift. For the sentence was from one offence to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences to justification.

17 For if by the offence of the one death reigned through the one; much more will those who receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, reign in life by the one, Jesus Christ.)

18 So then, as by one offence sentence came upon all men to condemnation, so also by one righteous act the free gift came upon all men to justification of life.

19 For as by the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so also by the obedience of the one will the many be made righteous.

20 And the law was introduced, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace much more abounded:

21 That as sin hath reigned through death, so also grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VI.

1 We may not live in sin, for we are dead to it. 3 as appeareth by our immersion. 12 Let not sin reign any more, 18 because we have yielded ourselves to the service of righteousness, 22 and because death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 By no means! how shall we, who are dead to sin, any longer live in it?

3 Or are ye ignorant that we who were our Lord. So then, with the understanding indeed, I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER VIII.

They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit: 17 and what of being God's child, 19 whose glorious deliverance all things long for, 29 was beforehand decreed from God. 33 What can sever us from his love?

THERE is therefore no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what was impossible for the law, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law may be fulfilled by us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For those who are after the flesh, mind the things of the flesh: but those who are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace:

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can it be.

8 And those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. And if any one hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ is in you, the body indeed is dead on account of sin; but the spirit is life on account of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, the who raised Christ from the dead will also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye will die: but if through the Spirit ye mortify the deeds of the body, ye will live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are sons of God.

15 For ye have not received a servile spirit, that ye should again be in fear; but ye have received the Spirit of sonship, by which we cry, Abba, Father!

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs: heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified with him.

18 For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which is to be revealed to us.

19 For the earnest longing of the creation is awaiting the manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creation was made subject to decay, (not voluntarily, but on account of him who subjected it,) in hope

21 That the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groans, and are in pangs together until now:

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, awaiting our adoption, the redemption of our body.

24 For we have been saved by hope. But hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for what we see not, we steadfastly wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with unutterable groanings.

27 And he who searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints, according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good, to those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose.

29 For whom he foreknew, he also predestinated to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 And whom he predestinated, these he also called: and whom he called, these he also justified: and whom he justified, these he also glorified.

31 What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who is against us?

32 He who spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how will he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who will bring a charge against the elect of God? It is God who justifieth them.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ who died, or rather, who is risen again, who is also at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who will separate us from the love of Christ? will affliction, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 (As it is written, For thy sake we are put to death all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.)

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him who loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death nor life, neither angels nor principalities nor powers, neither things present nor things to come,

39 Neither height nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 28 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The gentile may do with his clay what he will. 25 The calling of the Gentiles and rejection of the Jews were foretold. 33 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

14 How then shall they call on him on whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe on him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, unless they are sent forth? as it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the glad tidings of peace, who bring glad tidings of good!'

16 But 'they have not all hearkened to the glad tidings. For Isaiah saith, 'Lord, who hath believed, what he heareth from us?'

17 So then, faith cometh from hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, 'their sound went into all the earth, and their words to the extremities of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel understand this? First, Moses saith, 'I will move you to jealousy by what is not a people, by a foolish nation I will excite your anger.'

20 But Isaiah is very bold, and saith, 'I was found by those who sought me not; I became manifest to those who asked not after me.'

21 But 'Isaiah he saith, 'All day long I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and gainsaying people.'

CHAPTER XI.
1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not exult over them: 26 for there is a promise of their salvation. 33 God's judgments are unsearchable.

I SAY then, 'Hath God cast away his people? By no means. For 'I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people whom he foreknew. Or know ye not what the scripture saith in the case of Elijah? how he intercedeth with God against Israel, saying,

3 'Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and overthrown thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God to him? 'I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 'Thus, therefore, there is also at the present time a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And 'if by grace, it is no longer of works: since then grace is no longer grace. But if of works, it is no longer grace: since then work is no longer work.

7 What then? 'what Israel seeketh it hath not obtained; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were blinded,

8 (So it is written, 'God hath given them the spirit of slumber, 'eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) until this day.

9 And David saith, 'Let their table become a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a reward to them:

10 'Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back perpetually.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled in order to fall? By no means: but 'by their fall salvation is come to the Gentiles, to move them to jealousy.

12 And if their fall is the riches of the world, and their diminution the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness!

13 For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as 'I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may move to jealousy my own kindred, and 'may save some of them.

15 For if their rejection is the reconciling of the world, what will their reception be, but life from the dead?

16 And if 'the first fruit is holy, so is also the lump; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 And if 'some of the branches were broken off, and thou, being a wild olive, wast engrafted among them, and made partaker of the root and fatness of the olive;

18 'Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be engrafted.

20 True; for their want of faith they were broken off, and by faith thou standest. 'Be not high-minded, but 'fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: towards those who fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness, 'if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise 'thou also will be cut off.

23 And they also, 'if they continue not in their unbelief, will be grafted in: for God is able again to graft them in.

24 For if thou wert cut out of thy natural wild olive, and wert engrafted contrary to nature into a good olive; how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive!

25 For I would not, brethren, have you ignorant of this secret, (lest ye be 'wise in your own estimation,) that 'blindness in part hath happened to Israel, 'until the fullness of the Gentiles come in;

26 And so all Israel will be saved: as it is written, 'The Deliverer will come out of Zion, and will turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 'For this is my covenant with them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As to the gospel indeed, they are enemies for your sake: but as to the election, they are 'beloved for the sake of their fathers.

29 For the favours and calling of God are 'unchangeable.

30 For as ye 'were formerly disobedient to God, but have now obtained mercy through their disobedience;

31 Thus also they are now disobedient, that through the mercy shown to you, they also may obtain mercy.

32 For 'God hath shut all up together in disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! 'how unsearchable are his judgments, and incomprehensible 'his ways!

34 'For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed to him?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him are all things: to whom be glory forever! Amen.

CHAPTER XII.

1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 3 No man must think too well of himself, 6 but attend every one on that calling wherein he is placed.
9 Love, and many other duties, are required of us.
19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

1 BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world:
but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given to me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath imparted to each the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all the members have not the same office:

5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and severally members of one another.

6 And having gifts, differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us be diligent in our ministering: or the that teacheth, in teaching:

8 Or he that exhorteth, in exhortation;
he that imparteth, let him do it with simplicity: the that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let love be without dissimulation.
Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be affectionate towards each other with brotherly love; in mutual respect surpassing one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in afflic-tion; persevering in prayer;

13 Communicating to the wants of the saints; given to hospitality.

14 Bless those who persecute you; bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

16 Be of the same mind among yourselves. Aspire not to high things, but condescend to the humble. Be not wise in your own esteem.

17 Render to none evil for evil. Practise what is honourable in the sight of all men.

18 If possible, as far as lieth in you, be at peace with all men.

19 Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place to the wrath of God: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 If then thine enemy hunger, feed him;

if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou wilt heap coals of fire on his head.
21 Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Subjection, and many other duties, we owe to the magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law.
11 Gluttony and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but from God: the existing powers are appointed by God.

2 Whoever therefore arrayeth himself against the power, resisteth the appointment of God: and those who resist will receive to themselves punishment.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. And wishest thou not to fear the power? do what is good, and thou shalt have praise of it:

4 For he is a servant of God for thy good.
But if thou doest evil, fear; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is a servant of God, an avenger to inflict punishment on him who doeth evil.

5 Wherefore it is necessary to be subject, not only on account of punishment, but also on account of conscience.

6 For, for this reason also ye pay tribute:
for they are God's ministers, attending to this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues:
tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no one any thing but mutual love:
for he who loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false testimony, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in these words, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to our neighbour:
therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And this do, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake from sleep:
for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore lay aside the works of darkness, and put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk becomingly, as in the day: not in revelling and drunkenness, not in lust and licentiousness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and have no care for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

CHAPTER XIV.

3 Men may not condemn nor condemn one the other for things indifferent: 13 but take heed that they give no offence in them: 15 for that the apostle proveh unallowful by many reasons.

HIM who is weak in his faith receive,
but not to doubtful disputations.
2 For one believeth that he may eat all things; but he who is weak, eateth only herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not, judge him that eateth: for God hath received him

1 Prov. 3. 7. & 26. 18. 1 Es. 5. 21. ch. 11. 25. 2 Prov. 25. 22. Mat. 5. 29. 1 Thes. 5. 15. 1 Pet. 3. 8. ch. 14. 15. 2 Cor. 2. 21. 2 Es. 10. 50. ch. 11. 18. Heb. 12. 11. 2 Lev. 19. 17. 1 Prov. 24. 25. ver. 17. 1 Douc. 22. 25. Heb. 10. 36. 2 Es. 23. 4. 2 Prov. 25. 21. 2 Mat. 5. 42.

4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth: but he will stand: for God is able to make him stand.

5 One esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let each one be fully assured in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it to the Lord: and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he regardeth it not. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for the giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and none dieth to himself.

8 For if we live, we live to the Lord; and if we die, we die to the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For, for this Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But thou, why judgest thou thy brother? or again thou, why dost thou despise thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, "As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall make acknowledgment to God.

12 So then each of us will give account of himself to God.

13 Let us then judge one another no longer: but determine this rather, not to put a stumbling-block, or an occasion of falling in a brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself: but to him who considereth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if through food thy brother is grieved, thou no longer walkest according to love. Destroy not with thy food him for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

18 For he who in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved by men.

19 Let us then strive for that which tendeth to peace, and mutual edification.

20 For food destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but they are evil to the man who is stumbled by what he eateth.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing by which thy brother stumbleth, or is led astray, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy he who condemneth not himself in that which he approveth!

23 And he who doubteth is condemned if he eat, because it is not of faith: for whatever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves, 3 for Christ did not so, 7 but receive one another, as Christ did us all, 8 both Jews 9 and Gentiles. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 28 and promiseth to see them, 30 and requesteth their prayers.

AND we who are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not please ourselves.

2 Let each one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

3 For Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatever was written formerly, was written for our instruction, that we by our patience, and the consolation of the scriptures, may have hope.

5 And may the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded towards each other, in Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also received you, to the glory of God.

8 And I say, that Jesus Christ hath become a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles have glorified God for his mercy; as it is written, "For this reason I will acknowledge thee among the Gentiles, and sing to thy name.

10 And again he saith, "Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, "Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and extol him, all ye people.

12 And again Isaiah saith, "There will be the root of Jesse, and he who will rise to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope.

13 And may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of kindness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 But I have written to you the more boldly, brethren, in part, as putting you in mind, on account of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be a servant of Jesus Christ among the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 I have then ground of glorying through Jesus Christ, in things pertaining to God.

18 For I will not venture to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and all around as far as Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 And thus have I striven to preach the gospel, namely, not where Christ was named, lest I should build on another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, "Those to whom he was not spoken of, shall see: and those who have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been often hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no longer a place in these regions, and having a great desire these many years to come to you;

24 Whenever I go into Spain, I will come to you: for I hope to see you in my journey, and to be sent on thither by you, when I am first somewhat satisfied with your company.

25 But now I go to Jerusalem to supply the wants of the saints.

26 For Macedonia and Achaia have thought proper to make some contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem.

27 They have thought proper, I say; and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have delivered to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that when I come to you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 And I beseech you, brethren, by the Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That I may be delivered from the unbelieving in Judea; and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints;

32 That I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 And the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER XVI.

3 Paul willeth the brethren to greet many, 17 and adviseth them to take heed to those who cause division and offences, 21 and after sundry salutations endeth with praise and thanks to God.

I COMMEND to you Phebe our sister, who is a servant of the church at Cenchrea:

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatever business she hath need of you: for she hath been herself a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my fellow-labourers in Christ Jesus:

4 (Who for my life laid down their own necks: to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles,)

5 And the church in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is the first-fruits of Achaia to Christ.

6 Salute Mary, who laboured much for us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are distinguished among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Salute Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our fellow-labourer in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute those of the household of Aristobulus.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, who laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

16 Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark those who cause divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

18 For such persons serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by flattery and fair words deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For your obedience is known to all I rejoice therefore over you: but I would have you wise to what is good, and simple as to evil.

20 And the God of peace will speedily crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 Timothy my fellow-labourer, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 Gaius my host, and that of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus our brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now to him who is able to establish you through my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the disclosure of the secret, which was kept silent in ancient times,

26 But now is made manifest, and by the prophetic writings, according to the command of the eternal God, made known to all nations for their obedience to the faith:

27 To the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

¶ Written to the Romans from Corinth, by Phebe servant of the church of Cenchrea.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

After his salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, and 12 reproveth their dissensions. 13 God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise, 21 by the foolishness of preaching, and 26 calleth not the wise, mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

2 To the church of God which is at Corinth, to the sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:

3 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you in Jesus Christ;

5 That ye are enriched by him with every thing, with all speech, and with all knowledge;

6 (Even as the testimony of Christ was established among you.)

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 Who will also confirm you to the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called into the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by the kindred of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 And I mean this, that each of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye immersed in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I immersed none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had immersed in mine own name.

16 And I immersed also the household of Stephanas; further, I know not whether I immersed any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to immerse, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of speech, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

18 For the doctrine of the cross is to those who perish, foolishness; but to us who are saved, it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the intelligent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

nor ear heard, nor hath entered the heart of man, what God hath prepared for those who love him.

10 But to us God hath revealed it by his Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, even the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, except the spirit of man which is in him? thus also the things of God knoweth none but the Spirit of God.

12 And we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we may know the things that are freely given to us by God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Holy Spirit; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him: and he cannot know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But the spiritual man discerneth indeed all things, yet is himself discerned by none.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER III.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Strife and division, arguments of a fleshly mind. 7 He that planteth, and he that watereth, are nothing. 9 The ministers are God's fellow-workmen. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which will must be kept holy. 19 The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God.

AND I, brethren, could not speak to you as spiritual, but as carnal, as babes in Christ.

2 I fed you with milk, and not with meat: for as yet ye were not able to bear it, nor even now are ye able.

3 For ye are still carnal: for since there are among you envy, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, and that as the Lord gave to each?

6 I planted, Apollos watered: but God caused the growth.

7 So that, neither is he who planteth any thing, nor he who watereth: but God who causeth the growth.

8 But he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and each will receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

9 For we are God's fellow-labourers: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which was given to me, I, as a wise master-builder, have laid the foundation; and another buildeth upon it. But let each one take heed how he buildeth upon it.

11 For none can lay another foundation than that which is already laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 But if any one buildeth upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work will become manifest: for the day of judgment will show it, which reveals itself in fire; and the fire will prove of what sort is each one's work.

14 If any one's work which he hath built thereon remain, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any one's work shall be burned up, he shall suffer loss: but he himself will be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any one destroy the temple of God, God will destroy him: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no one deceive himself. If any one among you is reputed to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no one glory in men: for all things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER IV.

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had. 7 We have nothing which we have not received. 9 The apostles spectacles to the world, angels, and men. 13 the filth and off-scouring of the world: 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 16 whom we ought to follow.

LET a man thus regard us, as servants of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by human judgment: nay, I do not even judge myself;

4 For though I am conscious with myself of no evil, yet I am not therefore justified: but he who judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall each one have his praise from God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes: that ye may learn in us not to prize your teachers above what is written, that none of you on account of one teacher may be puffed up against another.

7 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou which thou didst not receive? and if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Ye are already satiated, ye are already rich, without us ye reign as kings: and I would ye did reign, that we also might reign with you!

9 For I think that God hath appointed us the apostles to the humblest place, as condemned to death: for we are become a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 'Up to this present hour we hunger, and thirst, and 'are naked, and 'are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 'And labour, working with our own hands. 'Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure;

13 Being rail'd at, we entreat: 'we are become as the filth of the world, and the off-scouring of all things to this day.

14 I write not thus to shame you, but 'as my beloved sons I admonish you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet ye have not many fathers: for 'in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore, I beseech you, 'become imitators of me.

17 For this reason I have sent to you 'Timothy, 'who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will 'remind you of my ways in Christ, as I 'teach every where 'in every church.

18 'Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.

19 'But I will come to you shortly, 'if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up, but the power.

20 For 'the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? 'shall I come to you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER V.

1 The incestuous person is cause rather of shame to them, than of rejoicing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be shamed and avoided.

IT is generally reported that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not even 'named among the Gentiles, 'that one should have his 'father's wife.

2 'And ye are puffed up, and ye have not rather 'mourn'd, that he who hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 'For I indeed, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have decided already as though I were present, concerning him who hath so done this deed.

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ye being gathered together, and my spirit, 'with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 'To deliver such a one to 'Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 'Your glorying is not good. Know ye not, that 'a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Cleanse out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For 'Christ our 'passover [was sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore 'let us keep [the feast, 'not with old leaven, nor 'with the leaven of wickedness and malice; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote to you in my epistle, 'not to have intercourse with fornicators:

10 'Yet not wholly with the fornicators 'of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters: since then ye would be obliged to go 'out of the world.

a man doeth, is without the body; but he who committeth fornication, sinneth against his own body.

19 Or know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom ye have from God, and ye are not your own?

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER VII.

2 He treateth of marriage, & shewing it to be a remedy against fornication: 10 and that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 18, 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects we may either marry, or abstain from marrying.

NOW concerning the things of which ye wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 But, to avoid fornication, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render to his wife due affection: and likewise also the wife to her husband.

4 The wife hath not the control of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the control of his own body, but the wife.

5 Deprive not one another, unless by agreement for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not on account of your incontinency.

6 But I say this by way of permission, not of command.

7 For I could wish all men to be as myself. But each one hath his own gift from God, one in this way, and another in that.

8 But I say to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they remain even as I.

9 But if they cannot control themselves, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 But to the married I give command, yet not I, but the Lord, That the wife do not separate from her husband, 11 (But if she have separated, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband;) and that the husband do not leave his wife.

12 But to the rest I speak, not the Lord, If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not leave her.

13 And the woman who hath an unbelieving husband, and he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now they are holy.

15 But if the unbeliever withdraw, let him withdraw. The brother or the sister is not bound in such cases. But God hath called us to peace:

16 For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to each one, as the Lord hath called each one, so let him walk. And so I direct in all the churches.

18 Is any one called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 In whatever calling each was called, in this let him remain.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou canst become free, use it rather.

22 For he who is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: So also he who is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price; become not servants of men.

24 Wherein each one is called, brethren, therein let him remain with God.

25 And as to virgins, I have no command from the Lord: yet I give my judgment as one who hath obtained the favour from the Lord of being his faithful servant.

26 I think therefore that this is good for the present distress: I say, that it is good for a man to remain as he is.

27 Art thou bound to a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But if also thou marry, thou hast not sinned: and if the virgin marry, she hath not sinned. But such will have affliction in the flesh; but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, The time is short. It remaineth, that those who have wives, be as not having them;

30 And those who weep, as not weeping; and those who rejoice, as not rejoicing; and those who buy, as not possessing;

31 And those who use this world, as not abusing it. For the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without worldly care. The unmarried man careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But the married man careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is a difference also between the wife and the virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but the married woman careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I say for your own benefit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for decorum, and for your undistracted attendance on the Lord.

36 But if any one thinketh that he bringeth dishonour on his virgin daughter, if she be past the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Yet he who standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath determined this in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 So that he who giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he who giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she thus continue in my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols. 8, 9 We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren: 11 but must bridle our knowledge with love.

BUT concerning things sacrificed to idols, we know; (because we all have knowledge; only knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth;

2 And if any one think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any one love God, he is taught by him;)

4 Concerning therefore the eating of things offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.

5 For though there are what are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there are gods many, and lords many;)

6 Yet to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we live by him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Yet all have not this knowledge: for some, with conscience in regard to the idol, eat until now as of an idol-sacrifice: and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

8 But food commendeth us not to God; for neither if we eat have we the better; nor if we eat not, have we the worse.

9 But take heed lest perchance this liberty of yours become a stumbling-block to the weak.

10 For if any one see thee, who hast knowledge, reclining at table in the idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat of idol-sacrifices;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 And in thus sinning against the brethren, and wounding their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if food lead my brother astray, I will never eat flesh, lest I lead astray my brother.

CHAPTER IX.

1 He sheweth his liberty, 7 and that the minister ought to live by the gospel: 15 yet that himself hath of his own accord abstained, 18 to be either chargeable to them, or offensive to any, in matters indifferent. 24 Our life is like a race.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I am not an apostle to others, yet at least I am to you: for ye are the seal of mine apostleship in the Lord:

3 Such is my reply to those who examine me.

4 And have we not the right to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not the right to lead about a sister, as a wife, as well as the other apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I on, y and Barnabas, have not we the right to refrain from working?

7 Who ever goeth to war at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of its fruit? or who tendeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I this as a man? or saith not the law this also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? Yes, for our sakes it is written: because he who plougheth ought to plough in hope; and he who thresheth, to thresh in hope of partaking the fruits of his hope.

11 If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others enjoy this right in regard to you, do not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this right; but endure all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Know ye not that those employed in the worship of the temple eat of the temple, and those who attend at the altar partake of the altar?

14 Thus also hath the Lord ordained that those who preach the gospel should live by the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things; nor have I written this, that it should be so done to me: for it were better for me to die, than that any one should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for a necessity is laid upon me; yea, wo is me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this willingly, I have a reward: but if unwillingly, still I am entrusted with a stewardship in the gospel.

18 What then is my reward? That in preaching, I may make the gospel of Christ without expense, that I may not abuse my right in the gospel.

19 For though I am independent of all, I have made myself servant to all, that I might gain the more.

20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to those under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those under the law;

21 To those without law, as without law, (not being without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain those who are without law.

22 To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the sake of the gospel, that I may become a partaker of it with others.

24 Know ye not, that those who run in a race, all indeed run, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every combatant is in all things temperate; they indeed to obtain a perishable crown; but we an imperishable.

26 I therefore so run, as not uncertainly; I so contend as not beating the air:

27 But I subdue and bring into subjection my body: lest, having preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

23 If therefore the whole church assemble together, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in unbelieving or unlearned, he is convicted by all, he is judged by all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in truth among you.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, each of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all be done to edifying.

27 If any one speak in an unknown tongue, let it be but two, or at most three, and in turn; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 And of the prophets, let two or three speak, and let the rest judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first be silent.

31 For ye can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all be exhorted;

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets;

33 For God is not a God of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches; for it is not permitted to them to speak: but they must be in subjection, as also saith the law.

35 And if they wish to learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home; for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 Or did the word of God come forth from you? or hath it come to you only?

37 If any one is regarded as a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that what I write to you are commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any one is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, seek the gift of prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 But let all things be done decently, and in order.

CHAPTER XV.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he prove the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them, that shall be found alive at the last day.

AND I remind you, brethren, of the gospel which I preached to you, which ye also received, and in which ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye hold fast that which I preached to you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you first of all, what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he arose on the third day according to the scriptures;

5 And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve:

Act 3. 16, & 25. 24. 1 Tim. 1. 11. & 2. 24.

1 Pa. 2. 7, & 16. 10. Rom. 6. 2. 1 Cor. 24. 24, 46.

Act 2. 24-31. 2. 22, 27, 28. 1 Pet. 1. 11.

1 Luke 24. 34. 1 Mar. 23. 17. Mark 16. 14. Luce 24. 36. John 20. 13, 26. Act 10. 41.

6 Afterward he was seen by above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the most remain until now, but some are fallen asleep.

7 Then he was seen by James; then by all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen by me also, as it were alone untimely born.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured more than they all; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Whether then it was I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 And if Christ is preached that he hath risen from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ is not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 And we also prove false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if indeed the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is Christ not risen:

17 And if Christ is not risen, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

19 If in this life only, we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of those who sleep.

21 For since by man came death, by man cometh also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 (But each in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward those who are Christ's at his coming.)

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power;

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet:

26 (The last enemy that is destroyed is death:)

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are subjected to him, then will the Son himself also be subject to him who subjected to him all things, that God may be all in all.)

28 Since what shall those do who are immersed for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then immersed for the dead?

29 And why stand we in peril every hour?

30 I protest by my glorying in you which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

31 If I to use the language of men, I have fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, of what advantage is it to me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die.

2 Cor. 1. 2.

33 Be not deceived: Evil intercourse corrupteth good customs.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame.

35 But some one will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, That which thou sowest is not quickened unless it die:

37 And what thou sowest, thou sowest not the body that will be, but bare grain; it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed its own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh; but of one kind is the flesh of men, of another the flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differeth from star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power:

44 It is sown an animal body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is an animal body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam became a living soul, the last Adam, a life-giving spirit.

46 But not first was the spiritual, but the animal; and afterward the spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthly: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such also are those who are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such also are those who are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 I, O, I declare to you a secret; We shall not all indeed sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In an instant, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: (for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then will be fulfilled the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks to God, who giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ!

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 He exhorteth them to relieve the want of the brethren at Jerusalem. 10 Commendeth Timothy, 13 and after friendly admonitions, 16 concludeth his epistle with divers salutations.

BUT concerning the collection for the saints, as I have directed the churches of Galatia, so also do ye.

2 On the first day of the week let each of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that the collection be not made after I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve, these I will send with letters to bring your liberality to Jerusalem.

4 And if it be worth while that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 And I will come to you, when I have passed through Macedonia: (for I am passing through Macedonia.)

6 And it may be that I will remain, or even spend the winter with you, that ye may then send me on whithersoever I go.

7 For I do not now wish to see you merely in passing; but I hope to remain a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I shall remain at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great and effectual door is opened to me, and there are many opposers.

10 Now if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear; for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let none therefore despise him: but send him on in peace, that he may come to me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As to our brother Apollos, I earnestly besought him to come to you with the brethren: but his wish was not altogether to come at this time; but he will come when he shall find a convenient time.

13 Watch, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all things be done by you in love.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that they are the first-fruits of Achaia, and have devoted themselves to the service of the saints.)

16 That ye submit yourselves to such, and to every one that laboureth with us, and toseth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for what was lacking from you, they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any one love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, by the comforts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, & so particularly in his late danger in Asia. 12 And calling both his own conscience and theirs to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gospel, 16 he excuseth his not coming to them, as proceeding not from lightness, but from his lenity towards them.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all consolation;

4 Who consoleth us in all our affliction, that we may be able to console those who are in any trouble by the consolation which we ourselves experience from God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth through Christ.

6 And if we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or if we are consoled, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye partake of the sufferings, so also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our affliction which beset us in Asia, that we were exceedingly pressed, above our strength, so that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from such deadly peril, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:

11 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the favour bestowed upon us for the sake of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For this is our glorying, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, (not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God,) we have walked in the world, and pre-eminently towards you.

13 For we write nothing else to you, than what ye read or even acknowledge; and I trust ye will acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your glorying, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I wished fervently to come to you, that ye might have a second benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again from Macedonia to you, and by you to be brought on my way to Judea.

17 When therefore I purposed this, did I use lightness? or that which I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me ye should be yea, and nay, and nay?

18 But as God is true, our word to you was not yea and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, and Silvanus, and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea, 20 (For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen,) to the glory of God by us.

21 And he who establisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a witness on my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet to Corinth.

24 Not that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER II.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requirith them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, 10 even as himself also upon his true repentance had forgiven him, 12 declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in grief.

2 For if I grieve you, then who is there to gladden me except those whom I have grieved?

3 And I wrote in this very way to you, lest, when I came, I should have grief from those by whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not that ye might be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have abundantly toward you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me only, but in part (that I may not be too severe) you all.

6 Sufficient for such an one is this punishment, which was inflicted by many.

7 So that, on the contrary, ye should rather forgive and console him, lest perhaps such an one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you to confirm your love toward him.

9 For, for this purpose also I wrote, that I might make proof of you, whether ye are in all things obedient.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also, (for if I have forgiven any thing, to whom I forgave it, I forgave it for your sakes, [in the person of Christ,])

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 But when I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, and a door was opened to me in the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be to God, who always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place!

15 For we are to God a sweet savour of Christ, among those that are saved, and among those that perish:

16 To the one we are a savour of death to death; and to the other a savour of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, who corrupt the word of God: but with sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

1 Lest their false teachers should charge him with vainglory, he sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry. 6 Whereupon entering a comparison between the law and of the gospel, 12 he proveth that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation.

ARE we again beginning to commend ourselves? or need we, as some letters of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men:

3 Being manifestly shown to be an epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on tables of stone, but on fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ towards God:

5 Not that we are able of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our ability is of God:

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written with letters on stones, was glorious, so that the sons of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses on account of the glory of his countenance, which was passing away:

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation had glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 Nay, even that which was made glorious hath no glory in this respect, on account of the surpassing glory of the other.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more is that which remaineth glorious.

12 Having then such hope, we use much looseness of speech:

13 And do not as Moses, who put a veil over his face, that the sons of Israel might not behold the end of that which was passing away:

14 (But their minds are blinded: for until this day in the reading of the old covenant remaineth the same veil unremoved, because it is done away only by Christ.

15 But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lieth on their heart:

16 But whenever they turn to the Lord, the veil is taken away.

17 But the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty:)

18 But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel, and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same did redound to the praise of God's power, 12 to the benefit of the church, 16 and to the apostle's own eternal glory.

THEREFORE, having this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty; not walking in craftiness, nor corrupting the word of God; but, by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden from those who perish:

4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of those who believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine to them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who bade light shine from darkness, hath shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are in every way afflicted, but not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in our body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our body.

11 For we, while we live, are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So that death is wrought in us, but life in you.

13 But having the same spirit of faith,

Paul's hope of immortality.

according to what is written, 'I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing, that he who raised up the Lord Jesus, will raise up us also by Jesus, and will present us with you.

15 For all hath happened for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our momentary affliction is working for us an overwhelming and eternal weight of glory.

18 While we look not at what is seen, but at what is not seen: for what is seen is temporal; but what is not seen is eternal.

CHAPTER V.

1 That in his assured hope of immortal glory, & in expectation of it, and of the general judgment, he laboureth to keep a good conscience, not that he may herein boast of himself, 14 but as one that, having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live as a new creature to Christ only, 18 and by his ministry of reconciliation to reconcile others also to Christ to God.

FOR we know that if this earthly house of our tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building from God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our heavenly house:

3 Since also being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For while we are in this tabernacle we groan, being burdened: not that we would be unclothed, but clothed anew, that mortality may be swallowed up in life.

5 But he that hath wrought us for this very thing is God, who also hath given to us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and wish rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we endeavour, whether at home or absent, to be accepted by him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; that each may receive the things done in his body, according to what he hath done, whether good or evil.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; and we are made manifest to God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to glory in regard to us, that ye may be able to answer those who glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is to God: if we are sober, it is for you.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; since we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who died for them, and rose again.

16 So that henceforth we know no one after the flesh: nay, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet thus we now know him no longer.

17 So that if any one is in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all is become new.

18 And all is of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 Namely, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing to them their trespasses, and committing to us the message of reconciliation.

20 We are then ambassadors for Christ, as though God were beseeching by us. We entreat men on behalf of Christ, Be reconciled to God.

21 For him who knew no sin, he hath made to be sin for us; that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER VI.

1 That he hath approved himself a faithful minister of Christ, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of affliction and disgraces for the gospel. 10 Of which he speaketh the sure boldly amongst them, because his heart is open to them, 13 and he expecteth the like affliction from them again, 14 exhorting to flee the society and pollutions of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

AND, as workers together with him, we beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain;

2 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation I have succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 While we give offence in nothing, that our ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approve ourselves to the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, with the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 Amid honour and dishonour, amid evil report and good report; as deceivers, yet true;

9 As unknown, yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastised, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing all things.

11 Our mouth is opened to you, Corinthians, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own hearts.

13 Now, for an equal recompense, (I speak as to my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

of God with idols? for 'ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, "I will dwell among them, and walk among them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 *Wherefore come out from among them, and be separate, saith the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 *And will be a Father to you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER VII.

1 He proceedeth in exhorting them to purity of life, 2 and to bear him like affection as he doth to them. 3 Whereof lest he might seem to doubt, he declareth what comfort he took in his afflictions, by the report which Titus gave of their godly sorrow, which his former epistle had wrought in them, 13 and of their loving-kindness and obedience towards Titus, answerable to his former boastings of them.

HAVING *therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all pollution of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, *we have defrauded no one.

3 I speak not to condemn you: for *I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 *Great is my boldness of speech towards you, *great is my glorying over you: *I am filled with consolation, I am exceedingly joyful in all our affliction.

5 For, *when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but *we were in every way afflicted, *without were fightings, within were fears.

6 But *God, who consoleth the humble, consoled us by the coming of Titus;

7 And not only by his coming, but by the consolation which he experienced in regard to you, making known to us your earnest desire, your lamenting, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I grieved you by my letter, I do not repent, *though I did repent: (for I see that that letter grieved you, though but for a season.)

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were grieved, but that ye grieved to reformation: for ye grieved in a godly manner, that ye might be injured by us in nothing.

10 For *godly grief worketh a saving reformation, never to be repented of: *but the grief of the world worketh death.

11 For look, even this your grieving in a godly way, what diligence it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what vehement desire, what zeal, what punishment! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote to you, it was not on account of him who had done the wrong, nor of him who had suffered wrong, *but that our care for you in the sight of God might be shown to you.

13 Therefore we are consoled in your consolation: and still more exceedingly did we rejoice for the joy of Titus, because his spirit *was refreshed by you all.

14 For in whatever I have boasted to him of you, I have not been made ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting to Titus proved the truth.

15 And his love is more abundant towards you, while he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that in all things *I have confidence in you.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 He stirreth them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 7 by commendation of their former forwardness, 9 by the example of Christ, 14 and by the spiritual profit that shall redound to themselves thereby: 16 commending to them the integrity and willingness of Titus, and those other brethren, who upon his request, exhortation, and commendation, were purposely come to them for this business.

AND we make known to you, brethren, the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that amid a great trial of affliction, the fulness of their joy, and *their deep poverty, abounded to the riches of their liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear them witness, and beyond their power, of their own accord,

4 They prayed us with much entreaty to receive their gift and *contribution to the wants of the saints.

5 And this not merely as we hoped, but they first gave themselves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God:

6 So that *we desired Titus, as he had already begun, so also to finish among you this work of liberality.

7 Therefore, as *ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see *that ye abound in this grace also.

8 /I speak not by way of command, but because of the zeal of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love,

9 (For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, *that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye might be rich;)

10 *I give my advice in this matter. For *this is expedient for you, who have already a year ago begun, not only to do, but also to be *willing.

11 Now therefore accomplish the doing of it; that as was the readiness to will, so also may be the accomplishment, according to what ye have.

12 For *if there is the willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man hath, and not according to what he hath not.

13 For I wish not that others be eased, and you burdened:

14 But there should be equality; at the present time let your abundance supply their want, that their abundance also may supply your want: that there may be equality.

15 As it is written, *He who gathered much had nothing over; and he who gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, who putteth the same zeal for you into the heart of Titus.

17 For he accepted indeed *my exhortation; but being very zealous, he went to you of his own accord.

18 And we have sent with him *the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also appointed by the churches our fellow-traveller with this gift, which is administered by us, for the glory of the Lord himself, and for a proof of your ready mind:

20 Guarding against this, lest any one should blame us in respect to this abundant gift which is administered by us:

21 Practising what is honourable, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often in many things proved to be zealous, but now much more zealous by his great confidence in you.

23 As to Titus, he is my partner and fellow-labourer among you: as to our brethren, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Therefore shew to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our glorying on your behalf.

CHAPTER IX.

1 He giveth the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, yet he sent Titus and his brethren beforehand. 6 And he proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountiful alms, as being but a kind of sowing of seed, 10 which shall return a great increase to them, 13 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings to God.

FOR as to the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know the readiness of your mind, for which I boast of you to the Macedonians, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath stirred up very many.

3 Yet I have sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this respect; that, as I said, ye may be prepared:

4 Lest perchance if any Macedonians come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be made ashamed in this our confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to entreat the brethren, that they would go before to you, and make up beforehand your promised bounty, that this might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of covetousness.

6 But know this, He who soweth sparingly, will also reap sparingly; and he who soweth bountifully, will also reap bountifully.

7 Let each give as he purposeth in his heart: not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 And may he who supplieth seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

11 Being in every thing enriched for all liberality, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the ministering of this supply not only relieveth the wants of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God;

CHAPTER X.

Against the false apostles, who despised the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth forth the spiritual might and authority, with which he is armed against all opposing powers, 7 assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word, as he is now in writing being absent, 12 and withal taxing them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass, and vaunting themselves in other men's labours.

NOW I Paul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in person indeed am humble among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 I beseech you, I say, that I may not have to be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I intend to be bold against some, who regard us as walking according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Destroying vain reasonings, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 And being ready to punish all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look at things after the outward appearance? If any one trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him in turn consider this with himself, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would merely terrify you by my letters,

10 (For his letters, I say, one are weighty and powerful; but this bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible;)

11 Let such a one consider this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not reckon ourselves, or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things beyond our limits, but according to the limit of the province which God hath assigned to us, a limit reaching even to you;

14 (For we do not go beyond our limits, as if we reached not to you; for we have come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ;)

15 Not boasting of things beyond our limits, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, as your faith increaseth,

And to be abundantly magnified by you within our province,

16 And to preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not boast of things made ready for us in another's province.

17 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Out of his jealousy over the Corinthians, who seemed to make more account of the false apostles than of him, he entereth into a forced commendation of himself, & of his equality with the chief apostles, & of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and without any their charge, 13 shewing that he was not inferior to those deceitful workers in any legal prerogative, 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kind of sufferings for his ministry, far superior.

WOULD that ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed I bear with me!

2 For I am zealous for you with godly zeal: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

5 But I consider that I am not at all behind the very chief apostles.

6 And though I am rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and in want, I was chargeable to no one: for what was lacking to me the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied: and in every thing I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, I no one shall silence this my boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.

14 And no wonder; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also are transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end will be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no one think me a fool; if otherwise, yet even as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 What I now say, I say not in the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Since many glory in the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye endure fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye endure it, if one bring you into bondage, if one devour you, if one take from you, if one exalt himself, if one smite you on the face.

21 I speak in reference to reproach, as though we had been weak. Yet in whatever any of them is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak foolishly) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often.

24 From the Jews I five times received forty stripes except one.

25 I was thrice beaten with rods, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have spent in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils from waters, in perils from robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In labour and toil, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides these occasional things, that which presseth upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who goeth astray, and I burn not with zeal?

30 If I must glory, I will glory in mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed for evermore knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket I was let down through the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER XII.

1 For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderful revelations, 9 yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting. 14 He promiseth to come to them again: but yet altogether in the affection of a father, 20 although he saith he shall to his grief find many offenders, and public disorders there.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I know that a man in Christ fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I know not; or whether out of the body, I know not: God knoweth;) that such a one was caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I know that such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I know not: God knoweth;)

4 Was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one I will glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I should desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I shall say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any one should think of me above that which he seeth in me, or heareth from me.

7 And lest I should be too much elated by these extraordinary revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be too highly exalted.

8 In regard to this I thrice besought the Lord that it might depart from me.

9 And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in abuses, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended by you: for in nothing am I behind the very chief of the apostles, though I am nothing.

12 The signs of an apostle certainly were wrought among you by much patience, by miracles, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is there in which ye were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, a third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will most gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But grant, it may be said, that I did not burden you: yet, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I then make a gain of you by any of those whom I have sent to you?

18 I desired Titus to go, and sent with him our brother. Did Titus make gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? in the same steps?

19 Do ye again think that we defend ourselves to you? We speak before God in Christ: and all beloved, is for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found by you such as ye would not: lest there be strife, envying, wrath, factions, backbitings, whisperings, pride, confusion;

21 Lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and I shall bewail many who have formerly sinned, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and fornication, and licentiousness, which they have practised.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 He threateneth severity, and the power of his apostleship against obstinate sinners. 5 And advising them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to a reformation of their sins before his coming, 11 he concludes his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer.

THIS third time I am coming to you: By the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I have told you before, and I now say beforehand (as if present the second time, though now absent) to those who have formerly sinned, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ's speaking in me, who towards you is not weak, but among you is mighty.

4 For though he was crucified in weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Try yourselves, whether ye are in the faith; prove yourselves. Know ye not concerning yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? unless indeed ye are unproved.

6 But I trust that ye will know that we are not unproved.

7 And I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that ye may do what is good, and we be as unproved.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong; and this also we pray for, even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write thus, being absent, that when present I may not use severity, according to the power which the Lord hath given me for edification, and not for destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Luke.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER I.

6 He wondereth that they have so soon left him and the gospel, & accuseth those that preach any other gospel than he did. 11 He learned the gospel not of men, but of God: 14 and sheweth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

2 And all the brethren with me, to the churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

1 Act. 9. 12. & 22. 15, 16. 2 Cor. 12. 2. 1 Act. 2. 34.

tified, 9 and blessed with Abraham. 10 And this he sheweth by many reasons.

O FOOLISH Galatians, "who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been clearly set forth among you, as crucified?"

2 This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, do ye now finish in the flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so much in vain? if indeed it is in vain!

5 He therefore who supplieth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doth he do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 As Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know therefore, that those who believe, these are sons of Abraham.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen by faith, gave to Abraham the joyful promise, "In thee shall all nations be blessed."

9 So that those who believe are blessed with believing Abraham.

10 For whoever are of the works of the law, are under a curse: for it is written, "Cursed is every one who continueth not in all things written in the book of the law to do them."

11 And that no one by the law is justified with God, is evident: for "The just shall live by faith."

12 And the law is not of faith: but, "The man who doeth them shall live by them."

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, becoming a curse for us; (for it is written, "Cursed is every one who hangeth on a cross,")

14 That the blessing of Abraham may come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ, that we might receive through faith the promised gift of the Spirit.

15 Brethren, (I speak in the manner of the law,) Even a man's covenant, when ratified, no one annulleth or addeth to.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. It saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And I mean to say this, The covenant formerly ratified by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, cannot annul, so as to do away the promise.

18 For if the inheritance is by the law, it is no longer by promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Why then is the law? It was added on account of transgressions, (till the seed should come to whom the promise was made,) through the ministry of angels, by the hand of a mediator.

20 Now, a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? By no means: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness would have been by the law.

22 But "the scripture hath shut up" all to sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, being shut up to the faith which was to be revealed.

24 So that the law was our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But when faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor.

26 For ye are all sons of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been immersed into Christ, have put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye are Christ's, then ye are the seed of Abraham, and heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age. 2 But Christ freed us from the law: 7 therefore we are servants no longer to it. 14 He remembereth their good will to him, and his to them, 23 and sheweth that we are the sons of Abraham by the free-woman.

AND I mean to say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by his father.

3 So also we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, subject to the law,

5 To redeem those under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father!

7 So that thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 But then indeed, not knowing God, ye were in bondage to those that are really no gods.

9 But now, when ye know God, or rather are known of God, why turn ye back to the weak and beggarly elements, to which ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 Why do ye observe days, and months, and seasons, and years?

11 I fear that I have bestowed upon you labour in vain!

12 Brethren, I beseech you, become as I, for I have become as ye. Ye have done me no injury.

13 Ye know that amid weakness of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at first;

14 And my trial which I had in my flesh ye despised not, nor spurned; but received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus.

15 How happy then did ye deem yourselves: for I bear you witness, that, if possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I then become hateful to you by telling you the truth?

17 They are zealous for you, not for your good; but they wish to shut you out from us, that ye may be zealous for them.

18 But it is good to be zealous always in that which is good, and not merely when I am present with you:

for in due season we shall reap if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to the household of faith.

11 See how large a letter I have written to you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For even the very persons who are circumcised do not keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But far be it from me to glory, except

15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and the Israel of God!

17 Henceforth let no one trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE EPHESIANS

CHAPTER I.
After the salutation, 3 and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, 4 he treateth of our election, 6 and adaption by grace, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of man's salvation. 13 And because the height of this mystery cannot easily be attained, 16 he prayeth that they may come to the full knowledge and 20 possession thereof in Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings, with heavenly things in Christ:

4 As he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him in love:

5 Having predestinated us to the adoption of children through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will.

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, which he hath freely bestowed upon us in the Beloved:

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

8 In which he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and understanding;

9 Making known to us the secret of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he hath purposed in himself,

10 For accomplishing his plan in the fulness of time, to unite in one all things in Christ, both things in heaven, and on earth; in him,

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things according to the counsel of his own will:

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also, having heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, in whom, I say, ye also believing, were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, 14 Who is the earnest of our inheritance, until the redemption of this purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love to all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation for the knowledge of him:

18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power towards us who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in heaven,

21 Far above all principality, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that to come:

22 And put all things under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things in the church,

23 Which is his body, the fulness of him who filleth all in all.

CHAPTER II.

By comparing what we were by 3 nature, with what we are 5 by grace: 10 he declareth, that we are made for good works; and 13 being brought near by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles, and 12 foreigners in time past, but as 13 citizens with the saints, and the family of God.

AND you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 In which ye once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the sons of disobedience:

3 Among whom also we all formerly walked in the desires of our flesh, fulfilling the will of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, on account of his great love with which he loved us,

5 Even us who were dead in sins, hath quickened together with Christ: (by grace ye are saved)

6 And hath raised us up, and made us sit labourer, and fellow-soldier, and your messenger to minister to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was much distressed, because ye had heard that he was sick.

27 For indeed he was sick near to death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more readily, that, seeing him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in honour:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was near to death, not regarding his life, to supply what was yet wanting in your service towards me.

CHAPTER III.

1 He warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision, 4 shewing that himself hath greater cause than they to trust in the righteousness of the law: 7 which notwithstanding he counteth as dung and loss, to gain Christ and his righteousness, 12 therein acknowledging his own imperfection. 15 He exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, and to you is safe.

2 Beware of these dogs, beware of these evil-workers, beware of their concision!

3 For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other one thinketh that he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of Hebrew parents; as to the law, a Pharisee;

6 As to zeal, persecuting the church; as to the righteousness of the law, blameless.

7 But whatever was gain to me, this I have counted loss for the sake of Christ.

8 Nay, indeed I even count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to him in his death;

11 If by any means I may attain to the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not that I have already attained, or have already finished my course: but I press on, if I may apprehend that for which also I was apprehended by Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I consider not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting that which is behind, and reaching forth to that which is before,

14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God will also reveal this to you.

16 Nevertheless, as far as we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be unitedly followers of me, and observe those who walk thus, as ye have us for an example.

18 For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our citizenship is in heaven; whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who will change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able to subdue all things to himself.

CHAPTER IV.

1 From particular admonitions 4 he proceedeth to general exhortations, 10 shewing how he rejoiced at their liberality towards him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his own wants, as for the grace of God in them. 19 And so he concludeth with prayer and salutations.

THEREFORE, my brethren beloved and earnestly longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, beloved! 2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women who laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also; and with my other fellow-labourers, whose names are in the book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord always: again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your meekness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, will keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever honourable, whatever just, whatever pure, whatever lovely, whatever of good report, whatever virtuous and praiseworthy, have regard to these things.

9 What ye have learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, this practise: and the God of peace will be with you.

10 But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length your care of me hath revived again; as to which also ye formerly had care, but lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect to want: for I have learned, in whatever state I am, therein to be content.

12 I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me.

14 Yet ye have done well in communicating to me in my affliction.

15 And ye yourselves, Philippians, know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as to giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again to my necessity.

17 Not that I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditus your gift, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God will supply all your need

20 Now to God and our Father be glory for ever and ever! Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren with me salute you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly those of Cesar's household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 After salutation, he thanketh God for their faith, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 prayeth further for their increase in grace, 14 describeth the true Christ, 21 encourageth them to receive Jesus Christ, and commendeth his own ministry.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ at Colosse: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of your love to all the saints,

5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye formerly heard in the word of the truth of the gospel:

6 Which is come to you, as to all the world; and beareth fruit, as also among you, since the day ye heard it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As also ye learned from Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also made known to us your love in the Spirit.

9 For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to ask that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will; in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That ye may walk worthily of the Lord to all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, to all patience and long-suffering with joy;

12 Giving thanks to the Father, who hath made us meet to share the inheritance of the saints in light;

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath transferred us into the kingdom of his dear Son;

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature:

16 For by him were all things created, both in heaven, and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers; all things were created by him, and for him;

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist,

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he may have the pre-eminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And making peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself; by him, I say, whether things on earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, who were once alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, hath he now reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh by his death, to present you holy, and blameless, and unreprouvable, in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith, grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which hath been preached to every creature under heaven; of which I Paul am become a minister.

24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is wanting of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body, which is the church:

25 Of which I became a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, fully to make known the word of God;

26 Even the secret which hath been hidden from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this secret among the Gentiles; which is Christ among you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 For which I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER II.

1 He still exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions, 13 worshipping of angels, 20 and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

FOR I wish you to know what a conflict I have for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and for attaining all fulness of perfect understanding, to the knowledge of the secret of God the Father, and of Christ;

 3 ¶ In whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
 4 And this I say, lest any one beguile you with persuasive words.
 5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.
 6 As then ye have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him;
 7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.
 8 Beware lest any one delude you through philosophy and vain deceit, which belongeth to the instructions of men, to the elements of the world, and not to Christ.
 9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily,
 10 And ye are made complete in him, who is the head of all principality and power:
 11 In whom also ye are circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, with the putting off of the body of sinful flesh, with the circumcision of Christ:
 12 Being buried with him in your immersion, wherein also ye are risen with him through faith in the power of God, who hath raised him from the dead.
 13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, forgiving you all your trespasses;
 14 Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was opposed to us, and took it away, nailing it to his cross;
 15 And having despoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them by it.
 16 Let no one therefore judge you in sin food, or in drink, or in respect to feast, or new-moon, or Sabbaths:
 17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
 18 Let no one beguile you of your reward, who delighteth in an affected humility and worshipping of angels, who intrudeth into things which he hath not seen, being vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind.
 19 And not holding to the Head, from which all the body, supported and knit together by its joints and bands, increaseth with the increase of God.
 20 If then ye are dead with Christ from the elements of the world, why as though living in the world, do ye submit to the directions, 21 Touch not, taste not, handle not?
 22 (All which will bring destruction by its use, being according to the commands and doctrines of men.)
 23 Which have indeed a shew of wisdom by a voluntary worship, and affected humility, and severity toward the body, without yielding it any honour so as to supply the wants of the flesh.

CHAPTER III.

He sheweth where we should seek Christ, 5 He exhorteth to mortification, 10 to put off the old man, and to put on Christ, 12 exhorting to charity, humility, and other several duties.

If ye then are risen with Christ, seek the things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.
 2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
 3 For ye are dead, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
 4 When Christ, our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.
 5 Mortify therefore your members which are on the earth; fornication, uncleanness, passion, wicked desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry:
 6 On account of which things the wrath of God cometh on the sons of disobedience:
 7 In which ye also once walked, when ye lived in them.
 8 But now do ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, reviling, filthy language from your mouth.
 9 Lie not to one another, putting off the old man with his deeds,
 10 And putting on the new man, that is renewed in knowledge after the image of him who created him:
 11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.
 12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, tender compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, long-suffering;
 13 Bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if any one have a complaint against any: as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.
 14 And beside all this put on love, which is the bond of perfection.
 15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also ye are called in one body; and be thankful.
 16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
 17 And whatever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.
 18 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.
 19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter toward them.
 20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing to the Lord.
 21 Fathers, irritate not your children, lest they be discouraged.
 22 Servants, obey in all things your masters in the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God;
 23 And whatever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men;
 24 Knowing that from the Lord ye will receive the reward of your heavenly inheritance: for ye serve Christ as your Lord.
 25 But he that doeth wrong, shall receive for the wrong which he hath done; and there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER IV.

He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ, 10 He exhorteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

MASTERS, give to your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer, be watchful in it with thanksgiving;

3 At the same time praying also for us, that God may open to us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds;

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom towards those without, redeeming the time.

6 Let your language be always agreeable, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my affairs Tychicus will make known to you, our beloved brother, and faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord;

8 Whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that he may know your condition, and encourage your hearts;

9 With Onesimus, my faithful and beloved brother, who is your countryman. They will make known to you every thing here.

10 Aristarchus, my fellow-captive, salute you; and Mark, nephew of Barnabas, 15 Salute the brethren at Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church in his house.

16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and do ye also read that of Laodicea.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

Written from Rome to the Colossians by Tychicus and Onesimus.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them Paul was at all times in thanksgiving, and prayer: and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and conversion to God.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved of God, your election,

5 That our gospel came not to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as ye know what sort of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, receiving the word amidst much affliction, with joy through the Holy Spirit:

7 So that ye became examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you hath sounded forth the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith towards God is spread abroad; so that we need not to say any thing.

9 For they themselves report of us what sort of entrance we had to you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God;

10 And to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivereth us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER II.

In what manner the gospel was brought and preached in the Thessalonians, and in what manner also they received it. A reason is rendered both why Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

FOR yourselves, brethren, know that our entrance to you was not in vain:

2 But even though we had before endured suffering and violence, as ye know, at Philippi, we had confidence in our God with much earnest effort.

3 For our instruction is not from deceit, nor from impurity, nor in guile;

4 But as we have been approved by God so as to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who proveth our hearts.

5 For we never have we used flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; (God is my witness!)

6 Nor have we sought glory from men, either from you, or from others, when we might have been burdensome, as apostles of Christ;

7 But we were gentle among you. As a nurse cherisheth her children,

8 So, having a strong affection for you, we were ready to impart to you, not only the gospel of God, but even our own souls, because ye were dear to us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and toil: for working night and day, in order not to burden any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you who believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted, and encouraged, and solemnly warned each one of you, as a father his children,

12 To walk worthily of God, who called you to his kingdom and glory.

13 Therefore we also give thanks to God unceasingly, that receiving the word of God which ye heard from us, ye embraced it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which also worketh effectually in you who believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus, since ye also have suffered the same things from your own countrymen, as they have from the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; who please not God, and are opposed to all men:

16 Hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles that they may be saved, that they may fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being separated from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, have earnestly endeavoured to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we wished to come to you, namely, I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER III.

1 Paul testifies his great love to the Thessalonians, partly by sending Timothy to them to strengthen and comfort them: partly by rejoicing in their well-doing: 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming to them.

WHEREFORE, when we could no longer forbear; we chose rather to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to admonish you concerning your faith,

3 That no one should be shaken by these afflictions: for yourselves know that for this we are appointed.

4 For even when we were with you, we told you before that we were to suffer affliction: as it also happened, and ye know.

5 For this reason, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labour might be in vain.

6 But now, when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and love, and that ye have always good remembrance of us, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were consoled over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy wherewith we rejoice for your sakes before our God;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and perfect which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love towards one another, and towards all men, even as we do toward you:

13 That he may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorts them to go on forward in all manner of godliness, to live soberly and justly, to love one another, to be quiet, and to follow their own business: 13 and last of all to sorrow moderately for the dead. 17 And to this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgment.

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commands we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your purity, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That each of you should know how to possess his vessel in purity and honour; 5 Not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles that know not God:

6 That none transgress and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the punisher of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us to uncleanness, but to purity.

8 He therefore who rejecteth, rejecteth not man, but God who hath also given to us his Holy Spirit.

9 But concerning brotherly love ye need not that I write to you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren who are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, to abound more and more;

11 And to study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk becomingly toward those without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, that ye may not sorrow like others who have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so those also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not go before those who sleep.

16 For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ will first arise:

17 Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in

16 The Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus; for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he very diligently sought and found me.

18 (The Lord grant that he may find mercy from the Lord in that day!) and what services he rendered me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER II.

1 He is exhorted again to constancy and perseverance, and to do the duty of a faithful servant of the Lord in dividing the word aright, and staying profane babblings. 17 Of Hymeneus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 He is taught wherof to beware, and what to follow after, and in what manner the servant of the Lord ought to behave himself.

THOU therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what thou hast heard from me among many witnesses, this commit to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.

3 Do thou therefore endure suffering, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No one who warreth entangleth himself with the business of life; that he may please his commander.

5 And if a man contend in the games, he is not crowned, unless he contend lawfully.

6 The husbandman who would partake of the fruits, must first labour.

7 Understand what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my gospel:

9 Wherewith I suffer as an evil-doer, even to bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 It is a true saying; If we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 If we persevere, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 If we are faithless, he remaineth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord not to strive about words; which tendeth to no profit, but to the subversion of the hearers.

15 Strive to present thyself to God approved, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling rightly the word of truth.

16 But shun those profane and empty babblings; for such men will go on to more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat like a canker: of whom are Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who have erred as to the truth, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth those who are his. And let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some for honour, and some for dishonour.

21 If a man therefore cleanse himself from these things, he will be a vessel for honour, purified, and fit for the master's use, and prepared for every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those who call on the Lord from a pure heart.

23 But shun those foolish and senseless disputes, knowing that they beget strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle towards all, instructive, forbearing;

25 In meekness admonishing those who oppose themselves; if perhaps God may give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth.

26 And they may recover themselves from the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his will.

CHAPTER III.

1 He advertiseth him of the times to come, 6 describeth the enemies of the truth, 10 propoundeth to him his own example, 16 and commendeth the holy scriptures.

THIS know also, that in the last days perilous times will come.

2 For men will be selfish, covetous, boastful, proud, railers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, implacable, slanderers, incontinent, fierce, haters of the good,

4 Traitors, headstrong, puffed up, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying its power: from such turn away.

6 For such are those who enter into houses, and lead captive silly women who are laden with sins, led by various desires,

7 Ever learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so also do these men withstand the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate as to the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly will be manifest to all, as also was theirs.

10 But thou hast followed closely my doctrine, conduct, purpose, faith, long-suffering, love, patience, 11 Persecutions, sufferings, which befel me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured; but from all the Lord delivered me.

12 And indeed all who will live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers will grow worse and worse, deceiving, and deceived.

14 But continue thou in that which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing from whom thou hast learned it;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

16 All scripture is inspired of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished for all good works.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhortheth him to do his duty with all care and diligence, 6 certifieth him of the nearness of his death, 9 willeth him to come speedily to him, and to bring Mark with him, and certain other things

3 That the aged women likewise be in behaviour as becometh holiness; not slanderers, not slaves to wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not reviled.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded;

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech that cannot be condemned; that the opposer may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be subject to their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not opposing them.

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us, that denying ungodliness, and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no one despise thee.

CHAPTER III.

Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach.

10 He is willed also to reject the factious; 12 which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he should come to him, and so conclude.

PUT them in mind to be subject to governments and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evil of no one, to be peaceful, gentle, shewing all meekness towards all men.

3 For we ourselves also were once foolish, disobedient, going astray, slaves to various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, hating one another

4 But when the kindness and love of God our Saviour towards man appeared,

5 Not on account of works of righteousness which we had done, but through his mercy, he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit,

6 Which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

7 That being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs in hope of eternal life.

8 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that those who have believed in God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are honourable and profitable to men.

9 But avoid foolish disputes, and genealogies, and contentions, and strifes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A factious person, after the first and second admonition, reject;

11 Knowing that such an one is subverted, and sinneth, so that he is self-condemned.

12 When I shall send Artemas to thee, or Tychicus, make haste to come to me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing may be wanting to them.

14 And let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All who are with me salute thee. Salute those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

It was written to Titus, chosen first overseer of the church of the Cretans, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

He rejoiceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon, whom he desireth to forgive his servant Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him again.

PAUL, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our beloved, and fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house;

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast towards the Lord Jesus, and towards all saints;

6 That thy participation in the faith may become effectual to the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation

15 For perhaps he for this cause was separated from thee for a season, that thou mightest have him for ever;

16 No longer as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, especially to me, but how much more to thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count me thy partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee anything, put that to my account;

19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: not to say to thee that thou owest to me even thine own self.

20 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Christ in these last times coming to us from the Father, is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

GOD, who in manifold and various ways spoke anciently to our fathers by the prophets,
 2 Hath in these last days spoken to us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;
 3 Who being the effulgence of his glory, and the exact image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, having by himself made expiation for our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
 4 Becoming so much superior to the angels, as he hath obtained a name superior to theirs.
 5 For to which of the angels said he ever, Thou art my Son, to-day I have begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?
 6 And again, when he bringeth the First-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.
 7 And of the angels (messengers) he saith, Who maketh his messengers winds, and his ministers a flame of fire.
 8 But to the Son, he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom;
 9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore, O God, thy God hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
 10 And, Thou, Lord, hast in the beginning laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of thine hands.
 11 They will perish, but thou remainest: and they will all grow old as doth a garment;
 12 And as a vesment thou shalt fold them up, and they will be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years will not fail.
 13 But to which of the angels hath he ever said, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?
 14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who are to obtain salvation?

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, that we do not fall away from them.
 2 For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received its just retribution;
 3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the beginning was spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by those who heard him;
 4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with various miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will;
 5 For not to angels hath he put in subjection the world to come of which we speak.
 6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
 7 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands;
 8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him;
 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, (that by the grace of God he might taste death for every man,) crowned with glory and honour.
 10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
 11 For both he that sanctifieth, and those who are sanctified, are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,
 12 Saying, I will declare thy name to my brethren, in the midst of the congregation I will sing praise to thee.
 13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I, and the children that God hath given me.
 14 Since then the children partake of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part in the same; that through death he might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil;
 15 And deliver those, who, through fear

CHAPTER II.

1 We ought to be diligent to Christ Jesus, and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was necessary.

be made an high priest; but he who said to him, 'Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, 'Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, 'offering up prayers and supplications 'with strong crying and tears to him 'who was able to save him from death, and being heard 'in his distress;

8 'Though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by that which he suffered;

9 And 'being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey him,

10 Being styled by God a high priest 'after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom 'we have much to say, and hard to be explained, since ye are 'dull of hearing.

12 For when, from the length of time, ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again what are 'the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of 'milk, and not of solid food.

13 For every one that useth milk, is inexperienced in the word of righteousness; for he is 'a babe.

14 But solid food is for those who are [of] full age, who by [use] have their perceptions exercised 'to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER VI.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be steadfast, 12 diligent, and patient to wait upon God, 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

THEREFORE 'leaving the elementary principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to perfection; not laying again a foundation by repentance 'from dead works, and faith in God,

2 'By the teaching of immersion, 'and of the laying on of hands, 'and the resurrection of the dead, 'and eternal judgment.

3 And this we will do, 'if God permit.

4 For 'it is impossible for those 'who have been once enlightened, and have tasted of 'the heavenly gift, and 'been made partakers of the Holy Spirit,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of 'the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to be again renewed to repentance; 'since they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh often upon it, and bringeth forth herbs useful to those for whom it is cultivated, 'receiveth blessing from God;

8 'But if it bear thorns and briars, it is rejected, and is near to cursing, and its end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 'For 'God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed towards his name, in that ye have 'ministered and still minister to the saints.

11 And we desire that 'every one of you shew the same diligence 'for maintaining your fully assured hope to the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of those who through faith and patience obtain the fulfilment of the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, since he could swear by no one greater, 'he swore by himself,

14 Saying, Surely I will greatly bless thee, and I will greatly multiply thee.

15 And so, by patiently enduring, he obtained the promise.

16 For men indeed swear by the greater: and 'an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, wishing to shew more abundantly to 'the heirs of the promise 'the immutability of his counsel, 'confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope 'set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, 'and which entereth within the veil;

20 'Whither Jesus entered for us as a forerunner, 'becoming an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

FOR this 'Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; being first by interpretation King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, (which is, King of peace);

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like the Son of God; remaineth a priest continually.

4 And consider how great was this man, 'to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 'Those indeed of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a command to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they have come from the loins of Abraham;

6 But he whose descent is not derived from them received tithes of Abraham, 'and blessed 'him who had the promises.

7 And without any contradiction the less is blessed by the greater.

8 And here indeed men who die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, 'of whom it is testified that he liveth.

9 And so to speak, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 'If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for on condition of it the people had received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken belongeth to another tribe, of which no one attended at the altar.

made with hands, (that is, not of this creation;)

12 And not with the blood of goats and calves, but with his own blood, once for all into the holy place, and obtained for us eternal redemption:

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, purifieth to the cleansing of the flesh:

14 How much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this reason he is mediator of a new covenant, that by his death, which happened for delivrance from the transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead, but hath no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Hence neither was the first covenant solemnized without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the covenant which God hath enjoined upon you.

21 And the tabernacle, too, and all the vessels of the service, he in like manner sprinkled with blood.

22 And almost all things are by the law cleansed with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was necessary then that the patterns of the heavenly things should indeed be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ did not enter the holy place made with hands, the figure of the true; but heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor that he might offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 (Since then he must often have suffered since the foundation of the world;) but now once for all in the end of the world, he hath appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed to men once to die, and after this the judgment:

28 So Christ was once for all offered to bear the sins of many; and to those who look for him will appear the second time without sin to salvation.

CHAPTER X.

1 The weakness of the law sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered, 14 for ever hath taken away sins. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOR the law having a shadow of the good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they offer year by year continually, make those who come to them perfect.

2 Since then [would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshippers once cleansed would have had no more consciousness of sins.

3 But in these sacrifices there is a remembrance made of sins every year.

4 For [it is impossible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body [hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and sin-offerings thou hast no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, having said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and sin-offerings thou wouldst not, nor hast pleasure therein; (which are offered by the law;)

9 Then he saith, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering often the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But he, having offered one sacrifice for sins, hath for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth waiting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever those who are sanctified.

15 Of which the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after having said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, and will write them in their minds;

17 And their sins and iniquities I will remember no more.

18 Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful who hath given the promise;)

24 And let us have regard to one another, to stimulate to love, and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the custom of some; but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more a sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which will devour the adversaries.

28 He who despised Moses' law, died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much severer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite to the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him who hath said, Vengeance is mine, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord will judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great struggle of afflictions;

33 Partly, while ye were openly exposed to reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while ye became companions of those who were so used.

34 For ye had compassion on me in my bonds, and endured joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath a great reward.

36 For ye have need of patience, that, by doing the will of God, ye may receive the promise.

37 For yet a little while, and he who cometh will come, and will not tarry.

38 And the just will live by faith: but if any one draw back, my soul hath no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of those who draw back to perdition; but of those who believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER XI.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOW faith is confidence in things hoped for, for the full conviction of things not seen:

2 For by this the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen have not sprung from things which appear.

4 By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he received testimony that he was righteous, God testifying to him on account of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had the testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he who cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him.

7 By faith Noah, being warned of God concerning things not seen as yet, moved with reverence, prepared an ark for the saving of his house; by which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when called to go out into the place which he was to receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for the city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also Sarah, herself received strength to conceive seed, and bore a child when she was past age, because she considered him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore also there sprung from one, and him become as dead, a nation as the stars of heaven in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them from afar, and being persuaded of them, and embracing them, and acknowledging that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth.

14 For those who say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And if indeed they had been mindful of that country from which they came out, they might have had opportunity to return.

16 But now they seek a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith Abraham, being tried, offered up Isaac: and he who had received the promises offered up his only begotten son.

18 Of whom it was said, In Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Considering that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave command concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was fair; and they feared not the king's command.

24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he looked to the reward.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the passover, and performed the sprinkling of blood, that he who destroyed the first-born might not touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians attempting, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, being encompassed seven days.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with the unbelieving, since she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I say further? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah, of David, and Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, put to flight the hosts of the enemy.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others endured mockings and scourgings, and, moreover, bonds and imprisonment:

37 They were stoned, were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins, and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having for our sakes provided something better, that they without us might not be made perfect.

CHAPTER XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHEREFORE, let us also, since we are encompassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking to Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and hath sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him who endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Ye have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh to you as to children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked by him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye are without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then ye are bastards, and not sons.

9 What! have our fleshly fathers chastised us, and we paid them reverence, and shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they indeed for a few days chastised us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: yet, afterward it yieldeth the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are disciplined by it.

12 Wherefore strengthen the weary hands, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, that what is lame be not turned out of the way, but rather healed.

14 Follow peace with all, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently, lest any man fall of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one meal sold his birthright.

17 For ye know that afterward, when he wished to obtain the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no means of changing his father's mind, though he sought it earnestly with tears.

18 For ye are not come to a mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and a speaking voice; which those who heard, were treated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure the command, Even if a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I fear and tremble!)

22 But ye are come to mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of the first-born, who are enrolled in heaven; and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,

24 And to Jesus, the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him who speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him who declared his will on earth, much less shall we, if we turn away from him who speaketh from heaven:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And the words, Yet once more, signify the removing of that which is shaken, as having been made, that what is not shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore, receiving an unshaken kingdom, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear;

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honest life, 5 to avoid countenances, 7 to regard God's preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ, 16 to give alms, 17 to obey governors, 18 to pray for the apostle. 20 The conclusion.

LET ¹brotherly love continue.
²Forget not to entertain strangers: for thereby ³some have unawares entertained angels.
³Remember those in bonds, as bound with them; and those who suffer affliction, as being yourselves also in the body.
⁴Let marriage be honourable among all, and its bed be undefiled: ⁵but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.
⁵Let your disposition be without covetousness; and ⁶be content with what ye have: for he hath said, ⁷I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.
⁶So that we may confidently say, ⁷The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me.
⁷Remember your ⁸leaders, who have spoken to you the word of God: ⁹mark the result of their course, and imitate their faith.
⁸Jesus Christ is ⁹the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.
⁹He not carried about with various and strange doctrines: for it is good that the heart be established with grace; ¹⁰not with food, which hath not profited those who have been occupied therein.
¹⁰We have an altar from which those have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle.
¹¹For ¹²the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.
¹²Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people by his own blood, ¹³suffered without the gate.
¹³Let us go forth therefore to him without the camp, bearing ¹⁴his reproach.

¶ THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAPTER I.

¹We are to rejoice under the cross, ²to ask patience of God, ³and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins, to him, ⁴but rather to harken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter. ⁵Otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

JAMES, ⁶a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, ⁷to the twelve tribes ⁸that are scattered abroad, greeting.
²Count it all joy, my brethren, ³when ye are involved in various trials;
³Knowing that the proving of your faith worketh patience.
⁴But let patience have its perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.
⁵If any of you lack wisdom, ⁶let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and ⁷it shall be given him.
⁶But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
⁷For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing from the Lord.
⁸A fickle-minded man is unstable in all his ways.
⁹Let the brother of humble station glory in being exalted:

cause ¹¹as the flower of the grass he will pass away.
¹¹For the sun riseth with a ¹²burning heat, and withereth the grass, and its flower fall-eth away, and the grace of its appearance perisheth: so also will the rich man fade away in his ways.
¹²Happy the man who endureth trial! for becoming approved, he will receive ¹³the crown of life, ¹⁴which the Lord hath promised to those who love him.
¹³Let no one say when he is tried by evil, I am tried by God: for God is untried by evil, I am tried by God: for God is untried by evil, and he himself trieth no one:
¹⁴But each one is tried, when he is drawn away and enticed by his own desire.
¹⁵Then, ¹⁶his desire conceiving, beareth sin; and sin, being perfected, ¹⁷bringeth forth death.
¹⁶Do not err, my beloved brethren.
¹⁷Every good gift and every perfect gift cometh down from above, from the Father of lights, ¹⁸with whom is no variableness, nor shadow of turning.
¹⁸Of his own will he begat us with the word of truth, ¹⁹that we should be a kind of ²⁰first-fruits of his creatures.
¹⁹Wherefore, my beloved brethren, ²¹let every man be swift to hear, ²²slow to speak, ²³slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay aside all filth, and aboutness wickedness, and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.

22 And become doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and immediately forgetteth how he looked.

25 But whoever looketh closely into the perfect law, which is that of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man will be happy in his deed.

26 If any man among you is considered to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but leadeth astray his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep ourselves unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER II.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren: 13 rather we are to be loving, and merciful: 14 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 and not of Abraham, 23 and Rahab.

MY brethren, hold not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there enter your assembly, a man with a gold ring, in splendid clothing, and there come in also a poor man in mean clothing;

3. And ye look on him who weareth the splendid clothing, and say to him, Do thou sit here honourably; and say to the poor, Do thou stand there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Do ye not then make distinctions among yourselves, and become judges having evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world as rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to those who love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor! Are not the rich those who oppress you, and drag you into courts of justice?

7 Do not they revile the honourable name by which ye are called?

8 If indeed ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.

10 For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty in respect to all.

11 For the who said, Do not commit adultery; said also, Do not kill. Now, if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak, and so do, as those who are to be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For the judgment will be without mercy to him who hath shewed no mercy; while mercy triumpheth at the judgment.

14 What availeth it, my brethren, if a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can his faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say to them, Depart in peace, be warmed and satisfied, yet give them not what is needful for the body; what doth it avail?

17 Thus also faith, if it have not works, is of itself dead.

18 Nay, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that God is one; thou doest nobly! even the demons believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 Seest thou that his faith wrought with his works, and by works was his faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 And in like manner also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she received the messengers, and sent them out by another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

CHAPTER III.

1 We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others: it but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member but a powerful instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 They who are truly wise are mild, and peaceable, without envying, and strife.

MY brethren, become not many of you teachers, knowing that as such we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we all err. If any one err not in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we guide their whole body.

4 Behold also, the ships, though they are so great, and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small helm, whithersoever the director chooseth.

5 So also the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great is the forest a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue is a fire, that world of iniquity! so is the tongue placed among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of life; and it is set on fire by hell.

7 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of reptiles, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed, by mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; an unruly evil, full of deadly poison!

9 With it we bless God, the Father; and with it we curse men, who are made in the likeness of God.

10 From the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, this ought not so to be.

11 Doth the fountain pour forth from the same source sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? or a vine, figs? so no fountain can yield both salt water and fresh.

13 Who is wise and intelligent among you? let him shew from right conduct his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, do not glory, and lie against the truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

16 For where envying and strife are, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, easily persuaded, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who cultivate peace.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We are to strive against covetousness, 4 intolerance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, and rash judgment of others: 13 and not to be confident in the good success of worldly business, but mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, from your lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye desire and have not: ye kill, envy, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask wickedly, that ye may expend it upon your lusts.

4 Adulterers and adulteresses! know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is an enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, Doth the spirit that dwelleth in us incline to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye fickle-minded!

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep! let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness!

10 Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

11 Speak not against each other, brethren. He that speaketh against his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh against the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save, and to destroy: who art thou that judgest thy neighbour?

13 Come now, ye who say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy, and sell, and get gain:

14 While ye know not what will be on the morrow! For what is your life? It is a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away:)

CHAPTER V.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance.

7 We ought to be patient in afflictions, after the example of the prophets, and Job: 12 to forbear swearing, 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults, to pray one for another, 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

COME now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them will be a witness against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. Ye have heaped up treasures for the last days.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is fraudulently kept back by you, crieth; and the cries of the reapers have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in luxury and licentiousness on the earth; ye have pampered your hearts, as for a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned, ye have murdered the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, until the coming of the Lord! Behold, the husbandman looketh for the precious fruit of the earth, and waiteth patiently for it, until it receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; strengthen your hearts! for the coming of the Lord draweth near.

9 Murmur not against each other, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering, and of patience.

11 Behold, we pronounce happy those who endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of his sufferings from the Lord; because the Lord is very pitiful and compassionate.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, either by heaven, or by the earth, or by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any cheerful? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith will restore the sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they will be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults to each other, and pray for each other, that ye may be healed. The effectual prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

17 Elijah was a man of like nature with us, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth for three years and six months.

through the knowledge of him who hath called us by his glorious power:

4 By which have been given to us very great and precious promises; that by these ye may become partakers of the divine nature, escaping the corruption that is in the world through lust;

5 To this very thing give all diligence, and add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;

7 And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, love.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they render you neither barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blind, short-sighted, and hath forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins.

10 Wherefore, brethren, be the more diligent to make your calling and election sure: for doing these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance will be granted to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not neglect always to remind of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the present truth.

13 And I think it meet, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tent, as our Lord Jesus Christ showed to me.

15 And I will always endeavour that ye may be able, after my decease, to have these things in remembrance.

16 For we followed no cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when these words came to him from the exalted glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased!

18 And these words coming from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.

19 And we have as yet more sure the word of prophecy; to which ye do well in taking heed, as to a light shining in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this especially, that no prophecy of scripture is of the prophet's own solution.

21 For prophecy never came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER II.

He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers: 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profane and vicious seducers, whereby they may be the better known, and avoided.

BUT there were false prophets also among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive factions, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction.

2 (And many will follow their dissolute ways; through whom the way of truth will be reviled.)

3 And through covetousness they will make traffic of you with feigned words: but their long-threatened sentence now for a long time lingereth not, and their destruction doth not slumber.

4 For if God spared not angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved to judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, while he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly;

6 And reducing to ashes, condemned to an utter overthrow the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, making them an example to those who should afterward live ungodly;

7 And delivered righteous Lot, wearied out by the profligate conduct of those lawless men:

8 (For, through sight and hearing, the righteous man who dwelt among them, found his righteous soul tormented from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly from trial, and to reserve the unrighteous to the day of judgment to be punished:

10 And especially those who walk after the flesh in polluted desire, and despise all government. Presumptuous! self-willed! they fear not to rail at dignities!

11 While angels, though greater in strength and power, bring no railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, like irrational, sensual animals, born for capture and destruction, rail at what they understand not, and will utterly perish in their own corruption,

13 And so receive the reward of their unrighteousness: who regard revels by day a pleasure; spots and stains, [revelling in their deceits while they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; alluring unstable souls: having an heart trained to covetous practices; children of a curse.

15 Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, restrained the madness of the prophet.

17 These are fountains without water, clouds driven by a tempest; for whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For by speaking swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those who had really escaped from those who live in error;

19 Promising them liberty, while they themselves are slaves of corruption: for by whatever a man is overcome, by this he is enslaved.

20 For if after escaping the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them, and overcome, their last state is worse than their first.

21 For it had been better for them not to having known the way of righteousness, than, have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.

22 But it hath happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog returneth to his own vomit; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER III.

1 He assurcth them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgment, against those scorners who dispute against it: 8 warning the gaily, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 13 exhorteth them, from the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life: 15 and again, to think the patience of God to his end to their salvation, as Paul writes to them in his epistles.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write to you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may remember the words formerly spoken by the holy prophets, and the command of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this especially, that there will come in the last days scoffers, walking according to their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For of this they choose to be ignorant, that by the word of God there was of old a heaven, and an earth consisting of water and through water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being deluged with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved for fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord doth not delay as to his promise, as some consider it delay; but his long-suffering towards us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a crash, and the elements will burn and be dissolved, and the earth and the works in it will be burned up.

11 Since then all these things are dissolved, what sort of persons should ye be in all holy conduct and godliness, 12 Looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens will be dissolved in fire, and the elements will burn and melt?

13 But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, since ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found by him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And consider the long-suffering of our Lord salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, hath written to you;

16 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which the unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, since ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST GENERAL EPISTLE OF JOHN.

CHAPTER I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life, by a communion with God: 5 to which we must adjoin holiness of life, to testify the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

THAT which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and announce to you the eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested to us;

3 That which we have seen and heard we announce to you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and indeed our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things we write to you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard from him, and announce to you, that God is light, and in him there is no darkness.

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with each other, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we acknowledge our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER II.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity.

3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments, to love our brethren, and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of sinners: 20 from whose deceits the godly are safe, preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of life.

MY children, I write thus to you, that ye sin not. And if any one sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is a propitiation for our sins:

and not for ours only, but also for those of the whole world.

3 And by this we know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But whoever keepeth his word, in him the love of God is truly perfected: by this we know that we are in him.

6 He that saith he remaineth in him, ought himself also so to walk as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write to you no new commandment, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning: The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new commandment I write to you, which is true in him and in you: because the darkness is passing, and the true light already shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness until now.

10 He that loveth his brother remaineth in the light, and there is in him no occasion of stumbling.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because the darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write to you, children, because your sins are forgiven you through his name.

13 I write to you, fathers, because ye have known him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because ye have known him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God remaineth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, nor that which is in the world. If any one love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the desire of the flesh, and the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and its desire: but he who doeth the will of God remaineth for ever.

18 Children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that the antichrist cometh, even now there have risen many antichrists; whence we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have an anointing from the Holy One, and know all things.

21 I have not written to you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is from the truth.

22 Who is the liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is the antichrist, who denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whoever denieth the Son, he also hath not the Father: he who acknowledged the Son hath also the Father.

24 Let that therefore remain in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If what

John 23. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100.

ye have heard from the beginning remain in you, ye also will remain in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise which he hath promised us, eternal life.

26 I have written these things to you concerning those who seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him remaineth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, even as it hath taught you, ye shall remain in him.

28 And now, children, remain in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one who doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God towards us, in making us his sons: 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEHOLD what love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called children of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet made manifest what we shall be: but we know that, when it is made manifest, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every one who hath this hope in him purifieth himself, as he is pure.

4 Whoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whoever remaineth in him sinneth not: whoever sinneth hath not seen him, nor known him.

7 Children, let no one seduce you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 If that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this are manifest the children of God, and the children of the devil: whoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, nor he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain was of the wicked one, and slew his brother. And why did he slay him? Because his own works were wicked, and his brother's righteous.

13 Wonder not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother, remaineth in death.

15 Whoever hateth his brother, is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life remaining in him.

16 By this we know the love of God, who believe on the name of the Son of God; "that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, in whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any one see his brother sin a sin which is not to death, he shall ask, and he will give him life, namely, to those who sin not to death. "There is a sin to death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

1 He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief, & lest they lose the reward of their former profession: 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

THE elder to the elect lady, and her children, "whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all those who have known the truth,

2 On account of the truth which dwelleth in us, and will be with us for ever.

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, "in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly, that I found some of thy children "walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, "not as though I wrote to thee a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, "that we love one another.

6 And "this is love, that we walk after his commandments. "This is the command-

¶ THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his piety, & his hospitality to true preachers: 9 complaining of the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrophes on the contrary side, 11 whose evil example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

THE elder to the beloved Gaius, "whom I love in the truth.

2 Beloved, I pray "that in all things thou mayest prosper and be in health, as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoice greatly, when brethren came and testified of thy truth, how "thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatever thou doest to the brethren, and to the strangers;

6 Who have borne witness of thy love before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God, thou wilt do well:

7 Because for the sake of his name they went forth, "taking nothing from the Gentiles.

10 "Therefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content with this, both he himself receiveth not the brethren, and forbiddeth those who would, and expelleth them from the church.

11 Beloved, "follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. "He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 4 False teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may persevere, and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

JUDE, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy, and peace, and love, be multiplied to you.

3 Beloved, while giving all diligence to write to you concerning the common salvation, I thought it necessary for me in writing to you, to exhort you to contend earnestly for the faith which hath once been delivered to the saints.

4 For certain men have crept in, who were before appointed to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore remind you of this, though ye already know it, that the Lord, having saved the people from the hand of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who believed not.

6 And the angels who kept not their dignity, but left their own habitation, he hath kept in everlasting chains under darkness to the judgment of the great day:

7 As Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves up to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and rail at the dignities.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, ventured not to bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee!

10 But these rail at things which they know not: but what they know sensually, like irrational animals, in these things they corrupt themselves.

11 Wo to them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and for hire have run eagerly after the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

12 These are spots in your feasts of love, feasting with you without fear, feeding themselves: clouds without water, borne on by winds; trees stripped of verdure, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever!

14 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convict all the ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have committed, and of all the revilings which ungodly sinners have uttered against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, flattering distinguished persons for the sake of profit.

17 But do ye, beloved, remember the words formerly spoken by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How they told you that there would be scoffers in the last time, who would walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These are they who are separating themselves, sensual, not having the Spirit.

20 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit,

21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.

22 And one class treat tenderly, making a difference:

23 But others save with fear, snatching them from the fire; loathing even the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

25 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and for ever! Amen.

THE REVELATION OF JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER I.

4 John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks. 7 The coming of Christ. 14 His glorious power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to shew to his servants things which must shortly happen; and he sent and declared them by his angel to his servant John:

2 Who hath borne testimony to the word of God, and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, and to all that he hath seen.

ANNO DOMINI 98.

1 Happy he who readeth, and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep that which is written in it: for the time is at hand. 4 JOIN to the seven churches in Asia: Grace be to you, and peace, from him who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits that are before his throne; 5 And from Jesus Christ, the faithful Witness, the First-born from the dead, and the Ruler of the kings of the earth

To him who loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests to God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh amidst the clouds; and every eye will see him, and those who pierced him: and all the tribes of the earth will wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and end, saith the Lord, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, your brother, and companion in affliction, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches in Asia; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden lamp-stands;

13 And in the midst of the seven lamp-stands one like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about his breast with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hair were white like white wool, like snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire:

15 And his feet like fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and from his mouth issued a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying to me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 And he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I live for evermore, Amen; and I have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write that which thou hast seen, and that which is, and that which is to be hereafter;

20 The secret of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden lamp-stands. The seven stars are the messengers of the seven churches: and the seven lamp-stands which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER II.

What is commanded to be written to the messengers, that is, the ministers, of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira; and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

To the messenger of the church of Ephesus write: These things saith he who holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden lamp-stands;

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not endure the wicked; and thou hast tried those who say they are apostles, and are not; and hast found them liars:

3 And hast endured, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.
4 Yet, I have this against thee, that thou hast left thy first love.
5 Remember then whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do thy first works; else I will come to thee quickly, and will remove thy lamp-stand from its place, unless thou repent.
6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.
7 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; To him who overcometh I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.
8 And to the messenger of the church in Smyrna, write; These things saith the first and the last, who was dead, and is alive;
9 I know thy works, and affliction, and poverty, (but thou art rich,) and I know the reviling of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.
10 Fear nothing of what thou art to suffer. Behold, the devil will cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye will have affliction ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give thee the crown of life.
11 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; He that overcometh, shall not be harmed by the second death.
12 And to the messenger of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he who hath the sharp two-edged sword;
13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, where is the seat of Satan: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in the days in which Antipas was my faithful witness, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.
14 But I have a few things against thee, that thou hast there those who hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat idol-sacrifices, and to commit fornication.
15 So hast thou also those who hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.
16 Repent; or else I will come to thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.
17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; To him who overcometh I will give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knoweth, but he that receiveth it.
18 And to the messenger of the church in Thyatira, write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and whose feet are like fine brass;
19 I know thy works, and love, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first:
20 But I have a few things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman Jezabel, who calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat idol-sacrifices.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great affliction, unless they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will slay her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he that searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give to each of you according to your works.

24 But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, who have not this doctrine, and have not known the depths of Satan, (as they speak:;) I will put upon you no other burden:

25 But what ye have, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works to the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 (And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter they shall be dashed in pieces:;) as I also have received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning-star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

CHAPTER III.

2 The messenger of the church of Sardis is reproved, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatened if he do not repent. 8 The messenger of the church of Philadelphia 10 is approved for his diligence and patience. 15 The messenger of Laodicea rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold, 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the door and knocketh.

AND to the messenger of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he who hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen what is remaining, which is about to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou do not watch, I will come upon thee like a thief, and thou shalt not know at what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis that have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white garments: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh shall be clothed in white garments; and I will not blot out his name from the book of life, but I will acknowledge his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

7 And to the messenger of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith the Holy, the True One, he who hath the key of David, he who openeth, and none shutteth; and shutteth, and none openeth:

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and none can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but lie; behold, I will make them to come and fall down before thy feet, and know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of trial, which is coming on all the world, to try those who dwell on the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold fast what thou hast, that no one take thy crown.

12 Him who overcometh, I will make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out; and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God, and my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

14 And to the messenger of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true Witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot!

16 So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will cast thee from my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased in goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white garments, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and eye-salve to anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any one hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh I will grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and have sat down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

CHAPTER IV.

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty elders. 6 The four animals full of eyes before and behind. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sat on the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee that which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the Spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was in appearance like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow around the throne, in appearance like an emerald.

4 And around the throne were four and twenty seats; and on the seats I saw the four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white garments; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

12 And I beheld when he opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood,

13 And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig-tree casteth her [untimely] figs, when shaken by a violent wind.

14 And the heaven departed as a scroll that is rolled up; and every mountain and island were moved from their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every slave, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who can stand?

CHAPTER VII.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number. 9 Of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands. 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after this I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind might not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty-four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manassah were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zebulun were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no one could number, of all nations, and tribes, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God who sitteth on the throne, and to the Lamb.

11 And all the angels stood round the throne, and round the elders and the four animals, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and whence came they?

14 And I said to him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are those who come out of great affliction, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne will dwell among them.

16 They will hunger no more, and will thirst no more; nor will the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and will lead them to living fountains of waters: and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels had seven trumpets given them. 6 Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow. 3 Another angel putteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar.

AND when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels who stand before God; and there were given to them seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God from the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and threw it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures in the sea, that had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell from heaven a great star, burning like a torch, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who bore the male child.

14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman; and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast from his mouth.

17 And the dragon was enraged at the woman, and went to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads, and ten horns, to whom the dragon giveth his power. 11 Another beast cometh up out of the earth: 14 causeth an image to be made of the former beast, 15 and that men should worship it, 16 and receive his mark.

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a wild beast come up from the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2 And the wild beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were twounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the wild beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon who gave power to the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast? who can make war with him?

5 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue forty-two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all tribes, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all who dwell on the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

9 If any one hath an ear, let him hear.

10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that slayeth with the sword, must be slain with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I saw another wild beast coming up from the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast in his presence, and causeth the earth and those who dwell therein to pay homage to the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men.

14 And seduceth those who dwell on the earth by means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, that had the wound by a sword, and liveth.

15 And he had power to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be slain.

16 And he causeth all, small and great, rich and poor, free and slaves, to receive a mark on their right hand, or on their foreheads;

17 And that none might buy or sell, but he who had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisdom. Let him who hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred and sixty-six.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 The Lamb standing on mount Zion with his company. 6 An angel publisheth his message. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world, and putting in of the sickle. 20 The vintage and winepress of the wrath of God.

AND I looked, and lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Zion, and with him an hundred and forty-four thousand, having his Father's name written on their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of loud thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four animals, and the elders: and none could learn the song but the hundred and forty-four thousand, who were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they who have not defiled themselves with women; for they are pure as virgins. These are they who follow the Lamb wherever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel flying in the midst of heaven, having an everlasting gospel to publish to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and tribe, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, Fallen, fallen is Babylon, the great city! because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication!

9 And a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the wild beast and his image, and receive his mark on his forehead, or on his hand,

10 He himself shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into "the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone before the holy angels, and before the Lamb:

11 And "the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and those have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 "Here is the patience of the saints: here are those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying to me, Write, "Happy the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labours; and their works follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like the Son of man, "having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel "came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, having himself also a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, "having power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into "the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And "the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, "up to the horse-bridles, for a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them that overcome the wild beast. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND "I saw another sign in heaven, a great and wonderful, "seven angels having the seven last plagues; "because in these is accomplished the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were "a sea of glass mingled with fire: and those who had gained the victory over the wild beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, "having harps of God.

3 And they sing "the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and wonderful are thy works, Lord God Almighty; "just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

4 "Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for "all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after this I saw, and behold, "the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 "And the seven angels, who had the seven plagues, came out of the temple,

7 "And one of the four animals gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, "who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And "the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and none could enter the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were accomplished.

CHAPTER XVI.

2 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 8 The plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a loud voice from the temple, saying "to the seven angels, Go, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth!

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and "there fell an evil and grievous sore upon the men "who had the mark of the beast, and those "who worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and "it became as the blood of a dead man; "and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters: and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, "Thou art righteous, O Lord, "who art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast inflicted these judgments.

6 For "they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, "and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy!

7 And I heard another from the altar saying, Even so, "Lord God Almighty, "true and righteous are thy judgments!

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; "and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and "blasphemed the name of God, who hath power over these plagues: "and they repented not "to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; "and his kingdom was filled with darkness; "and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And "blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and "their sores, "and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; "and its water was dried up, "that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean "spirits like frogs come from the mouth of "the dragon, and from the mouth of the beast, and from the mouth of "the false prophet.

14 ("For they are the spirits of demons, "working miracles,) going forth to the kings of the earth, "and of the whole world, to gather them to "the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 ("Behold, I come as a thief. Happy is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, "lest he walk naked, and they see his shame:)

16 "And he assembled them into the place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a loud voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"

18 And "there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth; so great was the earthquake.

19 And "the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and Babylon the great "was remembered before God, "to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And "every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 "And there fell upon men a great hail from heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent; and "men blasphemed God because of "the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceedingly great.

CHAPTER XVII.

3, 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, which is great Babylon, the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 8 The punishment of the harlot. 14 The victory of the Lamb.

AND there came "one of the seven angels who had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying to me, Come hither; "I will shew thee the judgment of "the great harlot "that sitteth upon the many waters; "2 "With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and "the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit "into the desert: and I saw a woman sitting "on a scarlet-coloured beast, full of "names of blasphemy, "having seven heads and "ten horns.

4 And the woman "was arrayed in purple and scarlet-colour, "and flecked with gold and precious stones and pearls, "having a golden cup in her hand "full of abominations and the impurity of her fornication;

5 And on her forehead was a name written, "A SECRET, BABYLON "THE GREAT, "THE MOTHER OF "HARLOTS AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw "the woman drunken "with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of "the martyrs of Jesus: and I wondered at seeing her, with great wonder.

7 And the angel said to me, Wherefore didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the secret of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, that hath the seven heads, and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not; and "will ascend from the abyss, and "go into perdition: and those who dwell on the earth "will wonder, ("whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And "here is the mind which hath wisdom. "The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And they are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short time.

13 These have one mind, and will give their power and strength to the beast.

14 "These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them: "for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; "and those who are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith to me, "The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, "are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, "these will hate the harlot, and will make her desolate "and naked, and will eat her flesh, and "burn her with fire.

17 "For God hath put it in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom to the beast, "until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman whom thou sawest "is the great city, "that reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER XVIII.

2 Babylon is fallen. 4 The people of God commanded to depart from her. 9 The kings of the earth, 11 with the merchants and mariners, lament over her. 20 The saints rejoice for the judgments of God upon her.

AND "after this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great power; "and the earth was enlightened with his glory.

2 And he cried loudly with a strong voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and "is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and "a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations "have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, "and the merchants of the earth have grown rich through the habundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 "For her sins have reached to heaven, and "God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 "Reward her as she rewarded you, and give her double according to her works: "in the cup which she hath filled, "fill to her double.

7 "As much as she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a "queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come "in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and "she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And "the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, "will bewail her, and lament for her, "when they see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Alas, alas! the great city Babylon, the mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come!

11 And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all [thyine wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul desired are departed from thee, and all things sumptuous and splendid are departed from thee, and thou shalt no longer find them.

15 The merchants of these things who became rich by her, will stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas! the great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches are destroyed! And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city!

19 And they threw dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas! the great city, in which all who had ships in the sea were made rich from her magnificence! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great mill-stone, and cast it into the sea, saying, 'Thus with violence shall Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and shall be no longer found.

22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be no longer heard in thee; and no craftsman, of whatever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a mill-stone shall no longer be heard in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall no longer shine in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be no longer heard in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations seduced.

24 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all who were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great harlot, and avenging the blood of his saints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The birds called to the great slaughter.

AND after this I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia! 'Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, to the Lord our God!

2 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great harlot, that corrupted the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia! And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And the four and twenty elders and the four animals fell down and worshipped God who sat on the throne, saying, 'Amen; Alleluia!

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, 'Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye who fear him, both small and great!

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, Alleluia! for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth!

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give him honour: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath prepared herself.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith to me, Write, 'Happy are they who are called to the marriage-supper of the Lamb. And he saith to me, 'These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren who have the testimony of Jesus: worship God; for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judgeth and maketh war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but himself.

13 And he was clothed with a garment dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And from his mouth goeth forth a sharp sword, that with it he may smite the nations: and he will rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath on his garment and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the midst of heaven, 'Come, and assemble yourselves to the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slaves, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who wrought miracles before him, with which he seduced those who had received the mark of the beast, and those who worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the rest were slain with the sword of him who sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded from his mouth: and all the birds were satisfied with their flesh.

CHAPTER XX.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection: they blessed that have part therein. 7 Satan let loose again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should seduce the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled; and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them: and I saw the souls of those who were beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and who had not worshipped the beast, nor his image, nor had received his mark upon their foreheads, or on their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Happy and holy is he who hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan will be loosed out of his prison,

8 And will go out to seduce the nations in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and encompassed the camp of the saints, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the devil that seduced them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and will be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged from those things written in the books, according to their works.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof. 23 She needeth no sun, the glory of God is her light. 24 The kings of the earth bring their riches to her.

AND I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them, and be their God.

4 And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there will be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying, nor will there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said to me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said to me, It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give to him who is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and fornicators, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came to me one of the seven angels, who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like a stone most precious, like a jasper-stone, clear as crystal;

12 And it had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead that were in them: and they were judged each according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reed to measure the city, and its gates, and its wall.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured its wall, an hundred and forty-four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every precious stone. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; each single gate was of one pearl; and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple in it: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city hath no need of the sun, nor of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God enlighteneth it, and the Lamb is its light.

24 And the nations of those who are saved will walk in the light of it; and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall by no means enter it any thing that defileth, or that worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 3 The light of the city of God is himself. 9 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

AND he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding from the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which beareth fruit twelve times, yielding its fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there will be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it; and his servants will serve him:

4 And they will see his face; and his name will be on their foreheads.

Table with two columns: Anno DOMINI 96. and Anno DOMINI 96. containing various biblical references like ch. 21, 22, 23, etc.

5 And there will be no night there; and they need no candle, nor light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they will reign for ever and ever. 6 And he said to me, These words are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew to his servants the things which must shortly happen. 7 Behold, I come quickly: happy is he who keepeth the words of the prophecy of this book. 8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who shewed me these things. 9 And he saith to me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of those who keep the words of this book: worship God. 10 And he saith to me, Seal not the words of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand. 11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. 12 And behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to render to each according as his work shall be. 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. 14 Happy are those who do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates into the city. 15 For without are the dogs, and sorcerers, and fornicators, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loveth and maketh a lie. 16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify to you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright and morning-star. 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him who is athirst come. And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely. 18 For I testify to every one who heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any one add to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book: 19 And if any one shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the book of life, and from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. 20 He who testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus! 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
